Reader On Preaching Making Connections:

A Reader on Preaching David Day, 2017-09-08 Every Sunday all over the world people rise up and claim to speak in the name of God. It is an astonishing thing to do and an astonishing claim to make. It is small wonder that the sermon has been the focus of debate, discussion and investigation. It has been dismissed as irrelevant in today's culture and has become the butt of numerous jokes and caricatures. Yet the claim persists that these human words in some way can become God's message to these hearers. This collection of twenty-nine articles by international experts in the area of homiletics coincides with the revival of interest in preaching over the last twenty-five years. It is practical without being merely tips for preachers and it offers the necessary theoretical discussion for anyone who wants to take the art of preaching seriously. No important issue has been omitted and taken as a whole, the book constitutes a first-class introduction to the principles, processes, context and theology of preaching. Contributors include Walter Brueggemann, David Buttrick, Fred Craddock, Edward Farley, John Killinger, Richard Lischer, Thomas Long, Elaine Lawless, Jolyon Mitchell, Cheryl Sanders and Thomas Troeger.

The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation Cleophus J. LaRue, Luiz C. Nascimento, 2020-08-03

Christianity is turning brown and moving south. The Christianity the West has known is in recession and has all but dwindled out of recognition in the opening years of the twenty-first century. Well over half of the world's Christians now live in the Global South: Africa, Asia and Latin America. They are, according to Aberdeen missiologist Andrew Walls, the new Representative Christians. What they think about Christianity will matter more and more and what North America thinks about Christianity will matter less and less. This massive shift in geography and theological point of departure will have a major impact on Christian preaching now and into the future. The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation seeks to begin the conversation about how preaching in the Global South will inform the whole of Christian preaching in the coming years.

Imaginative Preaching Geoff New, 2015-10-14 From generation to generation there has been an anguished cry from preachers about preaching there is no imagination The Scriptures present the wondrous hope and vision of Kingdom Come and yet contemporary preaching can often be mute and blind by comparison This book explores what is possible when the Scripture to be preached is prayed through the agency of two ancient prayer disciplines lectio divina and Ignatian Gospel Contemplation Through the experiences of eight vocational pastor preachers this study tracks the difficulties discoveries and delights as they commit to utilizing these prayer disciplines as part of their regular sermon preparation The reader will be orientated to what a biblical imagination entails and how praying the Scriptures affects the preacher sermon and listener Careful explanation of how to pray using lectio divina and Ignatian Gospel Contemplation is included This work is in places a raw examination of the forces that regularly conspire against the preacher as they endeavour to faithfully expound the Scriptures The study is a rousing exclamation of the joy experienced when a preacher's imagination and their preparation is formed by the Spirit bringing the Scriptures to bear on all who speak and hear it

A Manual for Preaching Abraham Kuruvilla, 2019-10-15 Abraham Kuruvilla's A Vision for Preaching offered an integrated biblical and theological vision for preaching A Manual for Preaching addresses the practical and perennial issue of how to move from the biblical text to an effective sermon The author a well respected teacher of preachers shows how to discern the text's theological meaning and let that meaning shape the development of the sermon Clearly written and illustrated with Old Testament and New Testament examples the book helps preachers negotiate larger swaths of Scripture and includes two annotated sermon manuscripts from Kuruvilla

A Preacher's Tale Jon Russell, 2018-02-23 Many clergy receive little training in the arts of preaching and it is assumed that they will learn by gaining experience The renowned American preacher Herbert O Driscoll suggests that congregations do not want to be given a map showing them how to get to the coast they want to be drenched in the spray Narrative preaching is a means of achieving such immediacy By dramatic story telling it invites listeners into enter the text imaginatively and enables them to experience sermons as transformative events This book aims to provide not just a theoretical introduction but a resource that uses sermons in the narrative style to reflect on how to prepare and construct them and how to deliver them effectively in the context of worship

Igniting the Heart Kate Bruce, 2015-09-30 Kate Bruce argues that imagination can help to engage the hearer in a sermon which seeks to evoke rather than to inform Imagination frames how we see the world and ourselves in it As such it has a vital role in how preachers see the preaching task itself which in turn affects how we go about the task

Scripture and Its Readers Vincent K. H. Ooi, 2015-02-13 That readers and biblical texts are somehow linked in a mutually transformative relationship is hardly a novel perception especially in contexts where the Christian Bible has been received as normative Scripture for faithful worship and living This study focuses on an aspect of this relationship and wrestles with it not only in theory but also in practice by asking How may a reader who wishes to read the Christian Bible as Scripture well today be formed and how may interpretations of Scripture themselves inform such concern Vincent Ooi begins by showing that such concern is not only contemporary but integral to Christian traditions of reading Scripture and that it is only recently receiving some renewed scholarly attention He reviews some of these recent works before setting out his own approach from the perspective of theological interpretation of Scripture He then demonstrates his approach via close exegetical engagement with three biblical texts namely Nehemiah 9 6 37 Ezekiel 20 5 32 and Acts 7 2 60 which offer different inner canonical readings of Scripture in the form of distinctive retellings of Israel's story He first considers how these texts portray readers of Scripture and use scriptural traditions in relation to the wider context of the Christian canon he then discusses what they individually and in concert might suggest as significant for shaping readers seeking to faithfully appropriate Scripture today The posture of prayer the pulse of liturgy and the patterning of Christ are among the things proposed as formatively significant

Encountering the Bible Andrew Village, 2016-06-17 Seeking to ask the questions which people ask about the relevance of the Bible to today s Church this book aims to equip those who want to make the Bible more useful and to help them explore the difficulties of trying to use an ancient text as a guide for contemporary faith

Church at Church Ronald Andrew Rienstra, 2022-01-01 Jean Jacques von Allmen s work was animated by three key insights the Church both learns and becomes what it truly is when it gathers to worship worship tells the story of God s salvation history and invites God s people into it and by doing so the church offers the world both a stern warning and a hopeful promise The Swiss Reformed pastor and professor is among the most admired liturgical theologians of the twentieth century but his work is largely and lamentably unknown to most worship leaders In Church at Church Ron Rienstra provides an introduction to this important thinker He offers methodological and biographical context and then explores von Allmen s most generative insights concerning the church as it engages in its most foundational activity worship Viewed through the lens of the Nicene marks Rienstra s exploration yields the outlines of a liturgical ecclesiology a way to help the church think more deeply about its identity and to help its leaders shape the worship they prepare and lead today Preach the Word Myles

MacBean,2019-11-11 How should we help equip the church leaders of Africa today There remains a well documented lack of theologically sound Bible centric preaching in Sub Saharan Africa The majority of sermons are preached by untrained or undertrained church leaders Following a practical theology praxis this book develops a conceptual framework for the evaluation of existing alternative approaches to grassroots preacher training It also proposes broad principles for effective preacher training and offers a practical solution The 20th century had seen the Christian church in Africa grow 36 fold to 360 million This amazing growth is arguably the largest religious change in human history in such a short period It has shifted the focus of Christianity from North to South This rapid growth is debatably considered by some missiologists and theologians to have resulted in an African church a mile wide and an inch deep That is a church of great size but lacking in spiritual depth The rapid growth has led to insufficient numbers of trained leaders being available to oversee their congregations Most leaders are unpaid Untrained or undertrained leaders have an inadequate knowledge of scripture and lack understanding of its interpretation They also lack the skills they need to communicate its truths Even so they preach up to 90% of the sermons in rural Africa Despite a tremendous hunger for training among many of those preachers traditional college based theological education cannot keep up with the demand for trained pastors and preachers in an affordable or culturally appropriate manner Engaging with Contemporary Culture Martyn Percy,2016-04-29 Theology and the churches are often considered to be at the margins of contemporary culture frequently struggling for identity and attention In this important new book Martyn Percy argues that a rich form of practical theological engagement is needed if the churches are to comprehend their situation in the modern world thereby enabling them to engage more confidently with society Drawing on a range of perspectives in the religion culture debate and from case studies in the USA and Europe the book explores the myriad of ways in which culture is now shaping contemporary Christianity and how vital an appreciation of this dynamic is for the self understanding of churches and theology This book explores the crucial and continuing contribution that theology can make to public life in an era that is often perceived to be dominated by consumerism and secularity It will especially appeal to scholars of contemporary religion practical theologians and all those who are engaged in ministerial formation
