Play the Monster Blind Lynn Coady, 2001 A collection of short stories that explore the violence of family the constraints of small town life and the temptation of escape Some strong language and some descriptions of violence The Notebooks Michelle Berry, 2010-08-13 In the tradition of the Paris Review The Notebooks is an exciting collection of original short fiction and in depth interviews from Canada's most celebrated and innovative young writers A provocative examination of the writer's life in the twenty first century The Notebooks charts a new direction in Canadian literature It brings together a unique collection of accomplished fiction ranging from the classic storytelling of Michael Redhill to the more experimental style of Lynn Crosbie In his keenly observed story Serotonin Russell Smith captures the sensuous pleasures and dizzying energy of the rave scene Big Trash Day a hybrid of fiction and poetry by Esta Spalding is a devastating commentary on poverty and a striking portrait of the shorthand that develops within intimate relationships In a sample from a novel in progress Yann Martel shares the process through which rough sketches become realized characters and disparate moments become fleshed out scenes The interviews remarkable for their honesty and insight bring us into the writer's world revealing the passion and inspiration that motivates these young writers as well as the hardships they endure in pursuit of their art By asking thoughtful and probing questions Michelle Berry and Natalee Caple elicit frank and intriguing details of how writers work structure their days and order their physical space to facilitate the act of writing Many of the authors here explore the impact of technological innovation and mass culture on contemporary fiction as well as the influence of various art forms on the way they imagine stories The writers in The Notebooks speak candidly about their political engagement their passion for writing and their desire to produce art that will last Contributors Catherine Bush Eliza Clark Lynn Coady Lynn Crosbie Steven Heighon Yann Martel Derek McCormack Hal Niedzviecki Andrew Pyper Michael Redhill Eden Robinson Russell Smith Esta Spalding Michael Turner R M Vaughan Michael Winter Marnie Woodrow These seventeen writers come from different backgrounds different parts of the country have different lifestyles and write very different kinds of fiction yet the connections between them are still plentiful As a group they are highly engaged with the world around them politically sophisticated intelligent modest about their potential success and passionate about the act of writing We hope that The Notebooks inspires an ongoing discussion with young writers at work and answers some of the silent questions that readers have longed to ask From the Introduction Nights below Foord Street Peter Thompson, 2020-02-06 According to its licence plates tourist brochures and commercials Nova Scotia is Canada's Ocean Playground an idyllic vacation spot brimming with traditional cultural experiences Yet this picturesque and welcoming and friendly facade overlooks the province's history of industrial development the impact of resource extraction on its landscape and the effects of its painful and still unfinished period of deindustrialization Recounting Nova Scotia's struggle to come to terms with its extractive and industrial past Nights below Foord Street focuses on the spaces ignored by the province's annual Doers and Dreamers tourist guide

Drawing on literary texts by Lynn Coady Leo McKay Sarah Mian and Jonathan Campbell popular television shows such as Trailer Park Boys and films including Blackbird Cottonland and Poor Boy s Game Peter Thompson examines the ways in which contemporary authors filmmakers and artists explore the lingering consequences of the boom and bust cycles of mining and manufacturing As he demonstrates these narratives depict a legacy of environmental exploitation pollution intermittent disasters and labour violence left behind by the industrial era all of which contrast starkly with the romantic and nostalgic portrait of Nova Scotia s industrial heritage promoted in museums monuments and tourist sites As Donald Trump and other populist politicians appeal to working class nostalgia and international attention converges on environmental racism in northern Nova Scotia Nights below Foord Street intervenes into debates over the cultural and social effects of the post industrial economy

The Antagonist Lynn Coady, 2011-08-03 Winner of the 2012 Georges Bugnet Award for Fiction and shortlisted for the 2011 Scotiabank Giller Prize A finalist for the prestigious Scotiabank Giller Prize and named one of the best books of the year by Amazon the Globe and Mail and the Toronto Star The Antagonist tells the story of Gordon Rankin Rank a former hockey enforcer driven to seek revenge on a old friend who has published a novel revealing Rank s deepest secret The hulking Gordon Rankin has spent his life cast as an enforcer a goon by his classmates his coaches and especially his own father Gordon Senior an unfortunate victim of small man syndrome Rank duly accepts his role and spends the majority of his high school and university years implementing the violent commands of others Until one day tragedy strikes with only Rank to blame With nobody to turn to he disappears But almost twenty years later Rank discovers that an old trusted friend the only person to whom he has ever confessed his sins has published a novel mirroring Rank s life The betrayal cuts to the deepest core of him and forces Rank to confront the tragic true story from which he s spent his whole life running A diatribe a prayer an ode to what it means to be a man Rank s painful suspenseful and often hilarious journey grabs us by the throat and the heart and never lets us go This is Rank s turn to finally set the record straight
