

Sexy Eyed Guy

your eyes are so dreamy your lips are so soft
your body is so sexy why do I stop?

I love the way you walk
I love the way you look I love the way you smell why do I think?

you're in my dreams
you're in my mind
you're in my heart
what's going on?

I found this person
so great indeed
in my heart
he will be

Swoon Victoria Redel, 2003-10 What does it mean to be a woman a lover mother and artist In Swoon Redel tackles the question of Eros as it animates domestic life These are poems unafraid to embrace the sweetness of difficulty and the difficult sweetness of intimacy Using short and extended lyric prose poem circular narrative Redel refuses formal categorization demanding of poetry a complex and textured vision of the female experience Swoon is a robustly sexy intelligent daring book of poems

Pleased to See Me Neil Astley, 2002 Is that a gun in your pocket or are you just pleased to see me Mae West's racy wisecrack could have been aimed at this book which is packed with 69 high calibre sharp shooting poems Pleased to See Me bulges with boldly playful and seriously sensual treatments of everything you ever wanted to know about sex but never thought to find in a poem Pleased to See Me is a sassy and unashamedly saucy celebration of fleshly pleasures by some of our finest poets These are very sexy poems not just because they are about sex says Astley but because their luscious language is handled with wit and sureness of touch This is the first book to show how the way poets write about sex has changed dramatically As in so much else the boundaries have shifted Sex in modern poetry as in films novels and music is treated freely and frankly with passion tenderness and a great sense of fun Expect surprises and reversals as well as creepiness and unease coupled with in your face exuberance We're talking strong language and strong emotion here Editor Neil Astley caught the zeitgeist in Staying Alive his highly praised anthology of poems on every aspect of modern living Now he turns to more intimate matters bringing you a spicy selection of X rated contemporary poems for reading in bed Pleased to See Me covers and uncovers everything we like doing with our bodies both women and men These are poems to have fun with Read them to your lover Make this your personal pillow book and that Britain's sharpest poetry imprint is still discovering some of the most imaginatively adventurous new poetry from around the world This year's output also includes new editions of major modern writers vigorous translations of poetry classics and anthologies of contemporary poetry aimed at a broad readership With its bold and diverse stable of new and established British Irish American European and Commonwealth writers Bloodaxe has revolutionised poetry publishing in Britain Its authors and books have won virtually every major literary award given to poetry from the Pulitzer to the Nobel Prize Bloodaxe has also been a pioneering publisher of poetry in translation and has built its reputation over 25 years on publishing numerous new poets alongside some of the most important figures in modern poetry This book is not only a birthday sampler It is an alternative anthology presenting a completely different map of contemporary poetry from the academically distorted view now being foisted on readers by poetry's new spin doctors It is representative not only of Bloodaxe's publishing but of all the poets who believe poetry's prime concern is human life not intellectual word games

International Who's Who in Poetry 2004 Europa Publications, 2003 Provides up to date profiles on the careers of leading and emerging poets Poetry Harriet Monroe, 2003 Graft Brian Henry, 2003 Poetry I honor and admire these poems for their groundwork understanding Here oppression is shown forth as a condition of language a violence of syntax And here in resistance to oppression extraordinariness lifts a beautiful if harried affirming sound With signal integrity the poet exploits no popular catastrophe but chooses instead to enter the mythic heart of catastrophe there to make new myths Donald Revell Bloodaxe Poetry Introductions 3 Jack Gilbert, Jane Hirshfield, Galway Kinnell, William Stanley Merwin, 2007 Bloodaxe Poetry Introductions are a new kind of anthology aimed at the general reader as well as the poetry lover Compiled by Staying Alive editor Neil Astley each book in the series covers four leading contemporary poets in depth with substantial selections covering the whole range of each writer's poetry as well as intriguing and illuminating background material including profiles interviews essays and commentary by the poets This introduction brings together four of America's major modern poets whose visionary poetry is rooted in the everyday world as well as in nature Wise passionate and incisive their poems address heart spirit and mind to illuminate the human condition Jack Gilbert has always been a total outsider in American poetry He writes compellingly about passion loss and loneliness His work is both a rebellious assertion of clarity and a profound affirmation of the world Jane Hirshfield is a visionary writer whose poems ask nothing less than what it is to be human Both sensual meditations and passionate investigations they reveal complex truths in language luminous and precise Galway Kinnell's diverse work ranges from odes of kinship with nature to realistic evocations of urban life from religious quest to political statement from brief imagistic lyrics to extended complex meditations W S Merwin is arguably the most influential American poet of the last half century known especially for continually renewing his poetry for his intimate feeling for nature and language and for several classic translations Bloodaxe Poetry Introductions Neil Astley, 2006 Bloodaxe Poetry Introductions are a new kind of anthology aimed at the general reader as well as the poetry lover Compiled by Staying Alive editor Neil Astley each book in the series covers four leading contemporary poets in depth with substantial selections covering the whole range of each writer's poetry as well as intriguing and illuminating background material including profiles interviews essays and commentary by the poets The first Introduction brings together four writers from different ethnic backgrounds whose poetry explores questions of cultural identity race gender and exile as well as celebrating cultural difference love courage and the human spirit Elizabeth Alexander is a leading American poet whose work has been inspired by the rich infinity of the African American experience Hers is a vital and vivid poetic voice on race gender politics and motherhood Moniza Alvi left Pakistan for England when a few months old Drawing on real and imaginary homelands her poems are witty and imbued with unexpected and delicious glimpses of the surreal Maura Dooley Imtiaz Dharker was born in Pakistan grew up a Muslim Calvinist in Glasgow and now divides her time between India and Britain Her main themes are childhood exile home displacement religious strife and terror Jackie Kay was an adopted child of Scottish Nigerian descent brought up by white parents With humour and feeling her poetry explores gender sexuality identity racism and cultural difference as well as love and music Orbis ,2004 The Writers Directory ,2013 Collected Poems Lesbia Harford,2014 Lesbia Harford 1891-1927 has occupied only a small place in Australian literary history For decades she was utterly forgotten yet when she died at 36 she left behind three notebooks containing some of the finest lyric poems ever written in Australia Harford's writing looks both forwards and backwards blending Pre Raphaelite influences and plain speaking with unusual subtlety At the same time she was bound inextricably to the period in which she lived War in Europe changing attitudes to religion the suffrage movement and widespread social upheaval all helped make her one of the first truly modern urban figures in Australian poetry Of the nearly 400 poems in manuscript just over half are reproduced in this present collection Of these roughly one third have not appeared in print before International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2008 Europa Publications,2007-08-23 An invaluable source of information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world Literatura na świecie ,2015 How the Arabian Nights Inspired the American Dream, 1790-1935 Susan Nance,2009-06-01 Americans have always shown a fascination with the people customs and legends of the East witness the popularity of the stories of the Arabian Nights the performances of Arab belly dancers and acrobats the feats of turban wearing vaudeville magicians and even the antics of fez topped Shriners In this captivating volume Susan Nance provides a social and cultural history of this highly popular genre of Easternized performance in America up to the Great Depression According to Nance these traditions reveal how a broad spectrum of Americans including recent immigrants and impersonators behaved as producers and consumers in a rapidly developing capitalist economy In admiration of the Arabian Nights people creatively reenacted Eastern life but these performances were also demonstrations of Americans own identities Nance argues The story of Aladdin made suddenly rich by rubbing an old lamp stood as a particularly apt metaphor for how consumer capitalism might benefit each person The leisure abundance and contentment that many imagined were typical of Eastern life were the same characteristics used to define the American dream The recent success of Disney s Aladdin movies suggests that many Americans still welcome an interpretation of the East as a site of incredible riches romance and happy endings This abundantly illustrated account is the first by a historian to explain why and how so many Americans sought out such cultural engagement with the Eastern world long before geopolitical concerns became paramount
