Lee,2022-12-15

Christian spiritual formation resources and teachings have primarily come from Western spiritual traditions Our current approach to formation comes out of that way of thinking and being communicating that the white experience of God is the norm and authority In Our Unforming De Westernizing Spiritual Formation Cindy S Lee proposes that we as the church need a new way to engage in spiritual formation To thrive in our increasingly diverse contexts we need an unforming and a reforming of our souls We need to unform the ways Western dominated church leaders have understood formation We need to reform to imagine and create a more intricate spirituality that includes diverse experiences of God Our Unforming is organized into three cultural orientations and eight postures Lee proposes that when we consider non Western cultural ways of being turning from linear to cyclical from cerebral to experiential and from individual to collective the formation journey shifts We live out these movements through postures ways of entering into deeper spiritual transformation The eight postures reflect our experience of time generations imagination uncertainty language work dependence elders and harmony Lee offers a more robust spirituality to hold the complexities of a multicultural God and the God human relationship Our Unforming is sure to inspire further conversation as it shifts how we approach formation in our diverse communities

Kaandossiwin, 2nd Edition Kathleen E. Absolon (Minogizhigokwe),2022-05-31T00:00:00Z Indigenous methodologies have been silenced and obscured by the Western scientific means of knowledge production In a challenge to this colonialist rejection of Indigenous knowledge Anishinaabe re searcher Kathleen Absolon describes how Indigenous re searchers re theorize and re create methodologies Indigenous knowledge resurgence is being informed by taking a second look at how re search is grounded Absolon consciously adds an emphasis on re with a hyphen as a process of recovery of Kaandossiwin and Indigenous re search Understanding Indigenous methodologies as guided by Indigenous paradigms worldviews principles processes and contexts Absolon argues that they are wholistic relational inter relational and interdependent with Indigenous philosophies beliefs and ways of life In exploring the ways Indigenous re searchers use Indigenous methodologies within mainstream academia Kaandossiwin renders these methods visible and helps to guard other ways of knowing from colonial repression This second edition features the author s reflections on her decade of re search and teaching experience since the last edition celebrating the most common student questions concerns and revelations Solidarity Is the Political

Version of Love Rebecca Vilkomerson,Alissa Wise,2024-09-03 What does the politics of solidarity look like in practice and how can left wing organizations grow in numbers and power while remaining accountable to the broader movements of which they are a part Against enormous odds and in the face of fierce pushback the Palestine solidarity movement has succeeded in transforming the landscape of American politics The movement has catapulted Palestine from being an untouchable topic in even liberal political circles to a central rallying cry in grassroots progressive organizing one that is championed by some of the highest profile and beloved members of Congress In the fall and winter of 2023 with the attention of the world focused on Israel s unprecedented aggression against the people of Gaza millions across the globe mobilized in solidarity with Palestinians and their struggle for liberation Jewish progressives in the US played a highly visible role in denouncing Israel s actions and US complicity in them leading mobilizations and disruptions from the US Capitol to Grand Central Station In this book two key leaders and former staff of Jewish Voice for Peace JVP Rebecca Vilkomerson and Rabbi Alissa Wise focus on the important role of anti Zionist Jewish organizing within the broader Palestine solidarity movement reflecting on their decade of leadership of JVP and drawing lessons especially relevant to those organizing from a position of solidarity Against the backdrop of rapid and often devastating political developments they explore how JVP grew larger as the organization shifted to the left and helped to alter the public narrative about Palestinian liberation while also navigating the tensions of organization building and creating a space for Judaism liberated from Zionism Their insights help contextualize the intense suppression of activism for Palestinian freedom while illuminating the roots of today s flourishing Jewish solidarity with Palestinians worldwide In addressing their shortcomings and failures no less than their inspiring successes Vilkomerson and Wise deliver an account of JVP s organizing during the 2010s that offers crucial strategic lessons for anyone engaging in the collective work of building organizations and fighting for justice as our movements evolve over time

Stories of Our Living Ephemera Emily Legg, 2023-12-15

Stories of Our Living Ephemera recovers the history of the Cherokee National Seminaries from scattered archives and colonized research practices by critically weaving together pedagogy and archival artifacts with Cherokee traditional stories and Indigenous worldviews. This unique text adds these voices to writing studies history and presents these stories as models of active rhetorical practices of assimilation resistance in colonized spaces. Emily Legg turns to the Cherokee medicine wheel and cardinal directions as a Cherokee rhetorical discipline of knowledge making in the archives, an embodied and material practice that steers knowledge through the four cardinal directions around all relations. Going beyond historiography, Legg delineates educational practices that are intertwined with multiple strands of traditional Cherokee stories that privilege Indigenous and matriarchal theoretical lenses. Stories of Our Living Ephemera synthesizes the connections between contemporary and nineteenth-century academic experiences to articulate the ways that colonial institutions and research can be Indigenized by centering Native American sovereignty. By undoing the erasure of Cherokee literacy and educational practices, Stories of Our Living Ephemera celebrates the importance of storytelling, especially for those who are learning about Indigenous histories and rhetorics. This book is of cultural importance and value to academics interested in composition and pedagogy, the Cherokee Nation, and a general audience seeking to learn about Indigenous rhetorical devices and Cherokee history.
