Reminiscences of Seattle, Washington Territory, and the U.S. Sloop-of-war "Decatur" During the Indian War of 1855-1856 ... Reprinted from First Series of "United Service Magazine." Edited by Alice Harriman Thomas Stowell PHELPS,Alice HARRIMAN,1908 Reminiscences of the Old Navy Thomas Stowell Phelps,1881 Agents of Empire James Robbins Jewell,2023-06 James Robbins Jewell examines the First Oregon Cavalry Regiment's role in protecting and policing the Pacific Northwest during the Civil War

Forlorn Confederacy Revised Edition Mark Berhow,2019-02-02 The conflicts occurring in the Washington Territory in the 1850s provide an interesting case study of the Native American Indian Wars It is an excellent story not only of the conflict itself but also the interplay between the natives early settlers missionaries and army personalities involved There is a wealth of contemporary documentation available but modern histories often center on only certain aspects of those conflicts Many of the tribes on the Washington coast and in the interior had strong ties with one another and the events of the Washington Territory Indian wars in the Puget Sound area and the Inland Empire area are tied to one another This is not often been brought together in a single work This is short history of those conflicts along with an extensive bibliography of references of both contemporary works and original source material Most of the sites where the major events that occurred during this conflict are marked today and a guide to those sites is included

The United States Catalog ,1909 Indians in the Making Alexandra Harmon,2000-09 A compelling survey history of Pacific Northwest Indians as well as a book that brings considerable theoretical sophistication to Native American history Harmon tells an absorbing clearly written and moving story Peggy Pascoe University of Oregon This book fills a terribly important niche in the wider field of ethnic studies by attempting to define Indian identity in an interactive way

George Sanchez University of Southern California Suffragist Migration West after Seneca Falls, 1848-1871 Stephanie Stidham Rogers,2024-03-06 Suffragist Migration West after Seneca Falls 1848 1871 Catharine Paine Blaine by Stephanie Stidham Rogers explores the surprising link between Elizabeth Cady Stanton the Seneca Falls Women's Rights Conference of 1848 and the Women's Suffrage Bill presented at the 1854 Washington State Territorial Legislature It shows how Seattle's first Suffragist educator clothing protestor and activist Catharine Paine Blaine planted the seeds of the Western feminist movement and this book redresses her prior omission as the founder of the University of Washington

Catharine drew upon the political tools and discursive skills she acquired during her abolitionist upbringing in the nascent days of Washington State. However, like many suffragists of her time, she rejected Native culture and regarded Native men as competitors for the vote. Rogers examines Seattle within the broader context of the Western suffrage column that would only gain similar widespread acceptance in the East in 1885 when Catharine Paine Blaine became the first signer of the Seneca Falls Declaration to legally cast her vote in the City of Seattle. Stidham Rogers unveils the unique contributions of Western suffragists in the comparatively liberating frontier context leading to the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment.
