The High Window Raymond Chandler, 2020-07-14 The body count in this thriller starring Chandler's quintessential Private Eye Philip Marlowe is comparatively higher compared than some of his other works One could say the bodies fall one two three four as Marlowe tracks down a missing gold doubloon Who knew one piece of metal could lead to so much trouble As always Chandler's prose is on his own level however unpleasant Marlowe's cases may become What I find fascinating in Chandler's detective novels is the extraordinary contrast in terms of character development Trophy wives and strong armed husbands all undergo serious emotional upheaval death and unforgettable changes to their lives while our companion Phillip Marlowe ever the frank gruff shamus never has any of this himself While he may have guns pointed at him framed for murder or beaten up and tossed in the slammer The Long Goodbye Marlowe always goes back to his home to play chess drink gin and smoke a cigarette
