Religious Studies, Theology, and the University Linell E. Cady,Delwin Brown,2002-10-10 Explores the relationship between religious studies and theology and the place of each in the modern secular university Theology and Religious Studies in Higher Education D.L. Bird,Simon G. Smith,2009-01-22 Theology and religious studies co exist in the majority of departments in higher education institutions within the UK yet there has been very little debate or discussion on how these two disciplines relate to one another in this context and on a more general level This new collection of essays aims to redress the balance and to add to fruitful discussion in this area Including essays by some of today s leading academics on the sometimes contentious relationship between religious studies or the study of religions and theology this volume is international in scope with contributions from scholars from the UK USA South Africa Netherlands Sweden and Iran Many of the essays offer a contextualised account of the evolving relationship between the disciplines The contributors address such issues as the place of theology within today s universities the problem of clashing methodologies in theology and religious studies the possibility for a theological religious studies approaching the study of religions without theology interdisciplinary approaches for bridging the theology religious studies divide and the place of biblical studies in the theology religious studies debate Religious Studies, Theology, and the University Linell E. Cady,Delwin Brown,2002-10-10 This collection explores the highly contested relationship of religious studies and theology and the place of each if any in secular institutions of higher education The founding narrative of religious studies with its sharp distinction between teaching religion and teaching about religion grows less compelling in the face of globalization and the erosion of modernism These essays take up the challenge of thinking through the identity and borders of religious studies and theology for our time Reflecting a broad range of positions the authors explore the religious secular conceptual landscape that has dominated the modern West and in the process address the revision of the academic study of religion and theology now underway Biblical and Theological Studies Michael J. Wilkins,Erik Thoennes,2018-05-16 There is an abundant need today for biblically grounded and practically applied theology In this book a New Testament scholar and a theologian team up to offer readers a robust introduction to biblical and theological studies This readable guide outlines a distinctly evangelical approach to studying the Bible and theology highlighting the proper methods for understanding and synthesizing the teachings of the Bible leading to deeper knowledge of God ourselves and how we are to meaningfully apply his Word to our lives Part of the Reclaiming the Christian Intellectual Tradition series Hurrying Toward Zion Conrad Cherry,1995 I find this a splendid piece of work which anyone wanting to understand the current scene or think about the future in theological education will need to study The Journal of Religion Cherry s is a masterful account weaving together themes of specialization professionalization and pluralism to create a fascinating narrative This is an important book and one that ought to be read by anyone interested in sociology of religion examine the extraordinary decline of mainline Protestantism over the past half century and assess its future Contributors discuss the demographics of mainline Protestants their beliefs practices and modes of worship their political views and partisan affiliations and the social and moral questions that unite and divide Protestant communities Other chapters examine Protestant institutions including providers of health care and education analyze churches public voice and probe what will come from a diminished role relative to other groups in society especially the ascendant evangelicals Far from going extinct the book argues the mainline Protestant movement will continue to be a vital remnant in an American religious culture torn between the contending forces of secularism and evangelicalism

Metaphysics as Christology Jonael Schickler, Fraser Watts, 2017-03-02 In Metaphysics as Christology Jonael Schickler presents a major contribution to both philosophy and theology First he examines the key philosophical problems with which Kant and Hegel grappled and finds in the work of Rudolf Steiner the essence of a solution to them he claims that Steiner returned to Hegel's philosophical problems but was better able to solve them Schickler uses these philosophical debates about knowledge and truth to understand the significance of Christ Building on the work of Hegel Schickler argues that Christ has made possible the developments in human consciousness that restore humanity's relationship to the surrounding world This is a bold and rigorous work that opens up new directions in both philosophy and theology Fraser Watts contributes the Foreword and George Pattison an extensive Preface

Theology between Church, University and Society N.F.M. Schreurs, Brinkman, Vroom, Wethmar, 2021-11-22 STAR Studies in Theology and Religion 6 Theology between Church University and Society includes contributions to the international NOSTER conference Theology between Church University and Society held in the Netherlands in June 2000 In the current academic world theologians are often suspected of confessionalism bias and narrow mindedness They in turn try to regain respect by producing specialist historical empirical and analytical studies that are in line with other academic research This retreat into neutrality renders them suspect in the eyes of their religious communities Some churches react by reformulating their appointment policies and become more strict in order to secure the full loyalty of the theological staff of their institutions Therefore many theologians feel a conflict between loyalty to their tradition and loyalty to the academic world Student populations have also changed considerably during the last few decades Quite a number of students have a lively interest in religion but no religious affiliation at all University teachers have to adapt to these new audiences and faculties need to reorient themselves to reestablish their goals This volume is concerned with these three challenges academic religious and societal In all of the contributions the tension between descriptive research and normative theses or the relation between theology and society at large is discussed Not only are there descriptions of the structures of theological institutions in the Netherlands the USA and South Africa but also of the relations between churches and theological institutions and Vatican policy regarding theological faculties
