Religious Imagination Gods Gift To Prophets And Preachers:

Religious Imagination Robert Doran Young, 1979-01-01 The Folly of Preaching Michael P. Knowles, 2007-08-28 The Folly of Preaching contains a wealth of theoretical and practical insights into preaching from some of today's best known preachers, scholars and homiletics teachers. Many of these contributions derive their inspiration from Paul's letters to the church at Corinth in which the apostle vigorously defends both the message of the gospel and his own manner of proclaiming it. Several of the twelve exemplary sermons rounding out The Folly of Preaching continue reflecting on the key theme of grace amid weakness and need, expounding passages from Paul's Corinthian correspondence. Of all the current preaching books available, few come close to the compilation here of eminent figures in contemporary preaching. Contributors: Elizabeth R. Achtemeier, Charles G. Adams, Donna E. Allen, John L. Bell, David G. Buttrick, Tony Campolo, Stephen C. Farris, John N. Gladstone, Edwina Hunter, Michael P. Knowles, Cleophus J. LaRue, Thomas G. Long, Martin E. Marty, Haddon W. Robinson, John R. W. Stott, Diane McLellan Walker. Preaching and Teaching with Imagination Warren W. Wiersbe, 1997-02-01 No more dreary three point sermon outlines. Wiersbe coaches preachers to creatively proclaim the living Word so hearers experience God's truth changing their lives. Handbook of Contemporary Preaching Dr. Michael Duduit, 1993-03-01 Contributors included Calvin Miller, Joel Gregory, Stuart Briscoe, James Cox, Elizabeth Achtemeier, Thomas Long, James Earl Massey and many more.

Voicing the Vision Linda L. Clader, 2003 Popular homiletics professor Linda Clader has been helping her students become attentive to how the Holy Spirit is speaking to them and eventually through them to the congregation. In Voicing the Vision she shares her ideas about what preachers can do to be open and receptive to the Spirit once the exegesis is done. Clader's approach to inspired and prophetic preaching is a holistic one filled with suggestions about how the preacher's spiritual life and practice affect openness to the Spirit as well as how various creative exercises can create spaces in which the Spirit can flourish. Her careful analysis of the biblical texts that illuminate how the Spirit works in those texts is supplemented by practical suggestions for noticing how the Spirit also works in the everyday life of preacher and congregation. This book will be a welcome companion for the seminarian who is just learning to preach as well as the seasoned preacher who is looking for new inspiration. That Which They Can't See David Van Brugge, 2025-01-20 In this retrieval study David Van Brugge addresses how the current understanding of a homiletical use of imagination for expository preaching might be strengthened. The current need for strengthening becomes apparent when the various understandings of imagination and their implications for practical theology are realized. This is compounded as trends in homiletics seem to minimize the imagination or embrace it in modern or postmodern ways. The original contribution of this study is recognizing that the homiletical use of imagination can be strengthened by retrieving the Puritan baroque characteristics of Jonathan Edwards' imagination as evidenced in his sermons to the Stockbridge Indians of 1751-1758. Edwards drew on a rich background to display an imagination that synthesized thoughts and ideas thought beyond the senses and that by the grace of God transformed thought and practice Through that creative thought Edwards maintained Biblical exposition and appeal to the affections Van Brugge further develops and evaluates the idea of Puritan baroque characteristics concluding that it is a helpful characterization of Edwards Stockbridge Indian sermons In these sermons Edwards imaginatively used imagery light space movement and glorification for the ultimate goal of directing the affections of his audience towards God Such a use of imagination for affective purpose becomes a key for the strengthening of a homiletical use of imagination today

Sharing the Word Lucy Atkinson Rose, 1997-01-01 Lucy Atkinson Rose proposes a nonhierarchical communal relationship between pastor and congregation that questions traditional assumptions of preaching and offers insight from those on the margin and those outside the field of homiletics She invites preachers to practice a style of conversational preaching rooted in connectedness and a sense of mutuality between preacher and worshippers
