Bennett, 2015-03-23 In 1980 SAGE published Geert Hofstede s Culture s Consequences It opens with a quote from Blaise Pascal There are truths on this side of the Pyrenees that are falsehoods on the other The book became a classic one of the most cited sources in the Social Science Citation Index and subsequently appeared in a second edition in 2001 This new SAGE Encyclopedia of Intercultural

The New Henry Giroux Reader Henry A. Giroux, 2018-11-30 The New Henry Giroux Reader presents Henry Giroux s evolving body of work The book articulates a crucial shift in his analyses after the September 11th 2001 terrorist attack when his writing took on more expansive articulations of power politics and pedagogy that addressed education and culture in forms that could no longer be contained via isolated reviews of media schooling or pedagogical practice Instead Giroux locates these discourses as a constellation of neoliberal influences on cultural practices with education as the engine of their reproduction and their cessation The New Henry Giroux Reader also takes up Giroux s proclivity for using metaphors articulating death as the inevitable effect of neoliberalism and its invasion of cultural policy Zombies entropy and violence permeate his work coalescing around the central notion that market ideologies are anathema to human life His early pieces signal an unnatural state of affairs seeping through the fabric of social life and his work in cultural studies and public pedagogy signals the escalation of this unease across educative spaces The next sections take up the fallout of 9 11 as an eruption of these horrific practices into all facets of human life within traditional understandings of education and culture s broader pedagogical imperatives The book concludes with Giroux s writings on education s vitalist capacity demonstrating an unerring capacity for hope in the face of abject horror Perfect for courses such as History and Philosophy of Education Political and Social Foundations of Education Policy Issues in American Education African American Education Social Justice Research in Education Marginality and the Politics of Resistance Equity and Anti Oppression Cultural Studies and Public Pedagogy

Inventing and Reinventing the Goddess Sree Padma, 2014-07-03 Popular religion in village India is overwhelmingly dominated by goddess worship Goddesses can be nationally well known like Durga or Kali or they can be an obscure deity who is only known in a particular rural locale The origins of a goddess can be both ancient with many transitions or amalgamations with other cults having occurred along the way and very recent While some have tribal origins others sprout up overnight due to a vivid dream Inventing and Reinventing the Goddess Contemporary Iterations of Hindu Divinities on the Move looks at the nature of how and why

goddesses are invented and reinvented historically in India and how social hierarchy gender differences and modernity play roles in these emerging religious phenomena      Stuart Hall Kuan-Hsing Chen, David Morley, 2006-05-23 Stuart Hall's work has been central to the formation and development of cultural studies as an international discipline Stuart Hall Critical Dialogues in Cultural Studies is an invaluable collection of writings by and about Stuart Hall The book provides a representative selection of Hall's enormously influential writings on cultural studies and its concerns the relationship with Marxism postmodernism and New Times in cultural and political thought the development of cultural studies as an international and postcolonial phenomenon and Hall's engagement with urgent and abiding questions of race ethnicity and identity In addition to presenting classic writings by Hall and new interviews with Hall in dialogue with Kuan Hsing Chen the collection which includes work by Angela McRobbie Kobena Mercer John Fiske Charlotte Brunsdon Ien Ang and Isaac Julien provides a detailed analysis of Hall's work and his contribution to the development of cultural studies by leading cultural critics and cultural practitioners The book also includes a comprehensive bibliography of Stuart Hall's writings      Travel Worlds Raminder Kaur, John Hutnyk, 1999 Everyone's Got a Traveller's Tale but Travel Worlds tells them with a sting African American musicians head East for Kung Fu kicks while paedophiles go for cheap sex pilgrimage Western bible bashers adopt missionary positions in India while heroic Saint George signs on as an Arab soldier in Britain the scars of Partition mock the protocols of transit while nomadic insurgents resist the Bangladeshi nation state with lyrical persuasion Kula Shaker and Madonna trinketize the Orient while dead tourists exchange values with travelling terrorists British Mirpuris and Black women travel back to the Old Country and beyond in ways that are not quite as they seem and ethnographers collide with tourists in the carousel of Goa's resorts Including poetry and fiction alongside academic essays this book refuses simplistic dichotomies of north south and east west and confronts head on existing conventions of writing about travel in post colonial literary and cultural studies      The Dramatic Arts and Cultural Studies Kathleen S. for tribal biblical interpretation has been made This book is the first comprehensive work that offers a description of tribal biblical interpretation and shows its application by making a lucid reading of Matthew s infancy narrative from a tribal reader s perspective Using reader response criticism as his primary method Zhodi Angami brings his tribal context of North East India into conversation with Matthew s account of the birth of Jesus Since tribal people of North East India see themselves as living under colonial rule a tribal reader sees Matthew s text as a narrative that actively resists and subverts imperial rule Likewise the tribal experience of living at the margins inspires a tribal reader to look at the narrative from the underside from the perspective of those who are sidelined ignored belittled or forgotten Tribal biblical interpretation presented here follows a process of conversation between tribal worldview and Matthew s narrative Such a method animates the text for the tribal reader and makes the biblical narrative not only more intelligible to the tribal reader but allows the text to speak directly to the tribal context

Cultural Studies ,2016-09-12 This volume claims that interdisciplinarity and translation constitute the two main challenges for cultural studies today These conceptual issues inter and trans express themselves within specific historical and cultural contexts Interdisciplinarity is linked with the ongoing process of the institutionalisation of cultural studies in national academies but also increasingly internationally comparatively and to a certain extent even globally of cultural studies of global culture Translation concerns cultural studies both as an object or product and as a subject or producer of translation processes Cultural studies is the result of translation translates and is being translated The essays in this volume therefore relate these various ongoing cultural linguistic and institutional translation processes to political and ethical issues of internationalisation and globalisation The contributions draw their originality and strength from strategically crossing disciplinary and national boundaries They deliberately ignore the question of what may be proper to cultural studies and instead problematise the notions of propriety and belonging As a reading practice cultural studies in these pages is performed through adaptations and combinations of theory and critical practice The volume should be of interest to everyone concerned with cultural studies role in promoting intellectual debate within an increasingly international and globalised public sphere
