Looking For Mies:

Looking for Mies Ricardo Daza, 2008 A short and compelling text Looking for Mies aims to reveal the man behind the architecture The now famous photograph of Mies van der Rohe in a steel and glass building smoking a cigar has fascinated and intrigued the author to such an extent that he has painstakingly researched the events surrounding its taking Our Times, Our Lives Eve Otto, Jozef Otto, 2004-11 Eve Otto explains When I began writing this book I had in the back of my mind that those who are young now might someday be interested in what life was like when their grandparents were growing up how life changed drastically with the coming of World War II in Europe and the turbulent years that followed the traumas of our emigration to America with our three young children and the difficult adjustments we had to make My book then is sort of a legacy to them Sex and Buildings Richard J. Williams, 2013-07-15 Massive modern skyscrapers obelisks towers all are structures that thanks to their phallic shape are often associated with sex But other buildings are more subtly connected as they provide the frameworks for our sexual lives and act as reminders of our sexual memories This relationship between sex and buildings mattered more than ever in the United States and Europe during the turbulent twentieth century when a culture of unprecedented sexual frankness and tolerance emerged and came to dominate many aspects of public life Part architectural history part cultural history and part travelogue Sex and Buildings explores how progressive sexual attitudes manifest themselves in architecture asking what progressive sexuality might look like architecturally and exploring the successes and failures of buildings attempts to reflect it In search of structures that reflect the sexual mores of their inhabitants Richard J Williams visits modernist buildings in Southern California the Westin Bonaventure Hotel the Playboy Mansion in Chicago the Seagram in New York communes from the 1960s and more A fascinating and often funny look at a period of extraordinary social change coupled with aesthetic invention Sex and Buildings will change the way we look at the buildings around us The Third Coast Thomas L. Dyja, 2014-03-25 Winner of the Chicago Tribune s 2013 Heartland Prize A critically acclaimed history of Chicago at mid century featuring many of the incredible personalities that shaped American culture Before air travel overtook trains nearly every coast to coast journey included a stop in Chicago and this flow of people and commodities made it the crucible for American culture and innovation In luminous prose Chicago native Thomas Dyja re creates the story of the city in its postwar prime and explains its profound impact on modern America from Chess Records to Playboy McDonald s to the University of Chicago Populated with an incredible cast of characters including Mahalia Jackson Muddy Waters Howlin Wolf Chuck Berry Sun Ra Simone de Beauvoir Nelson Algren Gwendolyn Brooks Studs Turkel and Mayor Richard J Daley The Third Coast recalls the prominence of the Windy City in all its grandeur From Marriage To Love: CEO, Good Evening Dai MengYeZi, 2020-11-02 As soon as she entered the house she was immediately declared to be married to a fool She desperately escaped from the wolf s den and entered the tiger s den Being coerced threatened and pressed Woman once you enter my room you must give birth to my son Mu Huan foolishly asked Why not daughter He replied with a cold voice Then it will be one son and one daughter In the following days all kinds of knocking sounds could be heard She would be reborn many years later She would be a famous designer but he said that in this life she had only designed the most perfect piece of work for him Pedagogy and Place Robert A. M. Stern, Jimmy Stamp, 2016-01-01

Jackson, 2002 In the 1950s a series of dramatic open and elegant homes made him a media star and interest in the work of his atelier has only increased over time The Man in the Glass House Mark Lamster, 2018-11-06 A smoothly written and fair minded Wall Street Journal biography of architect Philip Johnson a finalist for the National Book Critics Circle Award When Philip Johnson died in 2005 at the age of 98 he was still one of the most recognizable and influential figures on the American cultural landscape The first recipient of the Pritzker Prize and MoMA's founding architectural curator Johnson made his mark as one of America's leading architects with his famous Glass House in New Caanan CT and his controversial AT T Building in NYC among many others in nearly every city in the country but his most natural role was as a consummate power broker and shaper of public opinion Johnson introduced European modernism the sleek glass and steel architecture that now dominates our cities to America and mentored generations of architects designers and artists to follow He defined the era of starchitecture with its flamboyant buildings and celebrity designers who esteemed aesthetics and style above all other concerns But Johnson was also a man of deep paradoxes he was a Nazi sympathizer a designer of synagogues an enfant terrible into his old age a populist and a snob His clients ranged from the Rockefellers to televangelists to Donald Trump Award winning architectural critic and biographer Mark Lamster's The Man in the Glass House lifts the veil on Johnson's controversial and endlessly contradictory life to tell the story of a charming yet deeply flawed man A rollercoaster tale of the perils of wealth privilege and ambition this book probes the dynamics of American culture that made him so powerful and tells the story of the built environment in modern America The Quiet Professor Betty Neels, 2012-06-05 Megan thought she had it all a good job a caring family and a fianc who would make a wonderful husband But then her perfect world fell apart and she found that her one hope was Professor Jake van Belfeld He seemed determined to rebuild her life but why was he taking such a personal interest in her Did he think that her heart needed his attention too
