Raw Notes Claes Oldenburg,1973 Raw Notes Claes Oldenburg,1973 Claes Oldenburg's theoretical happening and performance activities since the late 50s have not been adequately integrated into the understanding and appreciation of his better known sculptural work Raw Notes presents the previously unpublished complete texts of the performances Claes Oldenburg conceived Stars in Washington D C 1963 Moveyhouse at the now defunct Filmmakers Cinematheque on 42nd Street in New York 1975 Massage during his retrospective exhibition at the Moderna Museet in Stockholm 1966 The Typewriter his last happening which was never produced and exists solely as a script 1968 Oldenburg scrupulously collected all the material relating to the performances and according to his specifications the text in the book is typed rather than set and it appears only on one side of the page Examples of the original manuscript pages are reproduced in sixty three plates including stage plans scores sketches for programs and posters More than two hundred annotations by the author expand the texts Oldenburg's Raw Notes will be read themselves as literature as well as for documentary purposes The Last Art College Garry Neill Kennedy,2012-02-24 The long awaited history of the art college that became an unlikely epicenter of the art world in the 1960s and 1970s How did a small art college in Nova Scotia become the epicenter of art education and to a large extent of the postminimalist and conceptual art world itself in the 1960s and 1970s Like the unorthodox experiments and rich human resources that made Black Mountain College an improbable center of art a generation earlier the activities and artists at Nova Scotia College of Art and Design aka NSCAD in the 1970s redefined the means and methods of art education and the shape of art far beyond Halifax A partial list of visiting artists and faculty members at NSCAD would include Joseph Beuys Sol LeWitt Gerhard Richter Dan Graham Mel Bochner Lucy Lippard John Baldessari Hans Haacke Yvonne Rainer Robert Frank Jenny Holzer Robert Morris Eric Fischl and Dara Birnbaum Kasper Koenig and Benjamin Buchloh ran the NSCAD Press publishing books by Hollis Frampton Lawrence Weiner Donald Judd Daniel Buren Michael Asher Martha Rosler and Michael Snow among others The Lithography Workshop produced early works by many of today's masters including John Baldessari Vito Acconci and Claes Oldenburg With The Last Art College Garry Kennedy the college's visionary president at the time gives us the long awaited documentary history of NSCAD during a formative era From gallery openings to dance performances to visiting lectures to exhibitions to classroom projects the book gives a rich historical and visual account of the school's activities supplemented by details of specific events reminiscences by faculty and students accounts of artists talks and notes on memorable controversies Raw Notes Claes Oldenburg,Nova Scotia College of Art and Design,2005 Claes Oldenburg the artist who set new terms for sculpture in the 1960s is best known for his soft sculptures and his giant monuments of ordinary objects Because they have been less well documented Oldenburg's performances have not been fully integrated into the critical discourse surrounding his work In Raw Notes Oldenburg has scrupulously collected all of the material relating to his performances According to his specifications the text in the book is typed rather than set and appears on only one side of the page Examples of the original manuscript are reproduced in sixty three script plates including stage plans scores sketches for programs and posters More than two hundred annotations by the author expand the text Raw Notes will be indispensable as a document of these important aspects of Oldenburg's work

Between the Black Box and the White Cube Andrew V. Uroskie,2014-02-27 Today the moving image is ubiquitous in global contemporary art The first book to tell the story of the postwar expanded cinema that inspired this omnipresence Between the Black Box and the White Cube travels back to the 1950s and 1960s when the rise of television caused movie theaters to lose their monopoly over the moving image leading cinema to be installed directly alongside other forms of modern art Explaining that the postwar expanded cinema was a response to both developments Andrew V Uroskie argues that rather than a formal or technological innovation the key change for artists involved a displacement of the moving image from the familiarity of the cinematic theater to original spaces and contexts He shows how newly available inexpensive film and video technology enabled artists such as Nam June Paik Robert Whitman Stan VanDerBeek Robert Breer and especially Andy Warhol to become filmmakers Through their efforts to explore a fresh way of experiencing the moving image these artists sought to reimagine the nature and possibilities of art in a post cinematic age and helped to develop a novel space between the black box of the movie theater and the white cube of the art gallery Packed with over one hundred illustrations Between the Black Box and the White Cube is a compelling look at a seminal moment in the cultural life of the moving image and its emergence in contemporary art
