to make learning through writing fun Teaching U.S. History Through Children's Literature Wanda Miller,1998-11-15 Similar to U S History Through Children s Literature From the Colonial Period to World War II in format and approach historical fiction and nonfiction are integrated into modern U S History For each of these topics Miller suggests two or more titles one for use with the entire class and one for use with small reading groups Summaries of the books author information activities and topics for discussion are supplemented with vocabulary lists and ideas for research topics and further reading This integrated approach makes history more meaningful to students and helps them retain historical details and facts by immersing them in stories surrounding historical events A well researched and thorough resource Creative Aging Marjory Zoet Bankson,2010-02-01 Discover Your Unique Gift Creative aging is a choice If we remember that transition always begins with endings moves on to a wilderness period of testing and trying and only then do we reach the beginning of something new then we can embrace this encore period of life with hope and curiosity remembering always that it is our true nature to be creative to be always birthing new ways of sharing our planet together from the Epilogue In a practical and useful way Marjory Zoet Bankson explores the spiritual dimensions of retirement and aging She offers creative ways for you to share your gifts and experience particularly when retirement leaves you questioning who you are when you are no longer defined by your career Drawing on stories of people who have reinvented their lives in their older years Bankson explores the issues you need to address as you move into this generative period of life Release Letting go of the vocational identity associated with your career or primary work Resistance Feeling stuck stagnant resisting change Reclaiming Drawing energy from the past discovering unused gifts Revelation Forming a new vision of the future Crossing Point Moving from stagnation to generativity Risk Stepping out into the world with new hope Relating Finding or creating new structures for a new kind of work Reference Tools & Study Skills (eBook) Sylvia J. Duncan,1989-09-01 This book promotes the use of reference materials by offering simple guidance to the often baffling subject of how to use reference tools The worksheets can be completed with minimal assistance from the teacher but students will require access to the reference books presented The intriguing subjects on the worksheets were chosen to challenge the imagination and lead to further independent study The study skills presented here will also help students proceed toward more efficient and productive work habits Challenges of Teaching with Technology Across the Curriculum Lawrence A. Tomei,2003-01-01 Integrating both theory and practice with assessment to make learning outcomes possible this text is an invaluable reference for teachers who develop their own instructional materials or are asked to select software and web sites for their students Educators from across the United States offer their thoughts on technology in every aspect of education from science to the fine arts and from mathematics to
