Religious Regimes And State Formation Perspectives From European Ethnology:

Religious Regimes and State Formation Eric R. Wolf, 1991-01-01 This book intends to systematically overcome the received practice of treating religion and politics as wholly separate and independent domains It studies power and meaning in their antagonistic interdependencies rather than approaching religion purely as a realm of meaning without reference to issues of power or dealing with politics as the province of power without raising questions of meaning Religion and politics are thus seen in relation to one another and attention is focused on the disputes about how political and religious regimes should be formed Religious Regimes and State Formation will convince the reader that god and politics have much in common and offers surprising new perspectives on old problems State, Religion, and Revolution in Iran, 1796 to the Present B. Moazami, 2013-11-07 Two basic assumptions have shaped understanding of recent Iranian history One is that Shiism is an integral part of Iran's religious and cultural landscape The other is that the ulama religious scholars have always played a crucial role This book challenges these assumptions and constructs a new synthesis of the history of state and religion in Iran from 1796 to the present while challenging existing theories of large scale political transformation Arguing that the 1979 revolution has not ended Behrooz Moazami relates political and religious transformations in Iran to the larger instability of the Middle East region and concludes that turmoil will continue until a new regional configuration evolves

Theologies of Power and Crisis Stephen Pavey, 2011-07-01 Theologies of Power and Crisis provides a case study for Eric Wolf's research directive to better comprehend the interplay of cultural webs of meaning and material webs of power forms of social life More specifically the book demonstrates how theological discourse and practice engage with historical and material relations of power It has been normative to speak of power in terms of political and economic processes and theology in terms of interpretive and symbolic experiences This work breaks new ground by linking theological ideas with political economic processes in terms of the structural relations of power Ethnographically this research investigates the theological processes of Hong Kong Chinese Christians during a period of significant social change and crisis precipitated by the return of Hong Kong to China in 1997 It shows how local Christians and Christian institutions mediated the significant regional national and transnational forces of political economic change by connecting theological practice to the structural relations of power The Christian response was a contested process closely intertwined with the broader contested processes of social organization This study develops an understanding of Christianity that goes beyond ecclesiastical hegemony to encompass struggles over human practice meaning and representation in relation to the changing political economic context These findings implicate religious ideas and practice as significant to an understanding of social inequalities and powerlessness by connecting ideologies to material conditions Christian ideas may be used to legitimize an oppressive social order or they may be used to liberate those who are oppressed Issues related to the policies and practice of development should take seriously the role of religious beliefs and practices Church, State and Society in Kenya Galia

Sabar,2012-12-06 This volume offers a debate on the role of Christianity in post colonial Kenya charting the role of the church state and society in the transformation of Kenya and the relationship between the three It shows how the church initiated health education and economic activities showing it to be a major instrument of transformation Heroes and Martyrs of Palestine Laleh Khalili,2007-03-29 Many decades have passed since the Palestinian national movement began its political and military struggle In that time poignant memorials at massacre sites a palimpsest of posters of young heroes and martyrs sorrowful reminiscences about lost loved ones and wistful images of young men and women who fought as guerrillas have all flourished in Palestinian refugee camps in Lebanon and in the Occupied Palestinian Territories Heroes and Martyrs of Palestine tells the story of how dispossessed Palestinians have commemorated their past and how through their dynamic everyday narrations their nation has been made even without the institutional memory making of a state Bringing ethnography to political science Khalili invites us to see Palestinian nationalism in its proper international context and traces its affinities with Third Worldist movements of its time while tapping a rich and oft ignored seam of Palestinian voices histories and memories Religious Diversity in Post-Soviet Society Milda Ališauskiene,Ingo W. Schröder,2016-04-08 Since the end of state repression against religion two major processes have taken place in the formerly socialist countries historically dominant churches strive to reassert their position in society while new religious groups and ideas from various parts of the world are proliferating This generates pluralism of religious communities and individual religious attitudes Religious Diversity in Post Soviet Society presents the first collection of ethnographies of this new religious diversity for Lithuania a country that has a long history of a dominant Catholic Church The authors reveal how Catholicism has become increasingly diversified and other religions Charismatic Protestantism Baltic Paganism Eastern religions and other alternative spiritualities are claiming their space in the religious field A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion Janice Boddy,Michael Lambek,2015-12-14 A Companion to the Anthropology of Religion presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays that explore the variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world and asks how to think about religion as a subject of anthropological inquiry Presents a collection of original ethnographically informed essays exploring the wide variety of beliefs practices and religious experiences in the contemporary world Explores a broad range of topics including the perspectivism debate the rise of religious nationalism reflections on religion and new media religion and politics and ideas of self and gender in relation to religious belief Includes examples drawn from different religious traditions and from several regions of the world Features newly commissioned articles reflecting the most up to date research and critical thinking in the field written by an international team of leading scholars Adds immeasurably to our understanding of the complex relationships between religion culture society and the individual in today s world Mediterranean Frontiers Dimitar Bechev,Kalypso Nicolaïdis,2009-11-30 The identity of any nation state is inextricably linked with its borders and frontiers Borders connect nations and sustain notions of social cohesion Yet they are also the sites of division fragmentation and political conflict This ambitious study encompasses North Africa the Middle East and South and South East Europe to examine the emergence of state borders and polarised identities in the Mediterranean The authors look at the impact of political boundaries upon the region along with pressures from European and economic integration the resurgence of nationalism and refugee and security concerns The authors explore the politics of memory and ask whether echoes from the imperial past Ottoman and colonial could provide the basis for conflict resolution region building and economic integration The Revival of Islam in the Balkans Olivier Roy, Arolda Elbasani, 2015-07-28 This book shifts analytical focus from macro politicization and securitization of Islam to Muslims choices practices and public expressions of faith An empirically rich analysis the book provides rich cross country evidence on the emergence of autonomous faith communities as well as the evolution of Islam in the broader European context Annual Review of the Sociology of Religion. Volume 4 (2013), 2013-11-21 Prayer is a phenomenon which seems to be characteristic not only of participants in every religion but also men and women who do not identify with traditional religions It can be practised even by those who do not believe either in a God or transcendent force In this sense therefore we may assert that the prayer is a typically human activity that has accompanied the development of different civilizations over the course of the centuries Both the material issues of concrete daily life as well as more symbolic elements expressed through words gestures body positions and community celebration are brought together in the act of praying Religion and Ideology in Assyria Beate Pongratz-Leisten, 2015-09-25 Addressing the relationship between religion and ideology and drawing on a range of literary ritual and visual sources this book reconstructs the cultural discourse of Assyria from the third through the first millennium BCE Ideology is delineated here as a subdiscourse of religion rather than as an independent category anchoring it firmly within the religious world view Tracing Assur's cultural interaction with the south on the one hand and with the Syro Anatolian horizon on the other this volume articulates a northern cultural discourse that even while interacting with southern Mesopotamian tradition managed to maintain its own identity It also follows the development of tropes and iconic images from the first city state of Uruk and their movement between myth image and royal inscription historiography and myth and myth and ritual suggesting that with the help of scholars key royal figures were responsible for introducing new directions for the ideological discourse and for promoting new forms of historiography Animals and Inequality in the Ancient World Benjamin S. Arbuckle, Sue Ann McCarty, 2015-01-15 Animals and Inequality in the Ancient World explores the current trends in the social archaeology of human animal relationships focusing on the ways in which animals are used to structure create support and even deconstruct social inequalities The authors provide a global range of case studies from both New and Old World archaeology a royal Aztec dog burial the monumental horse tombs of Central Asia and the ceremonial macaw cages of ancient Mexico among them They explore the complex relationships between people and animals in social economic political and ritual contexts incorporating animal remains from archaeological sites with artifacts texts and iconography to develop their interpretations Animals and Inequality in the Ancient World presents new data and interpretations that reveal the role of animals their products and their symbolism in structuring social inequalities in the ancient world The volume will be of interest to archaeologists especially zooarchaeologists and classical scholars of pre modern civilizations and societies

Mediating Catholicism Eric Hoenes del Pinal, Marc Roscoe Loustau, Kristin Norget, 2022-03-10 This book focuses on the ethnographic study of Catholicism and media Chapters demonstrate how people engage with the Catholic media scape and analyse the social cultural and political processes that underlie Catholic media and mediatization Case studies examine Catholic practices in North America Western and Eastern Europe Latin America South East Asia and Africa providing a truly comparative de centred representation of global Catholicism Illustrating the vibrancy and heterogeneity of Catholicism world wide the book also examines how media work to sustain larger global Catholic imaginaries , A Linking of Heaven and Earth Scott K. Taylor, 2016-03-23 The Reformation of the sixteenth century shattered the unity of medieval Christendom and the resulting fissures spread to the corners of the earth No scholar of the period has done more than Carlos M N Eire however to document how much these ruptures implicated otherworldly spheres as well His deeply innovative publications helped shape new fields of study intertwining social intellectual cultural and religious history to reveal how lived beliefs had real and profound implications for social and political life in early modern Europe Reflecting these themes the volume celebrates the intellectual legacy of Carlos Eire s scholarship applying his distinctive combination of cultural and religious history to new areas and topics In so doing it underlines the extent to which the relationship between the natural and the supernatural in the early modern world was dynamic contentious and always urgent Organized around three sections Connecting the Natural and the Supernatural Bodies in Motion Mind Soul and Death and Living One s Faith the essays are bound together by the example of Eire s scholarship ensuring a coherence of approach that makes the book crucial reading for scholars of the Reformation Christianity and early modern cultural history Moved by Mary Willy Jansen, 2022-03-01

The Virgin Mary continues to attract devotees to her images and shrines In Moved by Mary anthropologists geographers and historians explore how people and groups around the world identify and join with Mary in their struggle against social injustice and how others mobilize Mary to impose ideas and rules and legitimize acts of violence and suppression Far from an outdated practice of little relevance to the modern world Marian pilgrimage expresses the deep and urgent concerns of a wide range of people With examples of Marian pilgrimages from all over the world Moved by Mary explores the ways in which men and women of different ages and religious political social economic and ethnic backgrounds empower themselves to deal with modern day issues with Mary s help The ethnographic cases reveal the cultural and devotional variation of Marian pilgrimage but also global similarities Collectively the contributors to Moved by Mary show how in many places religion dramatically suffuses everyday life Ageing with Smartphones in Urban Italy Shireen Walton, 2021-05-06 Who am I at this st age Where am I and where should I be and how and where should I live These questions which individuals ask themselves throughout their lives are among the central themes of this book which presents an anthropological account of the everyday experiences of age and ageing in an inner city neighbourhood in Milan and in places and spaces beyond Ageing with Smartphones in Urban Italy explores ageing and digital technologies amidst a backdrop of rapid global technological innovation including mHealth mobile health and smart cities and a number of wider socio economic and technological transformations that have brought about significant changes in how people live work and retire and how they communicate and care for each other Based on 16 months of urban digital ethnographic research in Milan the smartphone is shown to be a constant companion in of and for contemporary life It accompanies people throughout the day and night and through individual and collective experiences of movement change and rupture Smartphone practices tap into and reflect the moral anxieties of the present moment while posing questions related to life values and purpose identities and belonging privacy and sociability Through her extensive investigation Shireen Walton argues that ageing with smartphones in this contemporary urban Italian context is about living with ambiguity change and contradiction as well as developing curiosities about a changing world our changing selves and changing relationships with and to others Ageing with smartphones is about figuring out how best to live together differently Practising Without Belonging? Tobias Köllner, 2012 This is an examination of the intersection of Russia's economic transformation and religious revival in the sphere of morality

Intersecting Journeys Ellen Badone, Sharon R. Roseman, 2010-10-01 The appeal of sacred sites remains undiminished at the start of the twenty first century as unprecedented numbers of visitors travel to Lourdes Rome Jerusalem Santiago de Compostela and even Star Trek conventions Ethnographic analysis of the conflicts over resources and meanings associated with such sites as well as the sense of community they inspire provides compelling evidence re emphasizing the links between pilgrimage and tourism As the papers in this collection demonstrate studies of these forms of journeying are at the forefront of postmodern debates about movement and centers global flows social identities and the negotiation of meanings

Nation and Religion Juraj Buzalka, 2008 Author Juraj Buzalka analyses the interplay between religion politics and memory in the context of postsocialist transformations in south east Poland He shows that two Catholic churches play a crucial role in commemorations of the warfare and ethnic cleansings that took place here during and after the Second World War while the Roman Catholic Church claims a privileged status for the Polish nation the Greek Catholic Church does the same for the Ukrainian minority Central to Buzalka's analysis are changing forms of tolerance and multiculturalism and the emergence of post peasant populism a political culture rooted in rural social structures ideologies and narratives and saturated with religion Buzalka's work is an innovative contribution to political anthropology and his findings will also be of interest to political scientists social historians and sociologists
