Martin Luther's Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities Pa Yaw,2024-05-29 Socially engaged religion teaches that people of faith have a responsibility to address and reduce suffering in all its forms both physical and spiritual including suffering resulting from social injustice exploitation oppression false faith and so forth True religion engages with society to alleviate suffering and bring transformation In other words religious violence is an obscenity a deviation from the true character of religion Martin Luther s Theology of Two Kingdoms in Buddhist and Christian Communities examines the principle of separation between religion and politics in the context of both Buddhist and Christian communities In predominantly Buddhist contexts such as Myanmar where a reciprocal relationship between religion and politics is expected separation is not effective Attempts by Christians to separate religion and politics cause the church to run away from tyranny and follow the state with blind obedience Martin Luther s model of two distinct but interconnected systems for religion and politics creates space for each institution to give constructive advice and criticism to the other for the health of all human beings Sola Scriptura ,2017-11-06 Sola Scriptura offers a multi disciplinary reflection on the theme of the priority and importance of Scripture in theology from historical biblical theological and systematic theological

Waltke, Fred G. Zaspel, 2023-05-12 An Introduction to the Psalms from Biblical Scholars Bruce K Waltke and Fred G Zaspel Written over the course of 1 000 years the book of Psalms is a collection of religious poetry voicing a wide variety of human emotions expressed in different genres imprecatory psalms psalms of praise and more It has become one of the most popular books of the Bible but most readers have only a surface level understanding of the Psalms and how it fits into the larger historical and scriptural context In How to Read and Understand the Psalms Bruce K Waltke and Fred G Zaspel give readers tools to learn how to properly interpret and internalize the Psalms Developed primarily from decades of lectures by Waltke they explain the various types of psalms Hebrew poetry rhetorical techniques and more Armed with these tools believers will discover how the 150 psalms can further fuel their knowledge and love of God Developed Primarily from Lectures by Bruce K Waltke A renowned Old Testament scholar Waltke taught on the Psalms for decades at Dallas Seminary Regent College Westminster Theological Seminary Reformed Theological Seminary and Knox Theological Seminary Ideal for Pastors Teachers and Students Readers will be equipped to read teach and preach the Psalms with greater confidence In Depth Waltke and Zaspel examine specific psalms verse by verse and explain the various ways the psalmists themselves convey their message and how their psalms should be read in light of the biblical canon Living by Grace William Hordern, 2002-10-03 How can Protestant churches overcome their denial in actual attitudes and actions of their central belief in justification The chief paradox of Protestantism manifest in all denominations is the blurring and contradicting of the central belief in justification by grace alone through faith alone The church in America says the author has always been prone to preach that being a good Christian will result in health wealth and happiness Many church practices support a reward and punishment ethic thereby denying the heart of justification God's forgiveness No wonder the laity does not understand the doctrine or its call to a new life In this criticism of common church attitudes and actions Dr Hordern contrasts the interpretation of justification found in the teachings of Scripture and the great Reformers with the practical pursuit of works righteousness In conclusion he shows how the church could act to enhance rather than deny the doctrine of justification in particular in coping with the important matters of evangelism attendance giving to the church accepting people into the church and social service The Publishers Weekly, 1926 Singing the Ethos of God Brian Brock, 2007-04-02 Noting that academic biblical scholars and Christian ethicists have been methodologically estranged for some decades now Brian Brock seeks to reframe the whole Bible and ethics discussion in terms of this question What role does the Bible play in God's generation of a holy people and how do we participate in that regeneration Brock first examines various major contemporary thinkers on the Bible and Christian ethics including John Howard Yoder Brevard Childs John Webster and Dietrich Bonhoeffer He then undertakes major discussions of Augustine and Martin Luther unpacking their interpretation of the Psalms Finally Brock articulates the processes of renewal in God's people His close study of a few individual psalms shows how we enter the world of praise in which all human life is comprehended within God's work and is thus renewed Immersion in the exegetical tradition of the Christian faith Brock argues must be the heart and soul of theology and ethics
