Reading And The Reference Librarian The Importance To Library Service Of Staff Reading Habits:

Reading and the Reference Librarian Juris Dilevko, Lisa Gottlieb, 2014-10-16 Reference librarians are no longer expected to know much about the information they find they are merely expected to find it Technological competency rather than knowledge has become the order of the day In many respects reference service has become a matter of typing search terms into a library's online catalog or a web search engine and providing the patron with the results of the search Calling for a re intellectualization of reference librarianship this book suggests another approach to providing quality reference service reading The authors surveyed both academic reference librarians and public library reference personnel in the United States and Canada about their reading habits From the 950 responses the authors present findings about the extent to which librarians read newspapers periodicals fiction and nonfiction and recount and analyze stories about how reading has made them better librarians The authors also report that North American professors in the humanities and social sciences believe that the best reference librarians are those who have wide ranging subject based knowledge as opposed to the type of process based functional knowledge that is increasingly dominating the curricula of many Library and Information Science programs

Readers' Advisory Service in North American Public Libraries, 1870-2005 Juris Dilevko, Candice F.C. Magowan, 2007-02-13 Beginning in the early 1980s readers advisory services were a widely discussed topic in North American public libraries By 2005 almost every public library in the United States and Canada offered some form of readers advisory service The services offered have changed significantly in ways perhaps disadvantageous to adult North American library patrons This book provides a critical history of readers advisory philosophy and offers a new perspective on the evolution of the service The book analyzes the debate that shaped readers advisory and discusses how the service has assumed its present form The study follows readers advisory through its three prominent stages of development beginning with the period 1870 to 1916 when the service was still a subject of much crucial debate about its meaning and purpose During the second phase 1917 to 1962 readers advisory systematically committed itself to meaningful adult education through serious and purposeful reading The book argues however that during the most recent phase of readers advisory from 1963 until the present contemporary public libraries have turned their backs on the rich heritage of readers advisory services by valorizing the reading of entertainment oriented and commodified genre titles and bestsellers Historical analysis case studies and statistical charts augment the book s central argument      Reference Service and Sources C.K. Sharma,2006 The Rapid Developments In Computer Technology Telecommunications Printing Reprography Etc Have Important Implications For The Provision Of Information By Libraries To Their Users Great Advances Have Been Made In The Automation Of Indexing And Abstracting Services Despite Such Advances And Technological Impacts The Actual Search Process And The End Result Remain The Same As In The Traditional Approach Hence The Significance Of Reference Sources And Services Cannot Be Overemphasised The Reference Service Offered By The Libraries Enables The Readers To Obtain The Required Information From The Huge Collection Of Libraries In No Time The Book Is Structured Into Two Parts The First Part Acquaints The Readers With The Purpose Functions And Kinds Of Reference Service Qualities And Duties Of A Reference Librarian Varied Sections In The Libraries Reference Service In Public Academic And Special Libraries Sources And Classification Of Information And Reference Queries Part Ii Of The Book Is Devoted To Reference Sources Beginning With The Evaluation Of Reference Sources It Includes A Detailed Study On Directories Bibliographies Encyclopaedias Biographies Maps And Atlases Dictionaries Gazetteers And Guide Books It Is Hoped That The Present Book Will Prove Useful For All Library Users While The Teachers Researchers And Students Of Library Science Will Find It Indispensable The Reference Librarians Are Expected To Acquire Additional Skills Through This Book Which Shall Stand Them In Good Stead In The Technological Environment      Library Journal Melvil Dewey,Richard Rogers Bowker,L. Pylodet,Charles Ammi Cutter,Bertine Emma Weston,Karl Brown,Helen E.
