Robert Musil's The Man Without Qualities A Critical Study:

The Critical Response to Musil's The Man Without Qualities Timothy J. Mehigan, 2003 Table of contents     Robert Musil's 'The Man Without Qualities' Philip Payne, 1988-08-26 This is the first comprehensive study of The Man Without Qualities guides the reader towards Musil's central concerns     The World as Metaphor in Robert Musil's The Man Without Qualities Genese Grill, 2012 The first study to utilize the Klagenfurt Edition of Musil's Nachlass offers a close reading of textual variations emphasizing Musil's commitment to the artist's role in re-creating the world Robert Musil, known to be a scientific and philosophical thinker, was committed to aesthetics as a process of experimental creation of an ever-shifting reality Musil wanted above all to be a creative writer and obsessively engaged in almost endless deferral via variations and metaphoric possibilities in his novel project The Man without Qualities This lifelong process of writing is embodied in the unfinished novel by a recurring metaphor of self-generating de-centered circle worlds The present study analyzes this structure with reference to Musil's concepts of the utopia of the Other Condition Living and Dead Words Specific and Non-Specific Emotions Word Magic and the Still Life In contrast to most recent studies of Musil it concludes that the extratemporal metaphoric experience of the Other Condition does not fail but rather constitutes the formal and ethical core of Musil's novel The first study to utilize the newly published Klagenfurt Edition of Musil's literary remains a searchable annotated text The World as Metaphor offers a close reading of variations and text genesis shedding light not only on Musil's novel but also on larger questions about the modernist artist's role and responsibility in consciously re-creating the world Genese Grill holds a PhD in Germanic Literatures and Languages from the Graduate School and University Center of the City University of New York     A Companion to the Works of Robert Musil Philip Payne, Graham Bartram, Galin Tihanov, 2007 The analyses in this title are embedded in an appreciation of the intellectual context's of Musil's writing yielding fresh insights into his artistic accomplishment and his place in the Austrian and German traditions of the 20th century     Understanding Robert Musil Allen Thiher, 2009 Deft analysis of the fiction, theater and essays of the author of The Man without Qualities In this critical introduction to the major works of Austrian modernist writer Robert Musil (1880-1942) Allen Thiher offers a deft analysis of Musil's short fiction, theater and essays and his major novel The Man without Qualities Thiher maps Musil's development as a writer illustrating how his work evolved in response to catastrophic historical events such as World War I, the collapse of the Austro-Hungarian Empire and Hitler's seizure of power From this historical context Thiher traces how Musil began his career by writing a prescient first novel about ideological developments in German culture and at the same time a doctoral thesis on scientific epistemology Following his service in World War I Musil began to view writing as his vocation and during this early period in his literary career he produced short fiction, plays and some of the most interesting essays on politics, ethics and literature to be published during the Weimar era In exploring these writings as well as The Man without Qualities, a work left unfinished upon Musil's death in exile during World War II, Thiher's study plumbs the depths of Musil's ambition and accomplishments and presents a concise interpretation of the lasting significance of the writer's interrogations of the foundations of modern European culture The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Urban Literary Studies Jeremy Tambling, 2022-10-29 This encyclopaedia will be an indispensable resource and recourse for all who are thinking about cities and the urban and the relation of cities to literature and to ways of writing about cities. Covering a vast terrain, this work will include entries on theorists, individual writers, individual cities, countries, cities in relation to the arts, film and music, urban space, pre-early and modern cities, concepts and movements, and definitions, amongst others. Written by an international team of contributors, this will be the first resource of its kind to pull together such a comprehensive overview of the field.

Modernism in Trieste Salvatore Pappalardo, 2021-01-14 When we think about the process of European unification, our conversations inevitably ponder questions of economic cooperation and international politics. Salvatore Pappalardo offers a new and engaging perspective, arguing that the idea of European unity is also the product of a modern literary imagination. This book examines the idea of Europe in the modernist literature of primarily Robert Musil, Italo Svevo, and James Joyce, but also of Theodor Döblin and Srećko Kosovel, all authors who had a deep connection with the port city of Trieste. Writing after World War I, when the contested city joined Italy, these authors resisted the easy nostalgia of the postwar period, radically reimagining the origins of Europe in the Mediterranean culture of the Phoenicians, contrasting a 19th-century nationalist discourse that saw Europe as the heir of a Greek and Roman legacy. These writers saw the Adriatic city a cosmopolitan bazaar under the Habsburg Empire as a social laboratory of European integration. Modernism in Trieste seeks to fill a critical gap in the extant scholarship, securing the literary history of Trieste within the context of current research on Habsburg and Austrian literature. The Confusions of Young Torless Robert Musil, 2014 Set in a boarding school in a remote area of the Habsburg Empire at the turn of the last century, The Confusions of Young Torless is an intense study of an adolescent's psychological development as he struggles to come to terms with his conflicting emotions. Through his relationship with two other boys, Torless is led into sadistic and sexual encounters with a third pupil which both repel and fascinate him. Estranged from everyday life, Torless gradually learns to accept his experiences and describe them with analytical precision. A History of Austrian Literature 1918-2000 Katrin Maria Kohl, Anne Fuchs, Florian Krobb, Ritchie Robertson, 2006 New essays examine 20th-century Austrian literature in relation to history, politics, and popular culture. 20th-century Austrian literature boasts many outstanding writers: Schnitzler, Musil, Rilke, Kraus, Celan, Canetti, Bernhard, Jelinek. These and others feature in broader accounts of German literature, but it is desirable to see how the Austrian literary scene and Austrian society itself shaped their writing. This volume thus surveys Austrian writers of drama, prose, fiction, and lyric poetry, relates them to the distinctive history of modern Austria, a democratic republic that was overtaken by civil war and authoritarian rule, absorbed into Nazi Germany, and re-established as a neutral state, and examines their response to controversial events such as the collusion with Nazism, the Waldheim affair, and the rise of Haider and the extreme right. In addition to confronting controversy in the relations between literature history and politics the volume examines popular culture in line with current trends Contributors Judith Beniston Janet Stewart Andrew Barker Murray Hall Anthony Bushell Dagmar Lorenz Juliane Vogel Jonathan Long Joseph McVeigh Allyson Fiddler Katrin Kohl is Lecturer in German and a Fellow of Jesus College and Ritchie Robertson is Taylor Professor of German Language and Literature and a Fellow of The Queen's College both at the University of Oxford

Monstrous Liminality Robert G. Beghetto, 2022-01-24 This book examines the transformation of the figure of the stranger in the literature of the modern age in terms of liminality As a spectral monster that has a paradoxical and liminal relationship to both the sacred and the secular the figure of the modern stranger has played a role in both adapting and shaping a culturally determined understanding of the self and the other With the advent of modernity the stranger the monster and the spectre became interconnected Haunting the edges of reason while also being absorbed into normal society all three together with the cyborg manifest the vulnerability of an age that is fearful of the return of the repressed Yet these figures can also become re appropriated as positive symbols able to navigate between the dangerous and chaotic elements that threaten society while serving as precarious and ironic symbols of hope or sustainability The book shows the explanatory potential of focusing on the resacralizing in a paradoxical and liminal manner of traditionally sacred concepts such as messianic time and the utopian and the conflicts that emerged as a result of secularized modernity s denial of its own hybridization This approach to modern literature shows how the modern stranger a figure that is both paradoxically immersed and removed from society deals with the dangers of failing to be re assimilated into mainstream society and is caught in a fixed or permanent state of liminality a state that can ultimately lead to boredom alienation nihilism and failure

These monstrous aspects of liminality can also be rewarding in that traversing difficult and paradoxical avenues they confront both traditional and contemporary viewpoints enabling new and fresh perspectives suspended between imagination and reality past and future nature and artificial In many ways the modern stranger as a figure of literature and the cultural imagination has become more complicated and challenging in the post modern contemporary age both clashing with and encompassing people who go beyond simply the psychological or even spiritual inability to blend in and out of society However while the stranger may be altering once again the defining or essentializing the figure could result in the creation of other sets of binaries and thereby dissolve the purpose and productiveness of both strangeness and liminality The intention of Monstrous Liminality is to trace the liminal sphere located between the secular and sacred that has characterized modernity itself This space has consequently altered the makeup of the stranger from something external into a figure far more liminal which is forced to traverse this uncanny space in an attempt to find new meanings for an age that is struggling to maintain any
