Marshmallow
Victoria Hansen
Hachette Australia
TFR $29.99

September release

In this follow up to Kokomo, Victoria Hansen interrogates the ripple effects of grief. Five friends celebrating a birthday have their lives and relationships upended, and the after-effects of their guilt and sorrow change things forever. The life they had changed so abruptly and so completely that they are confronted with a terrible question: can they find a way to live with what they have lost?

Meris
Jay Carmichael
Scribe
PR $24.99

Two men fall in love in '60s Australia; Christopher who moved from the country to escape persecution, and Margen who helps to push the back into Christopher's soul. Drawing on archival materials from newspaper articles, Jay Carmichael brings to life the insupportable society these men had to live and love in. A stunning novel from a time not long ago, from the author of Ironbark.

The Diplomat
Chris Wareham
Penguin Australia
TFR $32.99

Five years after his involvement in the theft of Posseidon's, Edward Diagravels is out of debt and heading to Melbourne for a fresh start. He needs to make one last visit to The Diplomat, a steady site for drug addicts and eccentrics, and take stock of the grief and regret that dwells within. A debt takes on future and redemption by the award-winning author of Barrel and Case.

Sixty-Six Days
Victoria Holden
Saffron/Joseph Australia
TFR $22.99

Ever has been raised in the heart of Aboriginal Northern by a proud traditional Yolngu family. She remembers so much about the previous world, but also harbours a dark pain. When Eric meets James, a young man looking pure love, they travel to Eric's beloved country where they are whole together. Until a sudden event leaves them seeking answers to one of life's most eternal questions: is love strong enough to withstand anything?

Forty Nights
Defne Fikret
Ullrich Press
HR $22.99

This magical, haunting debut follows Fahtar as he helps a neighbour seek asylum for his extended family, and in turn begins to reflect on the experiences that led him to leave Iran and seek refuge in Australia. Defne moving between continents and centuries, Forty Nights is a profoundly human story about migration, war, family, and finding home, wherever that may be.

Enclave
Claire G. Coleman
Hachette Australia
TFR $29.99

Christine cannot sleep, wake or think. She was told the Agency was keeping them safe from the dangers outside. She never questioned what she was told, allowed to know or permitted to think. The enclave was the only world she knew. Staying or leaving was not a choice she had, but then one day she started to start thinking. A masterful new novel from the critically acclaimed author of Terra Nullius.

Jerustown
Paul Doherty
Allen & Chivers
TFR $32.99

In disgrace after the death of his son, Patrick Flannery flees London for his family home in remote Australia. A self-proclaimed "story-teller" in his own right, he takes his granddaughters' legacy who brook "colon" between the local Aboriginal people and white settlers. In writing his granddaughters' story, Flannery must confront the many uncomfortable truths that lie at the heart of Australia's colonial past.

Blue Hour
Sarah Schmidt
Hachette Australia
TFR $22.99

Following her award-winning debut Sea Myself, Sarah Schmidt's second novel, is an emotionally charged journey through motherhood and trauma. The novel moves back and forth between the stories of Lily and her daughter Eleanor in the 1930s and 1970s as they travel through the different stages of their lives. Schmidt explores the beauty and violence in the world and the brutal cost when we allow grief and trauma to reach down generations.

Readers Guide To Australian Fiction:

A Reader's Guide to Australian Fiction Laurie Clancy,1992 This authoritative and comprehensive reference book is the first chronological account of the major Australian fiction writers from 1830 to the 1990s Brief biographical information on the writers accompanies a critical discussion of the work Each entry stands alone but the book can be read as a chronological account of the extraordinary development of Australian fiction over a period of 160 years Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady,2012-12-06 Reader s Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa

Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Reader's Guide to Periodical Literature Supplement ,1928

Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1920 A Guide to British and American Novels Percy Russell,1895 Integrity and Historical Research Tony Gibbons,Emily Sutherland,2012-03-12 There have been serious debates between historians novelists and filmmakers as to how best present historical narratives When writers and filmmakers talk of using historical research with integrity what exactly do they mean Integrity and Historical Research examines this question in detail The first chapter discusses the concept of integrity The chapters that follow reflect on this philosophical treatment in the light of fiction and film that deals with history in a number of ways How should writers and filmmakers use lives Can and may people who are now dead and who may have lived long ago be defamed The authors include academics historians social historians medievalists oral historians literary theorists historical novelists and script writers They examine the theoretical influences and practical choices that involve and concern writers and filmmakers who rely on historical research The desire to be accurate may often conflict with the need to produce a work that goes beyond the mere depiction of events in order to excite the interest of readers and to hold that interest At the same time there is a developing emphasis on historians to write well in clear accessible prose which may involve using the novelists techniques How much license may be given to writers of fiction and filmmakers in their depiction of historical characters and events This book begins to answer this question while inviting further discussion Literary Research and the Literatures of Australia and New Zealand Faye H. Christenberry, 2010-11-19 Literary Research and the Literatures of Australia and New Zealand Strategies and Sources is a research guide to the literatures of the two major countries of Oceania Australia and New Zealand Covering over 200 years of these geographically and chronologically connected countries this guide contains references to many different types of resources illustrating how the researcher is best served by using the increasing variety of research tools in combination with each other The book emphasizes research methodology and outlines the best practices for the research process paying special attention to the unique challenges inherent in conducting research on the literatures of Australia and New Zealand specifically The book includes commentary on general literary reference materials library catalogs print and online bibliographies indexes and annual reviews scholarly journals contemporary reviews period journals and newspapers microform and digital collections manuscripts and archives and web resources It is an essential tool for anyone conducting research on Australia or New Zealand and it is a helpful guide for readers with a special interest in these countries literatures Fabulating Beauty , 2005-01-01 Peter Carey is one of Australia s finest creative writers much admired by both literary critics and a worldwide reading public While academia has been quick to see his fictions as exemplars of postcolonial and postmodern writing strategies his general readership has been captivated by his deadpan sense of humour his quirky characters the outlandish settings and the grotesqueries of his intricate plots After three decades of prolific writing and multiple award winning Carey stands out in the world of Australian letters as designated heir to Patrick White Fabulating Beauty pays tribute to Carey s literary achievement It brings together the voices of many of the most renowned Carey critics in twenty essays sixteen commissioned especially for this volume an interview with the author as well as the most extensive bibliography of Carey criticism to date The studies represent a wide range of current perspectives on the writer s fictions Contributors focus on issues as diverse as the writer s biography his use of architectural metaphors his interrogation of narrative structures such as myths and cultural master plots intertextual strategies concepts of sacredness and references to the Christian tradition and his strategies of rewriting history Amidst predictions of the imminent death of postist theory the essays all attest to the ongoing relevance of the critical parameters framed by postmodernism and postcolonialism Historical Dictionary of Australia Norman Abjorensen, James C. Docherty, 2014-12-05 Australia s development from the most unpromising of beginnings as a British prison in 1788 to the prosperous liberal democracy of the present is as remarkable as is its success as a country of large scale immigration Since 1942 it has been a loyal ally of the United States and has demonstrated this loyalty by contributing troops to the war in Vietnam and by being part of the coalition of the willing in the U S invasion of Iraq in 2003 and in operations in Afghanistan In recent years it has also been more willing to promote peace and democracy in its Pacific and Asian neighbors This fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Australia covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Australia Peter Carey Bruce Woodcock,2013-07-19 This is a revised and expanded edition of Woodcock s accessible study now including detailed readings of Carey s latest novels Jack Maggs and True History of the Kelly Gang
