Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities Tropix, 1967 Women's Review, 1985 Environmental Stewardship Dorothy J. Howell, 1997-07-23 This work addresses the cultural background of stewardship as a progression from individual personal aesthetics to a deeply informed environmental ethic that could become a national environmental policy Howell begins by assessing our personal cultural background and our philosophical notions of our role in the natural world She looks at the evolution of Western civilization and changing worldviews in relation to nature examining especially early conceptions of a more appealing simpler life closer to nature in contrast to the perceived civilized world that is portrayed as decadent Howell examines archetypes from literature and the popular arts finding examples in Jungian psychology and in contemporary film and television that support the Wild Man image and promote the Simple Life yearning She then looks at the early 20th century conservation and preservation writers as the most direct ancestors of today's environmental movement and an immediate source of inspiration Continuum Encyclopedia of Popular Music of the World, Volume 1 John Shepherd, David Horn, Dave Laing, Paul Oliver, Peter Wicke, 2003-03-06 The Bloomsbury Encyclopedia of Popular Music Volume 1 provides an overview of media industry and technology and its relationship to popular music In 500 entries by 130 contributors from around the world the volume explores the topic in two parts Part I Social and Cultural Dimensions covers the social phenomena of relevance to the practice of popular music and Part II The Industry covers all aspects of the popular music industry such as copyright instrumental manufacture management and marketing record corporations studios companies and labels Entries include bibliographies discographies and filmographies and an extensive index is provided This and all other volumes of the Encyclopedia are now available through an online version of the Encyclopedia https://www.bloomsburypopularmusic.com/encyclopedia/work/docid/BPM_reference_EPMOW A general search function for the whole Encyclopedia is also available on this site A subscription is required to access individual entries Please see <https://www.bloomsburypopularmusic.com> for librarians The Erotic

Margin Irvin Cemil Schick, 1999 Gender and sexuality have long held an important place in western attitudes towards the people and regions of the world from the titillating accounts of harem life in the Middle East to the terrifying captivity narratives of North America The Erotic Margin is a first attempt to pull together this large disparate and often contradictory literature and view it as a corpus Schick argues that such images served to construct spatial difference and thereby helped Europe represent its own place in the world during an age of rapid geographical expansion Informed by the recent literature on human geography as well as feminist and postcolonial theory The Erotic Margin turns to sexual anthropology as well as travel literature in which from the eighteenth century on both traveler and destination were portrayed in unmistakably gendered and sexualized terms Reviewing examples ranging from the New World to India the Near East to black Africa and the South Sea islands to the Barbary Coast the book reflects on why foreign women were variously portrayed as alluring or threatening foreign men as effeminate weaklings or dangerous rapists and foreign lands as sexual idylls or hearts of darkness
