Gensheimer, Celeste Lovette Guichard, 2017-09-08 Historic sites celebrate defining moments in history memorialize important events and people and contribute to the character of the locations where they are situated Heritage designation both globally and nationally is an inherently contested issue As detailed in this volume concerns of politics and identity criteria for designation impacts on communities and sites and challenges to management planning are central to any understanding of the process by which heritage sites are created developed and maintained The idea for this volume originated at a symposium hosted by the Savannah College of Art and Design Contributors address such topics as the need to revamp criteria for designation the effect historic site recognition has on local communities the challenges encountered in maintaining a site and issues linked to specific political climates or actions and group identity The contributors constitute an international cast of leading scholars employees and policy makers all of whom have had extensive experience with World Heritage and National Register site stewardship The work will be an invaluable reference for historians architects and those committed to the preservation of national monuments     American Folk Art Kristin G. Malesh, 2010-07-02 From suffragettes to vegans participants in social movements strive to change the worlds they inhabit whether by direct action rallies marches organized work stoppages or engaging government power in service of their aims Active Voices explores both the rhetorical dimensions of such activist activities and the integral role of rhetoric in the processes of social transformation This collection balances in depth analyses of particular movements and pedagogical projects with broader perspectives on how language and embodied action shape avenues for activism. Featured are a wide range of sites for social change from the progressive education movement to African American drum circles and from prisoner reentry programs to the nineteenth century women's suffrage movement. Speaking as scholars, activists, storytellers, rhetoricians, and teachers, the contributors blur the boundaries between different aspects of their identities and challenge divisions between creating theory and practicing it. Roadside Revelations Boykin Woodruff, 1994-06-01 EPHEMERIS --The Book of Time --2 Red Jordan Arobateau, 2010 Canoeing the Great Plains Patrick Dobson, 2015-05-01 Tired of an unfulfilling life in Kansas City, Missouri, Patrick Dobson left his job and set off on foot across the Great Plains. After two and a half months, 1,450 miles, and numerous encounters with the people of the heartland, Dobson arrived in Helena, Montana. He then set a canoe on the Missouri and asked the river to carry him safely back to Kansas City, hoping this enigmatic watercourse would help reconnect him with his life. In Canoeing the Great Plains, Dobson recounts his journey on the Missouri, the country's longest river. Dobson, a novice canoeist, when he begins his trip, faces the Missouri at a time of dangerous flooding and must learn to trust himself to the powerful flows of the river and its stark and serenely beautiful countryside. He meets a cast of characters along the river who assist him both with the mundane tasks of canoeing—portaging around dams and reservoirs and finding campsites—and with his own personal transformation. Mishaps, mistakes, and misadventures plague his trip, but over time, the river shifts from being a frightening adversary to a welcome companion. As the miles float by and the distinctions blur between himself and what he formerly called nature, Dobson comes to grips with his past, his fears, and his life beyond the river. Idaho Ruffed Grouse Hunting: The Heartbeat of the Woods Andrew Marshall Wayment, 2018 The Grand Sporting Tradition Continues. Ruffed grouse hunting is to bird hunting what fly fishing is to fishing: the pinnacle of the sport. Grouse hunters are a diehard lot consumed by chasing evasive birds through impenetrable thickets. Grouse hunters everywhere will relate to and enjoy this intimate look into ruffin' it in Idaho. Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2003 Boston's Black Athletes Robert Cvorneyk, Douglas Stark, 2024-07-08 Sport often mirrored the racial climate of the time, but it also informed and encouraged equality on and off the field. In Boston, the Black athletic body historically represented a challenge to the city's liberal image. Boston's Black Athletes: Identity, Performance, and Activism interprets Boston's contested racial history through the diverse experiences of the city's African American sports figures who directed their talent toward the struggle for social justice. Editors Robert Cvorneyk and Douglas Stark and the contributors explore a variety of representative athletes such as Kittie Knox, Louise Stokes, and Medina Dixon that negotiated Boston's racial boundaries at sequential moments during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to demonstrate Boston's long and troubled racial history. The contributors' biographical sketches are grounded in stories that have remained memorable within Boston's Black neighborhoods. In recounting the struggles and triumphs of these individuals, this book amplifies their stories and reminds readers that Boston's Black sports fans found a historic consistency in their athletes to shape racial identity and cultural expression
