The Focke Wulf Fw 190 was a versatile and formidable Luftwaffe fighter dominating multiple WWII fronts. The Focke Wulf Fw 190 was arguably the Luftwaffe's most outstanding piston engine fighter of the Second World War, virtually dominating the skies over Europe for more than a year after its initial introduction into service in the summer of 1941. Continual development and improvements then kept it at the forefront of operations in the theaters of Northern Europe, the Mediterranean and the Eastern Front for the remainder of the war while maintaining a competitive edge over many other types as well as gaining and retaining the grudging respect of those Allied pilots who faced it in combat. Despite being designed as a fighter, the BMW 801 powered Fw 190 sub types performed practically every role possible for a single engine, single seat aircraft including offensive and defensive day fighter, day and night fighter, bomber, ground attack, reconnaissance, platform, night fighter and trainer. The Fw 190A also served in the Hungarian Air Force during the later stages of the Second World War, the Turkish Air Force from mid 1942 to 1948 and post war with the French where the SNCAC aircraft company rebuilt over fifty Fw 190A 5 A 6s under the designation NC 900 for service with the new Armée de l'Air. Despite having standard factory applied camouflage and markings schemes, many Fw 190s were also finished in a variety of unit and seasonal and/or operational theater schemes which add to the aircraft's story. Focke-Wulf Fw 190 Aces of the Russian Front John Weal, 1995-09-11. Of all the fronts fought on by the Jagdflieger during World War 2, the Russian or Eastern was easily the most lucrative in terms of targets for the Experten. Marry an abundance of targets with the

Luftwaffe's best piston engined fighter of the war Focke Wulf's Fw 190 Butcher Bird and it quickly becomes apparent why so many Jagdflieger achieved kills that passed the 100 victories mark Flying in variable weather on a battlefield that was constantly changing the Fw 190 pilots fought virtually to extinction in both the pure fighter and the crucial Schlacht ground attack roles American Book Publishing Record, 1996-05 Aces, Warriors and Wingmen Wayne Ralph, 2008-09-11 A celebration and a tribute to the warriors of the air who as young men served their country with unselfish devotion Hear their words Join these young Canadians in combat AN EXCERPT FROM THE ACCOUNT OF GROUP CAPTAIN RAYNE SCHULTZ 410 SQUADRON It was heading home very fast a Junkers 188 in thin cloud well out over the North Sea We hit it badly and it was flaming two three hundred yards of flames streaming behind my navigator being a serious minded individual said Let's get in closer and take a good look at it as it is a different type of aircraft and I can report on it when we get down So I closed in which was the stupidest thing I ever did The mid upper gunner was not dead he was sitting inside of the flames The next thing I saw the gun traversing down toward us I broke as fast as I could but he put forty to forty four 13mm cannon shells into us I had pistons blown out of one engine and the constant speed unit blown out in the other We were going to bail out We jettisoned the door and the navigator was halfway out when the chap came back from the Ground Control Intercept GCI and said There is a Force 9 to 10 sea and we will never be able to rescue you So we brought that aircraft back to Bradwell Bay and I can tell you it near flew again My navigator was wounded bleeding from the face I could see the engines running red hot one was actually running on molten metal the whole thing glowing inside The air bottles were shot away and I had no brakes for landing The Mosquito was in ribbons Air Pictorial, 1994 International Warbirds John C. Fredriksen, 2001-08-01 In depth descriptions and photographs of the aircraft of 21 nations presented with a unique human dimension that goes behind the machines to the people involved Invaluable for specialists accessible to enthusiasts International Warbirds An Illustrated Guide to World Military Aircraft 1914 2000 puts the most legendary fighter aircraft of the 20th century developed outside the United States on vivid display It offers 336 illustrated biographies of the most significant warplanes used in squadron service from World War I to the Balkan conflict including numerous models from Great Britain France Russia and Japan as well as notable machines from Israel Canada China India Brazil and other nations Entries span the history and scope of military aircraft from bombers and fighters to transports trainers reconnaissance craft sea planes and helicopters with each capsule history combining nuts and bolts technical data with the story of that model's evolution and use Together these portraits offer an exciting well researched tribute to visionary designers and builders as well as courageous pilots and crews across the globe and tell a vivid tale of how air power became such a decisive factor in modern warfare More Bf 109 Aces of the Russian Front John Weal, 2012-10-20 This book details the pilots who were credited with scores of between 50 and 100 and includes detail of the harrowing conditions and thrilling aerial battles that the Luftwaffe pilots endured The four year long Eastern Front campaign fought between Germany and the Soviet Union produced not only the greatest number of aces but also the highest individual and unit scores ever recorded in the history of aerial warfare An ideal complement to its bestselling predecessor this fully illustrated volume covers the Luftwaffe fighter pilots credited with scores of between 50 and 100 every single one of them amassing a greater number of victories than the highest and most celebrated of any British or American World War II ace Despite these huge personal totals the names of these pilots who fought against the Red Air Force remain almost unknown to many English speaking readers More Bf 109 Aces of the Russian Front rectifies that omission providing first hand accounts from the combat veterans themselves as well as never before published photographs vividly conveying the terrible experiences of the protagonists in this difficult theatre of war JG 26 Luftwaffe Fighter Wing War Diary Donald Caldwell, 2012-10-01 Day by day account of a German fighter squadron one of only two Luftwaffe units to spend the entire war in the West Covers D Day and the Normandy campaign Operation Market Garden the Battle of the Bulge and more JG 26 was known as The Abbeville Boys and seen as an elite squadron Unit flew Messerschmitt Bf 109s and Focke Wulf Fw 190s Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001
