The Vine Remembers Leo A. Loubere, Jean Sagnes, Laura Frader, Remy Pech, 1985-06-30 In The Vine Remembers the vigneron growers and workers of the vine tell their own stories Based on interviews with workers and small vineyard owners the book presents the memories of vigneron from six major wine producing areas of France the Bordelais Burgundy the Beaujolais Champagne Languedoc and Roussillon Recollections range from changing living conditions to the position of women and nature of family life in viticultural society the changing work process and the labor struggles of vineyard workers and the changing technology of wine making Table of the Sun Bill Liggins,2019-03-08 Finding ancient Egyptian scrolls is a dream for many archaeologists and historians But none of them would think of looking for them in Kenya Thirty years ago that s what happened Nineteen ancient Egyptian scrolls were discovered on the slopes of Mt Kenya Why were they there They were three thousand miles out of place Who brought them there The archaeologists who found them had no answers It took Dr Mira Qasim and her team to finally decipher the scrolls and find the answers These scrolls weren t Egyptian she said They re actually Nubian from about 2 700 years ago the time of Egypt s 25th Dynasty when Nubia was a far larger empire than we knew Dr Qasim s findings had opened a window on a legendary land with a name that still resonates today as a term of endearment and empowerment a recognition of courage and poise Nubia What I found was Nubia s story as told by an orphan child named Kano Dr Kasim said He found his way to the core of Nubia and grew to become an essential part of its rise to empire I can t wait to share Kano s story with you

Recollections of an Unplanned Life Thomas Nixon Carver,1949 European Memories of the Second World War Helmut Peitsch,Charles Burdett,Claire Gorrara,2006 During the fifty years since the end of hostilities European literary memories of the war have undergone considerable change influenced by the personal experiences of writers as well as changing political social and cultural factors This volume examines changing ways of remembering the war in the literatures of France Germany and Italy changes in the subject of memory and in the relations between fiction autobiography and documentary with the focus being on the extent to which shared European memories of the war have been constructed

Purpose Beyond 2012 Wj Reichertz,2012 Like many Americans Ricky Vogt was searching for a career and purpose during the fallout from America s 2008 economic implosion At the same time the nation was searching to resolve energy environmental and economic problems within a dysfunctional political system This story explains how Vogt joined his fellow Americans as they fought amongst themselves in search of a better vision He questions how community resolves the tension between intolerance and personal liberty between the selfishness of trickle down economics and the ideals of spirituality and our founding documents promoting the common good The book depicts Vogt s evolving search for better solutions and a new way forward

The Spiritual Background to the First World War Rudolf Steiner,2024-05-24 With the unprecedented global conflict of the First World War as an overarching theme Rudolf Steiner addresses timeless issues such as the search for harmony between peoples and nations the development of the human capacity for love the contemporary presence of Christ and the questions of reincarnation and life after death Speaking in the German city of Stuttgart during and after the war years Steiner discusses the perpetual tension between East and West particularly in relation to Europe The war he says arose principally out of the Anglo Saxon peoples determination to exercise world domination Knowing that Slavic culture is destined to be the precursor of the sixth cultural epoch Western national interests resolved to make Eastern Europe specifically Russia the field for socialist experiments These events were aggravated by the failure of the Central European peoples in their own world historical task to rise to a broad sense of vision as intermediaries between the two groups Throughout Steiner refers to the work of individual Folk Souls but distinguishes them from the scourge of nationalism especially when it is based on blood whilst emphasizing the sovereignty of the individual human being Although more than a century old the enduring themes of these previously untranslated lectures will resonate with many readers today The main text is supplemented with an introduction by Simon Blaxland de Lange editorial notes and an index Trans by S Blaxland de Lange Intro by S Blaxland de Lange Sixteen lectures Stuttgart Sept 1914 March 1921 GA 174b 412pp 23 5 x 15 5 cm The

Abolitionists Remember Julie Roy Jeffrey,2012-02-01 In Abolitionists Remember Julie Roy Jeffrey illuminates a second little noted antislavery struggle as abolitionists in the postwar period attempted to counter the nation's growing inclination to forget why the war was fought what slavery was really like and why the abolitionist cause was so important In the rush to mend fences after the Civil War the memory of the past faded and turned romantic slaves became quaint owners kindly and the war itself a noble struggle for the Union Jeffrey examines the autobiographical writings of former abolitionists such as Laura Haviland Frederick Douglass Parker Pillsbury and Samuel J May revealing that they wrote not only to counter the popular image of themselves as fanatics but also to remind readers of the harsh reality of slavery and to advocate equal rights for African Americans in an era of growing racism Jim Crow and the Ku Klux Klan These abolitionists who went to great lengths to get their accounts published challenged every important point of the reconciliation narrative trying to salvage the nobility of their work for emancipation and African Americans and defending their own participation in the great events of their day

The Voice that Remembers Adhe Tapontsang,Joy Blakeslee,2012-11-12 When Adhe Tapontsang or Ama Mother Adhe as she is affectionately known left Tibet in 1987 she was allowed to do so on the condition that she remain silent about her twenty seven years in Chinese prisons Yet she made a promise to herself and to the many that did not survive she would not let the truth about China's occupation go unheard or unchallenged The Voice That Remembers is an engrossing firsthand account of Ama Adhe's mission and a record of a crucial time in modern Tibetan history It will forever change how you think about Tibet about China and about our shared capacity for survival

Mirrors of Destruction Omer Bartov,2000-08-24 Mirrors of Destruction examines the relationship between total war state organized genocide and the emergence of modern identity Here Omer Bartov demonstrates that in the twentieth century there have been intimate links between military conflict mass murder of civilian populations and the definition and categorization of groups and individuals These connections were most clearly manifested in the Holocaust as the Nazis attempted to exterminate European Jewry under cover of a brutal war and with the stated goal of creating a racially pure Aryan population and Germanic empire The Holocaust however can only be understood within the context of the century's predilection for applying massive and systematic methods of destruction to resolve conflicts over identity To provide the context for the Final Solution Bartov examines the changing relationships between Jews and non Jews in France and Germany from the outbreak of World War I to the present Rather than presenting a comprehensive history or a narrative from a single perspective Bartov views the past century through four interrelated prisms He begins with an analysis of the glorification of war and violence from its modern birth in the trenches of World War I to its horrifying culmination in the presentation of genocide by the SS as a glorious undertaking He then examines the pacifist reaction in interwar France to show how it contributed to a climate of collaboration with dictatorship and mass murder The book goes on to argue that much of the discourse on identity throughout the century has had to do with identifying and eliminating society's elusive enemies or enemies from within. Bartov concludes with an investigation of modern apocalyptic visions showing how they have both encouraged mass destructions and opened a way for the reconstruction of individual and collective identities after a catastrophe. Written with verve, Mirrors of Destruction is rich in interpretations and theoretical tools and provides a new framework for understanding a central trait of modern history.

Ojibwe Singers Michael David McNally, 2009 In the early nineteenth century Protestant missionaries promoted the translation of evangelical hymns into the Ojibwe language regarding this music not only as a shared form of worship but also as a tool for rooting out native cultural identity. But for many Minnesota Ojibwe today the hymns emerged from this history of material and cultural dispossession to become emblematic of their identity as a distinct native people. Author Michael McNally uses hymn singing as a lens to view culture in motion to consider the broader cultural processes through which Native American peoples have creatively drawn on the resources of ritual to make room for survival integrity and a cultural identity within the confines of colonialism.

Lincolnshire Past & Present, 2006 Media Technology and Cultures of Memory Elwin Susan John, Amal P Mathews, 2023-11-29 Media Technology and Cultures of Memory studies narrative memories in India through oral chirographic and digital cultures. It examines oral cultures of memory culled from diverse geographical and cultural landscapes of India and throws light on multiple aspects of remembering and registering the varied cultural tapestry of the country. The book also explores themes such as oral culture and memory markers, memory and its paratextual services, embodied memory practices in the cultural traditions between myths and monuments, literary and lived experiences, print culture and memory markers, marginalized memories in hagiographies, displaying memories online, childhood trauma, memory and flashbacks, and the politics of remembering and forgetting. Rich in case studies from across India, this interdisciplinary book is a must read for scholars and researchers of cultural studies, sociology, political science, English literature, South Asian studies, social anthropology, social history, and post colonial studies.

John Alexander Ferguson James Ferguson, 2011 John Alexander Ferguson was a leading barrister and esteemed judge of the New South Wales Industrial Commission for much of his successful career and actively contributed to the history of his country. A highly industrious man, Ferguson worked tirelessly to act for the public good. His defining contribution to the history of Australia, however, was his magisterial seven-volume BIBLIOGRAPHY OF AUSTRALIA 1941-1969, which describes with some limited exceptions every printed document concerning Australia from 1784 to 1901. Many of these can be found in the Ferguson Collection, which amasses some of Australia's most significant rare and unique colonial records as well as pictures and maps that track the birth of Australia.
