Remembering Ray A Composite Biography Of Raymond Carver:

Remembering Ray William L. Stull, Maureen P. Carroll, 1993 The Carver Chronotope G.P. Lainsbury, 2004-02-24

Raymond Carver's fiction is widely known for its careful documentation of lower middle class North America in the 1970s and 80s. Building upon the realist understanding of Carver's work, Raymond Carver's Chronotope uses a central concept of Bakhtin's novelistics to formulate a new context for understanding the celebrated author's minimalist fiction. G.P. Lainsbury describes the critical reception of Carver's work and stakes out his own intellectual and imaginative territory by arguing that Carver's fiction can be understood as diffuse, fragmentary, and randomly ordered. Offering a fresh analysis of Carver's body of work, this book offers an extensive meditation on this major figure in postmodern U.S. fiction. Remembering Ray William L. Stull, Maureen Patricia Carroll, 1993 The Poetry of Raymond Carver Sandra Lee Kleppe, 2016-02-24

Best known as one of the great short story writers of the twentieth century, Raymond Carver also published several volumes of poetry and considered himself as much a poet as a fiction writer. Sandra Lee Kleppe combines comparative analysis with an in-depth examination of Carver's poems, making a case for the quality of Carver's poetic output and showing the central role Carver's pursuit of poetry played in his career as a writer. Carver constructed his own organic literary system of autopoetics, a concept connected to a paradigm shift in our understanding of the interrelatedness of biological and cultural systems. This idea is seen as informing Carver's entire production, and a distinguishing feature of Kleppe's book is its contextualization of Carver's poetry within the complex literary and scientific systems that influenced his development as a writer. Kleppe addresses the common themes and intertextual links between Carver's poetry and short story careers, situates Carver's poetry within the love poem tradition, explores the connections between neurology and poetic memories, and examines Carver's use of the elegy genre within the context of his terminal illness. Tellingly, Carver's poetry, which has aroused slight interest among literary scholars, is frequently taught to medical students. This testimony to the interdisciplinary implications of Carver's work suggests the appropriateness of Kleppe's culminating discussion of Carver's work as a bridge between the fields of literature and medicine. Raymond Carver's Short Fiction in the History of Black Humor Jingqiong Zhou, 2006

This first book-length study on the black humor in Raymond Carver's work includes valuable interpretations of Carver's aesthetics as well as the psycho-social implications of his short fiction. The presence of an indeterminate menace in the oppressive situations of black humor in Carver, as compared to a European tradition of existentialist writing and his American predecessors including Twain, Heller, Barth, and others, is mitigated through humor, so it is not dominant. As a result, a subtle promise emerges in the characters' lives. A Study Guide for Raymond Carver's "What We Talk About When We Talk About Love" Gale, Cengage Learning, The Visual Poetics of Raymond Carver Ayala Amir, 2010-07-17

The Visual Poetics of Raymond Carver draws on the study of visual arts to illuminate the short stories of noted author Raymond Carver in the broader context of vision and visualization in a literary text. Ayala Amir examines Carver's use of the eye of the camera technique. Amir uncovers the tensions that structure his visual aesthetics and examines assumptions that govern scholarly discussions of his work relating these matters to the complex nature of photography and to the current visual turn of cultural studies The research uses visual approaches to reflect upon traditional issues of narrative study duration dialogue narration description frame character and meaning Amir shows how Carver's visual aesthetics shapes the meaning of his stories while also challenging accepted notions of the boundaries of the literary

Raymond Carver Carol Sklenicka, 2009-11-24 The first biography of America's best known short story writer of the late twentieth century The London Times called Raymond Carver the American Chekhov The beloved mischievous but more modest short story writer and poet thought of himself as a lucky man whose renunciation of alcohol allowed him to live ten years longer than he or anyone expected In that last decade Carver became the leading figure in a resurgence of the short story Readers embraced his precise sad often funny and poignant tales of ordinary people and their troubles poverty drunkenness embittered marriages difficulties brought on by neglect rather than intent Since Carver died in 1988 at age fifty his legacy has been mythologized by admirers and tainted by controversy over a zealous editor's shaping of his first two story collections Carol Sklenicka penetrates the myths and controversies Her decade long search of archives across the United States and her extensive interviews with Carver's relatives friends and colleagues have enabled her to write the definitive story of the iconic literary figure Laced with the voices of people who knew Carver intimately her biography offers a fresh appreciation of his work and an unbiased vivid portrait of the writer

Painting the House Bibhu Padhi, 1999 Painting the House is the fourth collection of poems from a poet who has now been published in magazines and periodicals throughout the English speaking world Inward looking and at the same time deeply rooted in cultural and interpersonal realities these poems speak to the heart in their own universal language

Masculinity and Place in American Literature since 1950 Vidya Ravi, 2019-05-15 American literature has long celebrated the figure of the self made man and the idea of establishing selfhood particularly male selfhood in nature However during the crisis of masculinity that swept across America in the middle of the twentieth century a generation of writers started exploring a different kind of a man This was a figure who was concerned not so much with the loss of the West or the desire to recover a wilderness but with how to live in an ordinary domesticated continent Masculinity and Place in American Literature since 1950 explores the role of place in negotiating reinforcing and subverting articulations of hegemonic masculinity in the work of four American writers from the latter part of the 20th century John Cheever John Updike Raymond Carver and Richard Ford The book argues that American fiction by white male writers between the 1950s and the present day is compelled by the troubled and troubling relationship between masculinity and place This relationship is deeply embedded in how ideals of masculinity are predicated upon the experience of the physical world and how the symbolic logic of masculinity is continually subverted by alternative conceptions of dwelling and ecological consciousness A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen,James
