Religious Worlds The Comparative Study Of Religion:

Religious Worlds William E. Paden,1994-08-01 From Gods to ritual observance to the language of myth and the distinction between the sacred and the profane Religious Worlds explores the structures common to all spiritual traditions

New Patterns for Comparative Religion William E. Paden,2016-05-19 The cross cultural study of religion has always gone hand in hand with the worldview sciences or intellectual frameworks of the time These frames whether focused on psychology or politics gender or colonialism bring out perspectives for understanding religious behavior Today one of our common civic worldviews is represented in the shift from scriptural to evolutionary history This volume brings together in one place key essays by professor emeritus William Paden showing a progression of steps he has taken in exploring bridgeworks between comparative religion and evolutionary models of religious behavior One of the leading scholars in religious studies Paden shows ways that religion can be contextualized as part of the natural world and thus seen as reflecting the ingrained sociality and world making drive of the human species Paden argues that although comparativism has been challenged as too culture bound too western or too gendered cross over categories and concepts between religious traditions cannot be avoided Arguing that there are recurrent patterns of human behavior common to our species and that thereby underlie all cultures he proposes that the missing link in the Religion Evolution debate is comparative religion a global cross cultural perspective on religious behaviours throughout time Each article is contextualized within this overall trajectory of thought within Paden s work and the history of the discipline as a whole A Comparative Study of Religions J.N.K. Mugambi,2010-12-29 This books is the result of concerted teamwork among the academia staff of the Department of Religious Studies University of Nairobi between 1986 and 1990 The Project was prompted by the necessity to produce relevant and comprehensive textbooks for the undergraduate degree programme The book has remained in demand confirming the relevance and quality of its content covering the whole range of major religions of the world with extensive geographical and historical acoppe It includes a specific section on African Religion thus placing the African Religious Heritage within the mainstream of the comparative study of the worlds religions World Religions in Practice Paul

Gwynne,2017-08-07 A new and expanded edition of a highly successful textbook on world religions with a comparative approach which explores how six major religions are lived and expressed through their customs rituals and everyday practices A new edition of this major textbook exploring the world s great religions through their customs rituals and everyday practices by focusing on the lived experience This comparative study is enriched and broadened with the inclusion of a sixth religion Daoism Takes a thematic comparative and practical approach each chapter explores a series of key themes including birth death ethics and worship across all six religions at each time Broadens students understanding by offering an impartial discussion of the similarities and differences between each religion Includes an increased range of student friendly features designed to allow students to engage with each religion and extend their understanding Religious Worlds

William E. Paden, 2015-10-27 From Gods to ritual observance to the language of myth and the distinction between the sacred and the profane Religious Worlds explores the structures common to all spiritual traditions The Routledge Companion to the Study of Religion, Sayyid Qutb's Radical Islamism and the Comparative Political Theology Dragos Stoica, 2025-02-15 Sayyid Qutb's Radical Islamism and The Comparative Political Theology argues that Sayyid Qutb's radical critique of secular modernity seen as a product of a great theft of sovereignty that usurps the monopoly of God over the entire world of creation is not idiosyncratic or incoherent but a quintessential expression and an extreme type of a specific tradition of political theology that until now has been exclusively the province of the Western thought Dragos Stoica claims that Sayyid Qutb's political theology of Hakimiyyah God's Sovereignty is better understood by integrating it in a wider context of the antimodern political theology Thus throughout this book he compares Qutb's critique of modernity with the Pakistani Islamist thinker Abu al A la Mawdudi 1903 1979 the Spanish Catholic counter revolutionary political theologian Juan Donoso Cortés 1809 1853 as well as the Protestant political theologians Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Rousas J Rushdoony 1916 2001 This book employs a family resemblance cross cultural comparative method and applies a cross disciplinary analytical model that combines comparative political theology with critical discourse analysis Employing these analytical instruments this book compares Qutb and his counterparts via the category of anti modern political theology more precisely through a set of shared antitheses organized around the master concept of God's Sovereignty The ultimate objective is to augment the understanding of the Qutbian critique of secular modernity as an essential dimension of anti modern political theology Thus by recasting Sayyid Qutb as an essential Muslim political theologian of God's Sovereignty placed within a larger cross cultural paradigm this book contributes as well to the necessary process of decolonization of political theology New Approaches to the Study of Religion Peter Antes, Armin W. Geertz, Randi Ruth Warne, 2004 The Routledge Companion to the Study of Religion John R. Hinnells, 2005 The Routledge Companion to the Study of Religion contains everything a student needs for a full understanding of theory and methods in religious studies It begins by explaining the most important methodological approaches to religion including psychology philosophy anthropology and comparative study before moving on to explore a wide variety of critical issues Written entirely by renowned international specialists and using clear and accessible language throughout it is the perfect guide to the problems and questions found in courses and exams The Cambridge Companion to Feminist Theology Susan Frank Parsons, 2002-07-04 Feminist theology is a significant movement within contemporary theology The aim of this Companion is to give an outline of feminist theology through an analysis of its overall shape and its major themes so that both its place in and its contributions to the present changing theological landscape may be discerned The two sections of the volume are designed to provide a comprehensive and critical introduction to feminist theology which is authoritative and up to date Written by some of the main figures in feminist theology as well as by younger scholars who are considering their inheritance it offers fresh insights into the nature of feminist theological work The book as a whole is intended to present a challenge for future scholarship since it critically engages with the assumptions of feminist theology and seeks to open ways for women after feminism to enter into the vocation of theology The Art of Spiritual Care across Religious Difference Jill L. Snodgrass, 2024-03-19 The United States is witnessing a rise in the religiously unaffiliated Participation in traditional religious settings is in decline But everyone inhabits a location relative to religion whether or not they practice or identify with a religious tradition People engage in religious encounters and relationships in myriad ways and their religious location is one part of their intersecting identities This shifting religious landscape challenges spiritual caregivers to provide competent care and counsel that honors how persons religious locations intersect Jill Snodgrass argues that without a theoretical understanding of religious location chaplains counselors and other spiritual caregivers are left without sufficient tools to navigate this relational terrain In The Art of Spiritual Care across Religious Difference she gathers practices and insights from experienced spiritual caregivers and scholars to explore the concept of religious location a term initially coined by pastoral theologian Kathleen Greider as an aspect of an individual's intersecting identity Snodgrass presents a compilation of essays that help spiritual caregivers think reflexively about their own religious locations and how these locations influence relational dynamics with care seekers within a diversity of cultural contexts This vigorous compilation advances the fields of pastoral and practical theology as well as spiritual care and counseling by developing a robust interreligious theory of religious difference grounded in insights from Christianity Buddhism Confucianism and Islam As such The Art of Spiritual Care across Religious Difference presents a well timed resource for the training of religiously competent caregivers to serve in hospitals prisons places of worship community mental health centers offices of campus ministry and more Scholars and practitioners will quickly discover that this book will serve as an enduring resource to meet the training needs for spiritual caregivers in ways that will help them to build enduring competencies

Representing Religion Tim Murphy, 2014-12-05 If religion is continually in a state of flux how can the study of religion critically examine contemporary religious beliefs and values Representing Religion critically examines this crisis of representation The volume traces the history of religious studies critiquing the concept that experience is central to understanding religion The views of influential semioticians and philosophers notably Nietzsche Saussure Foucault Barthes and Bakhtin are used to construct a new methodology for the critical study of religion Representing Religion will be of interest to students and scholars of semiotics as well as theory and method in religious studies War in Heaven/Heaven on Earth Stephen D. O'Leary, Geln S. McGhee, 2014-12-18 The apocalypse is a motif that lies behind many religious beliefs and practices War in Heaven Heaven on Earth theorizes the apocalyptic as it has arisen in a variety of religious traditions from Native American religion to Islam in Northern Nigeria and new terrorist movements Millennial theory and history are explored from the perspective of social psychology sociology and post modern philosophy The volume is unique in applying an analysis of millennial themes to a comparative study of religion Buddhism After Patriarchy Rita M.

Gross,1993-01-01 This book surveys both the part women have played in Buddhism historically and what Buddhism might become in its post patriarchal future The author completes the Buddhist historical record by discussing women usually absent from histories of Buddhism and she provides the first feminist analysis of the major concepts found in Buddhist religion Gross demonstrates that the core teachings of Buddhism promote gender equity rather than male dominance despite the often sexist practices found in Buddhist institutions throughout history

Evolution, Cognition, and the History of Religion: A New Synthesis Anders Klostergaard Petersen,Gilhus Ingvild Sælid,Luther H. Martin,Jeppe Sinding Jensen,Jesper Sørensen,2018-10-08 Evolution Cognition and the History of Religion A New Synthesis comprises 41 chapters that push for a new way of conducting the study of religion thereby transforming the discipline into a genuine science of religion The recent resurgence of evolutionary approaches on culture and the increasing acknowledgement in the natural and social sciences of culture s and religion s evolutionary importance calls for a novel epistemological and theoretical framework for studying these two areas The chapters explore how a new scholarly synthesis founded on the triadic space constituted by evolution cognition cultural and ecological environment may develop Different perspectives and themes relating to this overarching topic are taken up with a main focus on either evolution cognition and or the history of religion

Spiritual Diversity in Social Work Practice Edward R. Canda,Leola Dyrud Furman,2010 Weaving together interdisciplinary theory and research as well as the results from a national survey of practitioners the authors describe a spiritually oriented model for practice that places clients challenges and goals within the context of their deepest meanings and highest aspirations Using richly detailed case examples and thought provoking activities this highly accessible text illustrates the professional values and ethical principles that guide spiritually sensitive practice It presents definitions and conceptual models of spirituality and religion draws connections between spiritual diversity and cultural gender and sexual orientation diversity and offers insights from Buddhism Christianity Confucianism Hinduism Indigenous religions Islam Judaism Existentialism and Transpersonal theory Eminently practical it guides professionals in understanding and assessing spiritual development and related mental health issues and outlines techniques that support transformation and resilience such as meditation mindfulness ritual forgiveness and engagement of individual and community based spiritual support systems

Atheist Identities - Spaces and Social Contexts Lori G. Beaman,Steven Tomlins,2014-12-04 The essays in this book not only examine the variety of atheist expression and experience in the Western context they also explore how local national and international settings may contribute to the shaping of atheist identities By addressing identity at these different levels the book explores how individuals construct their own atheist or non religious identity how they construct community and how identity factors into atheist interaction at the social or institutional levels The book offers an interdisciplinary comparative approach to the analysis of issues relating to atheism such as demography community engagement gender politics stigmatism and legal action It covers such themes as secularization the social context of atheism in various Western countries the shifting of atheist identities based on different cultural and national contexts the role of atheism in multicultural settings how the framework of reasonable accommodation applies to atheism interactions and relationships between atheism and religion and how atheism is represented for political and legal purposes Featuring contributions by international scholars at the cutting edge of atheism studies this volume offers unique insights into the relationship between atheism and identity It will serve as a useful resource for academics journalists policy makers and general readers interested in secular and religious studies identity construction and identity politics as well as atheism in general

Theology, Hermeneutics, and Imagination Garrett Green, 2000 Explores the contemporary crisis of biblical interpretation by examining modern and postmodern hermeneutics of suspicion

Sacred Revolt Joel W.

Martin, 1993-04-01 The Muskogees Struggle for a New World In Sacred Revolt Joel Martin places the 1813 1814 revolt of the people who were called Creek Indians in the context of world history while forsaking nothing of the texture of their own culture With a deft use of multiple perspectives he has rewritten a chapter in the history of the Old South His book will do much to freshen stale ways of thinking about a valiant people Charles Hudson author of The Southeastern Indians

The Researcher Experience in Qualitative Research Susan Diemert Moch, Marie F. Gates, 2000 One of the most prominent currents felt in the arena of qualitative research methods is the impulse toward reflexivity and self analysis researchers considering their own place in the research act The goals of this book are to describe various researcher experiences and give novice researchers some insight to better choose research settings deal with their own personal issues in the research act and to report their research accurately The first part of the book will consider various populations and settings for qualitative research with a special emphasis on health care related settings Part Two will discuss how one processes the researcher experience both in terms of tools that can be used networking focused discussions qualitative writing etc as well as issues pertaining to processing cross cultural and gender issues etc It then offers some insight into ways of processing the researcher experience in teams Finally in part three the author turn to ways of reporting the researcher experience both in terms of possible setting journal articles chapters the Internet as well as modes and issues first person narratives ethical considerations
