Reading For Achievement:

Reading Achievement and Motivation in Boys and Girls Pelusa Orellana García, Paula Baldwin Lind, 2018-05-02 This volume links theoretical and instructional approaches on how reading is motivated and assessed and examines the interrelationship between reading motivation and achievement among boys and girls in culturally and geographically different settings Much of the research on children s reading has focused on cognitive processes however reading is an activity that also requires interest and motivation These attitudes are generally defined as readers affect toward reading and their consequence is that children with more positive attitudes are more motivated to read Taking into account the variability that exists within the notion of gender and age this volume aims to examine and scrutinize previous research on the topic as well as test theories on how the different dimensions of reading motivation vary with gender in relation to cultural issues motivational constructs such as engagement and classroom climate the role of emotions interests and attitudes towards reading among others The book will be of interest to researchers educators graduate students and other professionals working in the area of literacy reading motivation reading achievement and gender differences Dinaric Perspectives on PIRLS 2021 Žaneta Džumhur, Paulína Koršňáková, Sabine Meinck, 2025-06-11 This open access book presents insights into the current state of reading literacy in the Dinaric region namely the education systems in Albania Croatia Kosovo 1 Montenegro North Macedonia Serbia and Slovenia A collection of analyses reveals factors influencing this key capacity of young pupils Using data from IEA s Progress in International Reading Literacy Study PIRLS 2021 the book explores teaching and learning reading literacy at the end of primary school Grade 4 through multiple lenses such as national reading curricula and textbooks home and school resources for learning student wellbeing teacher education instructions and digital assessments Since the administration of PIRLS 2021 coincided with the Covid 19 pandemic the book also provides valuable insights into remote teaching and learning and other disruptions caused by the pandemic This volume builds on the regional research presented in IEA Research for Education Volume 13 Dinaric Perspectives on TIMSS 2019 which explored the teaching and learning of mathematics and science in primary schools across the Dinaric region Aimed at policymakers researchers and practitioners Dinaric Perspectives on PIRLS 2021 offers multidimensional perspectives on student achievement in reading literacy in a region that is underrepresented in the English speaking research literature on educational assessments and student performance if supportFootnotes 1 endif This designation is without prejudice to positions on status and is in line with UNSCR 1244 1999 and the ICJ Opinion on the Kosovo declaration of independence Raising Reading Achievement in Middle and High Schools Elaine K. McEwan, Elaine K. McEwan-Adkins, 2006-09-26 Strengthen student literacy achievement in middle and high schools In response to the No Child Left Behind Act NCLB raising literacy levels in secondary schools has taken on a new urgency Recognized literacy author Elaine K McEwan focuses her revised second edition on enhancing the five big ideas for raising reading achievement with seven cognitive strategies of highly effective readers and more than twenty research based teaching for learning tips to infuse into daily content instruction Featuring reflection and discussion questions for reinforcement this indispensable guide demonstrates how to improve students literacy with these five teacher friendly strategies Focus on changing what you can change Teach the students who can t read how to read Teach every student how to read to learn Motivate all students to read more to read increasingly more challenging books and to be accountable for what they read Create a reading culture in your school With new programs designed for adolescent learners this update provides suggestions and developmental tools to effectively strengthen reading curriculum and instruction Reading specialists special education teachers literacy coaches intervention specialists and central office administrators can also use this essential tool for evaluating middle and high school reading programs and formulating school and district improvement goals

Reading Fluency Timothy Rasinski, William Rupley, David Paige, Chase Young, 2021-01-21 Reading fluency has been identified as a key component of proficient reading Research has consistently demonstrated significant and substantial correlations between reading fluency and overall reading achievement Despite the great potential for fluency to have a significant outcome on students reading achievement it continues to be not well understood by teachers school administrators and policy makers The chapters in this volume examine reading fluency from a variety of perspectives The initial chapter sketches the history of fluency as a literacy instruction component Following chapters examine recent studies and approaches to reading fluency followed by chapters that explore actual fluency instruction models and the impact of fluency instruction Assessment of reading fluency is critical for monitoring progress and identifying students in need of intervention Two articles on assessment one focused on word recognition and the other on prosody expand our understanding of fluency measurement Finally a study from Turkey explores the relationship of various reading competencies including fluency in an integrated model of reading Our hope for this volume is that it may spark a renewed interest in research into reading fluency and fluency instruction and move toward making fluency instruction an even more integral part of all literacy instruction

Understanding Individual Differences in Language Development Across the School Years J. Bruce

Tomblin, Marilyn A. Nippold, 2014-03-26 This volume presents the findings of a large scale study of individual differences in spoken and heard language development during the school years The goal of the study was to investigate the degree to which language abilities at school entry were stable over time and influential in the child s overall success in important aspects of development The methodology was a longitudinal study of over 600 children in the US Midwest during a 10 year period The language skills of these children along with reading academic and psychosocial outcomes were measured There was intentional oversampling of children with poor language ability without being associated with other developmental or sensory disorders Furthermore these children could be sub grouped based on their nonverbal abilities such that one group represents children with specific language impairment SLI and the other group with nonspecific language impairment NLI represents poor language along with depressed nonverbal abilities Throughout the book the authors consider whether these distinctions are supported by evidence obtained in this study and which aspects of development are impacted by poor language ability Data are provided that allow conclusions to be made regarding the level of risk associated with different degrees of poor language and whether this risk should be viewed as lying on a continuum The volume will appeal to researchers and professionals with an interest in children s language development particularly those working with children who have a range of language impairments This includes Speech and Language Pathologists Child Neuropsychologists
