Readings in Law and Popular Culture Steven Greenfield,Guy Osborn,2007-05-07

Readings in Law and Popular Culture is the first book to bring together high quality research with an emphasis on context from key researchers working at the cutting edge of both law and cultural disciplines Fascinating and varied the volume crosses many boundaries dealing with areas as diverse as football based computer games Buffy the Vampire Slayer digital sampling in the music industry the films of Sidney Lumet football hooliganism and Enid Blyton These topics are linked together through the key thread of the role of or the absence of law therefore providing a snapshot of significant work in the burgeoning field of law and popular culture Including important theoretical and truly innovative relevant material this contemporary text will enliven and inform a legal audience and will also appeal to a much broader readership of people interested in this highly topical area

Stakeholders in the Law School Fiona Cownie,2010-01-28 This collection brings together a distinguished group of researchers to examine the power relations which are played out in university law schools as a result of the different pressures exerted upon them by a range of different stakeholders From students to governments from lawyers to universities a host of institutions and actors believe that law schools should take account of a vast number of often conflicting considerations when teaching their students designing curricula carrying out research and so on How do law schools deal with these pressures What should their response be to the stakeholders who urge them to follow agendas emanating from outside the law school itself To what extent should some of these agendas play a greater role in the thinking of law schools
