Mining The Soul From The Inside Out:

Mining the Soul Robin Robertson,2000 Do you think that life happens to you from the outside in Think again Robin Robertson says that we are born as complex repositories of memories and behaviors Yes we learn some things by rote but other parts of ourselves the important things we know in our inner soul before we know them in our conscious mind are waiting to have various triggers release them from the silence This book is filled with fact and fiction to show you how you can mine the depths of your psyche in the process of self development Robertson examines the inner world from a Jungian perspective through dreams and the development of inner personalities through synchronistic events we experience using divinatory tools like the I Ching and working with the chakras and meditation This book is for all of us looking to explore the why of life

At the End of Time Robin Robertson,2011-05-01 Many cycles predicting the end of times fill our modern dialog from the coming of the Millennium to 2012 Robin Robertson helps to clarify these prophesies and offers insight into the central issues of our challenges and the experience and their life changing implications For eighteen hundred years the prophecies in the Book of Revelation have captured the collective Western imagination Saint John s rich imagery and the dramatic urgency of the looming disasters he predicts have both fascinated and frightened us with its apparent message that the end of time is near Robin Robertson Ph D deciphers the mystical theology and visions of the prophets seers and shamans His analysis incorporates the insights of modern mathematics and Chaos Theory as well as his personal insights gained through his work as a Jungian therapist and teacher Robertson holds a mirror to humanity s need to know Self and God He explains that Saint John s vision foretells the massive change in consciousness that is happening in our time

Leaders of the Light in the Age of Great Awakening Don P. Valeri,2025-09-15 Many seers mystics astrologers philosophers even theologians have foreseen a new age that is birthing on planet Earth Some call it the Age of Great Awakening which is the term used in this book It will be an age in which spirituality will prevail and not religion politics finance and material gain that now predominate human thinking It will encompass and affect every facet of our lives especially those who currently rule over humanity Why do we have so many Evil corrupt psychopath people ruling over us In this age a new breed or species of Leaders will emerge This book is about those emerging leaders what they will look like how they will behave ethically and what they will have to face and confront in the decades to come A good portion of the book deals with our flawed understanding of leadership and what can be called leadership from the shadows Here the words of Carl Jung are worth remembering In order to know the light we must first experience the darkness And it is this darkness that so many are now living through But as this wise person also said As far as we can discern the sole purpose of human existence is to kindle a light in the darkness of mere being

Ecosublime Lee Rozelle, 2006-02-12 Explores 19th century modern postmodern and millennial texts as they portray the changing ecological face of America Lee Rozelle probes the metaphor of environmental catastrophe in American literature of the last 150 years In each instance Rozelle finds evidence that the ecosublime nature experienced as an instance of wonder and fear profoundly reflects spiritual and political responses to the natural world America's increasingly anti ecological trajectory and the ascendance of a post natural landscape In the 19th century Rozelle argues Isabella Bird and Edgar Allan Poe represented the western wilderness as culturally constructed and idealized landscapes Gardens forests and frontiers are conceptual frameworks that either misrepresent or uphold ecological space Modernists like Nathanael West and William Carlos Williams on the other hand portray urban space as either wastelands or mythical urban

Futures of Enlightenment Poetry Dustin D. Stewart, 2020-10-30 This book offers a revisionist account of poetry and embodiment from Milton to Romanticism Scholars have made much of the period's theories of matter with some studies equating the eighteenth century's modernity with its materialism Yet the Enlightenment in Britain also brought bold new arguments for the immateriality of spirit and evocative claims about an imminent spirit realm Protestant religious writing was of two minds about futurity swinging back and forth between patience for the resurrected body and desire for the released soul This ancient pattern carried over the book argues into understandings of poetry as a modern devotional practice A range of authors agreed that poems can provide a foretaste of the afterlife but they disagreed about what kind of future state the imagination should seek The mortalist impulse exemplified by John Milton and by Romantic poets Anna Letitia Barbauld and William Wordsworth is to overcome the temptation of disembodiment and to restore spirit to its rightful home in matter The spiritualist impulse driving eighteenth century verse by Mark Akenside Elizabeth Singer Rowe and Edward Young is to break out of bodily repetition and enjoy the detached soul's freedom in advance Although the study isolates these two tendencies each needed the other as a source in the Enlightenment and their productive opposition didn't end with Romanticism The final chapter identifies an alternative Romantic vision that keeps open the possibility of a disembodied poetics and the introduction considers present day Anglophone writers who put it into practice
