Practice offers a collection of essays by leading pastoral theologians that represent emerging trajectories in the fields of pastoral theology and care. The topics explored include qualitative research and ethnography, advances in neuroscience, care across pluralities and intersections in religion and spirituality, the influence of neoliberal economics in socio-economic vulnerabilities, postcolonial theory and its implications, the intersections of race and religion in caring for black women, and the usefulness of intersectionality for pastoral practice. Each of the essays offers a richly illustrated review of a practice of pastoral care relationally and in the public domain. The contributions to this volume engage seven critical directions emerging in the literature of pastoral theology in the United States and internationally among pastoral and practical theologians. While coverage of these topics does not exhaust important points of activity in the field, it does represent especially promising resources for theory and practice. This important work offers unique coverage of new directions in the field. Includes contributions from an exceptional group of experts who are noted leaders in their areas of study. Introduces the newest perspectives on pastoral care and offers constructive proposals. Filled with case illustrations that make chapters pedagogically useful. Pastoral Theology and Care is essential reading for faculty, seminarians, and students in advanced degree programs and pastors.

Korean Resources for Pastoral Theology James Newton Poling, HeeSun Kim, 2012-07-19. In a time of life and death challenges to the human spirit, global economics, nuclear dangers, environmental threats, and religious polarization and war, Christians must look for resources that provide new insights of God's power and care for all people. What are the forms of suffering and hope in the world today, and how can Christians respond with healing resources? Korean Christians have unique contributions to make to our understanding of pastoral theology and counseling. Pastoral counselors and theologians from the United States should look to the South Korean Christian churches and other Asian churches for conversation partners about the nature of care and healing in today's world. In this book, the authors explore important ideas such as han, jeong, and salim from Korean history and culture that can inform the healing ministries of the churches.

Rethinking Faith James Newton Poling, 2011-08. What can practical theology contribute to other theological disciplines and the church about the nature of God and the church's witness to Jesus Christ in the world? What can we learn about the love and power of God in Jesus Christ from the community of survivors of violence? Rethinking Faith urges all Christians to consider themselves practical theologians by drawing on their own experiences in making theological assertions. Poling couples his understanding of the tradition with his work with survivors of violence to demonstrate the resilience of Christianity.

Caring for Souls in a Neoliberal Age Bruce Rogers-Vaughn,2016-11-08 This volume offers a detailed analysis of how the current phase of capitalism is eating away at social interpersonal and psychological health Drawing upon an interdisciplinary body of research Bruce Rogers Vaughn describes an emerging form of human distress what he calls third order suffering that is rapidly becoming normative Moreover this new paradigm of affliction is increasingly entangled with already existing genres of misery such as sexism racism and class struggle mutating their appearances and mystifying their intersections Along the way Rogers Vaughn presents stimulating reflections on how widespread views regarding secularization and postmodernity may divert attention from contemporary capitalism as the material origin of these developments Finally he explores his own clinical practice which yields clues for addressing the double unconsciousness of third order suffering and outlining a vision for caring for souls in these troubling times

Care of Souls, Care of Polis Ryan LaMothe,2017-07-25 In the fields of pastoral care and pastoral theology there are times when a book signals a paradigm shift This is one such book LaMothe develops a political pastoral theology that is used to examine critically political economic and societal structures and practices In the first part of the book LaMothe argues that care and pastoral care are political concepts which along with the notion of justice can be used as a hermeneutical framework to assess macropolitical and macroeconomic realities Included in this section is the notion of civil and redemptive discourse necessary for the survival and flourishing of persons and polis The last section of the book examines U S Empire capitalism class classism and other pressing political issues using the hermeneutical lens of care

Living Devotions Mary Clark Moschella, 2008-01-01 Living Devotions explores how a particular community has creatively negotiated its religious bonds of connection in the context of immigration These matters cannot be studied in the abstract Religious practice is not something separate from the economic cultural and psychological dimensions of life but rather something integral which shapes and is being shaped by all of these other realities The author examines these dynamics through an ethnographic case study of the living devotions of a group of Italian Catholic immigrants to San Pedro California The narrative describes how the group's historical experiences of immigration and fishing find expression in their particular forms of prayer art artifacts and food The healing and transformative power of these shared religious practices is explored As contemporary theologians pastors and congregations seek to welcome and care for immigrants and other strangers in a shifting social landscape we need ways to engage in care full and attentive relationships The ethnographic method employed here suggests a way to lift up the voices of ordinary people allowing them to tell their own stories while piecing together emerging bits of theological wisdom and compelling care practices While the particular insights of any community are situated and specific theological reflection in one context can animate a broader discussion of transformative pastoral theology and practice

Prophetic Liturgy Tércio Junker, 2014-02-07 The primary purpose of Prophetic Liturgy is to inquire into the prophetic dimension of the liturgy Some questions addressed in the book are How can a liturgy be prophetic How can liturgy form and transform individuals and communities In which sense does the liturgy facilitate a living participation in socio political economic life How does the sacramental practice challenge the church to mediate God's gifts of grace love justice and mercy to the world Possible answers for these questions begin to emerge as we develop an understanding of religious praxis as an active and dynamic prophetic action in which the community of faith claims its identity promotes an engaged faithful Christian life and affirms the sacramental life of the church as a source of formation and inspiration for prophetic praxis mediating God's gift for the life of the world There is risk in presenting an option for prophetic praxis in that it may go beyond the comfort zone of a community and engender spiritual and political alienation The most challenging ethical hope of this book is to provide the worshipping community with prophetic awareness of socio economic injustice while at the same time preserving the community's historical cultural identity its religious values and its sacramental spirituality
