Reason And God Encounters Of Philosophy With Religion:

Reason and God John E. Smith, 1967 Reason and God John Edwin Smith, 1961 Maynard Adams Glenn Blackburn, 2009 Maynard Adams 1919 2003 was a profound philosopher and civic humanist at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill A major intellectual figure of the second half of the twentieth century Adams developed a comprehensive philosophy of civilization that applies to all humanity but has a distinctly Southern dimension Aquinas on Simplicity Peter Weigel, 2008 Peter Weigel offers an in depth examination of what divine simplicity means for Aquinas and how he argues for its claims Simplicity and other divine predicates are analysed within the larger metaphysical and semantic framework surrounding Aquinas philosophy of God C.S. Peirce and the Nested Continua Model of Religious Interpretation Gary Slater, 2015-11-26 This study develops resources in the work of Charles S Peirce 1839 1914 for the purposes of contemporary philosophy It contextualizes Peirce s prevailing influences and provides greater context in relation to the currents of nineteenth century thought Dr Gary Slater articulates a nested continua model for theological interpretation which is indebted to Peirce s creation of Existential Graphs a system of diagrams designed to provide visual representation of the process of human reasoning He investigates how the model can be applied by looking at recent debates in historiography He deals respectively with Peter Ochs and Robert C Neville as contemporary manifestations of Peircean philosophical theology This work concludes with an assessment of the model s theological implications Religion and Reason Sajiwan Prasad, 1987 God in the Wasteland David F. Wells, 1994 In this sequel to the widely praised No Place for Truth David Wells calls for the restoration of the church based on a fresh encounter with the transcendent God By looking anew at the way God s transcendence and immanence have been taken captive by modern appetites Wells argues convincingly for a reform of the evangelical world God the Creator Robert Cummings Neville, 1992-02-13 God the Creator provides a detailed exposition of a conception of God as the creator of everything determinate It does not defend an established conception such as the Thomist the Calvinist or the Process theological idea but rather elaborates the ancient theme of creation ex nihilo in a new form appropriate to the contemporary world Part one is a rigorous philosophical development of the idea of God as creator ex nihilo arguing that an adequate solution to the problem of the one and the many demands such a conception This part includes a dialectical examination of contemporary and classical theories of being Part two asks how one can have knowledge of the kind of God described previously it deals with experience analogy and dialectic Part three applies the conception developed in part one to fundamental religious conceptions such as the object of worship the nature of religion and the practices of private and public religious life It presents theories arising from the conception of creation ex nihilo for the interpretation of religious concern conversion faith certainty solitude bliss service liturgy providence evangelism dedication reconciliation brotherhood discipline the integration of public and private religion relative to other dimensions of life freedom love and glory Though the language arises from the Christian tradition and expresses an orthodox strand of that religion the argument weaves throughout the concerns of many world religions Europe's Encounter with Islam Luca Mavelli,2013-03-01 In the last few years the Muslim presence in Europe has been increasingly perceived as problematic Events such as the French ban on headscarves in public schools the publication of the so called Danish cartoons and the speech of Pope Benedict XVI at the University of Regensburg have hit the front pages of newspapers the world over and prompted a number of scholarly debates on Muslims capacity to comply with the seemingly neutral and pluralistic rules of European secularity Luca Mavelli argues that this perspective has prevented an in depth reflection on the limits of Europe s secular tradition and its role in Europe s conflictual encounter with Islam Through an original reading of Michel Foucault s spiritual notion of knowledge and an engagement with key thinkers from Thomas Aquinas to Jurg n Habermas Mavelli articulates a contending genealogy of European secularity While not denying the latter s achievements in terms of pluralism and autonomy he suggests that Europe s secular tradition has also contributed to forms of isolation which translate into Europe s incapacity to perceive its encounter with Islam as an opportunity rather than a threat Drawing on this theoretical perspective Mavelli offers a contending account of some of the most important recent controversies surrounding Islam in Europe and investigates the postsecular as a normative model to engage with the tensions at the heart of European secularity Finally he advances the possibility of a Europe willing to reconsider its established secular narratives which may identify in the encounter with Islam an opportunity to flourish and cultivate its democratic qualities and postnational commitments This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of religion and international relations social and political theory and Islam in Europe Faith Has Its Reasons Kenneth Boa,Robert M. Bowman Jr.,2012-01-05 A most accessible but thoroughly practical primer on apologetics Kierkegaard's Theology of Encounter David James Lappano,2017 This study considers the social and political aspects of Kierkegaard s authorship building upon work over the last couple of decades Dr Lappano focuses on Kierkegaard s writing between 1846 and 1852 the period of Kierkegaard s more explicitly politicized writing A History of Modern Jewish Religious Philosophy Eliezer Schweid,2022-11-07 The last generation of German Jewish philosophers brought the long tragic history of German Jewish creative thought to a close in a blaze of glory while transitioning to the new Jewish creative centers in Israel and America The best known Buber Rosenzweig Baeck Strauss Scholem and the less known Breuer Birnbaum Klatzkin Aviad Wolfsberg Guttmann are thoroughly explicated here with generous primary text citations appearing in English for the first time making this a rich sourcebook and reference for the thinkers presented God and Reality in Modern Thought T. Alec Burkill,1963 Kant and Theology at the Boundaries of Reason Chris L. Firestone,2016-04-22 This book examines the transcendental dimension of Kant s philosophy as a positive resource for theology Firestone shows that Kant s philosophy establishes three distinct grounds for transcendental theology and then evaluates the form and content of theology that emerges when Christian theologians adopt these grounds To understand Kant s philosophy as a completed process Firestone argues theologians must go beyond the strictures of Kant's critical philosophy proper and consider in its fullness the transcendental significance of what Kant calls rational religious faith This movement takes us into the promising but highly treacherous waters of Kant's Religion within the Boundaries of Mere Reason to understand theology at the transcendental bounds of reason Encounters with God Michael James McClymond, 1998 Among the topics considered are spiritual perception metaphysics spirituality ethics history and apologetics BOOK JACKET

Systematics Critical and Constructive 1 Ronald R. Ray, 2018-08-15 This labor of love distills Dr Ron Ray's lifetime reflections on the truth and meaning of the gospel of Jesus Christ Gathered in one volume is an abundant harvest from the best of twentieth century systematic theology Beginning students will find here an informative and clear introductory text Working pastors will receive a refresher course to steady and strengthen a ministry of integrity and joy Preachers will benefit from the author's recommendation of the topical biblical sermon an approach that leads to contemporary topics for textually based scriptural preaching while reinvigorating topical preaching with scriptural sturdiness With both conviction and transparency Ray welcomes his readers into a thoughtful conversation about why and how the Christian message still matters today In the process we also see firsthand how and why systematic theology can still matter today for those entrusted with proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ James F Kay Dean and Vice President of Academic Affairs Professor Princeton Theological Seminary This critical and constructive perspective interacts with such fields as biblical studies Old and New Testament theology hermeneutics and other philosophy Ray's synthesis arises out of a unique theological and pastoral pilgrimage as a minister in the United States and as a missionary theologian and Christian ethicist in Nigeria and Kenya As one might expect from a scholar who did the first PhD dissertation on Jacques Ellul Ray writes with a forthright probing honest style He criticizes authors at highly specific points but often demonstrates indebtedness to the same scholars He is deeply informed by the New Testament and secondarily by the Old Testament yet insists that interpretive dishonesty is no Christian virtue Leicester R Longden Assoc Professor of Evangelism and Discipleship Emeritus University of Dubuque Theological Seminary

Comprehensive Commentary on Kant's Religion Within the Bounds of Bare Reason Stephen R. Palmquist, 2015-12-21 Palmquist's Commentary provides the first definitive clarification on Kant's Philosophy of Religion in English it includes the full text of Pluhar's translation interspersed with explanations providing both a detailed overview and an original interpretation of Kant's work Offers definitive sentence level commentary on Kant's Religion within the Bounds of Bare Reason Presents a thoroughly revised version of Pluhar's translation of the full text of Kant's Religion including detailed notes comparing the translation with the others still in use today Identifies most of the several hundred changes Kant made to the second 1794 edition and unearths evidence that many major changes were responses to criticisms of the first edition Provides both a detailed overview and original interpretation of Kant's work on the philosophy of religion Demonstrates that Kant's arguments in Religion are not only cogent but have clear and profound practical applications to the way religion is actually practiced in the world today Includes a glossary aimed at justifying new translations of key technical terms in Religion many of which have previously neglected religious and theological implications

Union Seminary Quarterly Review ,1960 The Assurance of Things Hoped for Avery Dulles,1996-09 Faith since the earliest Christian theologians has been regarded as the fundamental Christian virtue the prerequisite for hope charity and good works In this book Avery Dulles examines the biblical foundations and history of theological reflection on faith from the Greek and Latin fathers to such modern giants as Tillich Rahner and Lonergan Further Dulles presents his own systematic synthesis reflecting on such topics as the nature and object of faith the certitude of faith the birth growth and loss of faith and faith and salvation The result is a refreshingly relevant theology of faith for our day Justified Faith without

Reasons? Valentin Teodorescu,2023-11-06 This study intends to show that the answer to the question whether faith can be justified without proofs can be resolved by importing ideas from S ren Kierkegaard s and Alvin Plantinga s affirmative take on the matter There is a deep similarity between the way they understand belief in God and belief in Christianity The authors share the modern idea that there is an objective truth combining it with the postmodern stance that no method exists which would guarantee access to it One can see at both authors not only a deep commonality of ideas but also a remarkable way in which their understandings augment each other Whereas Kierkegaard comes to the provocative conclusion that if a person wants to live authentically she will meet Christ on her life s journey without needing any proof Plantinga s inquiry contributes to the rational plausibility of this Justified Faith without Reasons project
