Financial Policies in Socialist Countries in Transition, East-Central European Economies in Transition John Pearce Hardt, Richard F. Kaufman, 1995 A collection of papers assessing what has been accomplished and the obstacles that remain in the transition from communism to capitalism in East Central Europe The papers are arranged within four sections the transition to market economies and political pluralism Western assistance and integration regional relations and country studies Each section begins with an overview This assessment was initiated by a formal request from the Joint Economic Committee of the US Congress to the Congressional Research Service Some of the papers were discussed in May 1994 at a conference in Washington DC A compilation of statistical material prepared for the conference is included as an appendix Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Balance of Payments, Exchange Rates, and Competitiveness in Transition Economies Mario I. Blejer, Marko Skreb, 2007-08-23 Integrating transition economies into the global commercial and trade market system is a prolonged and risky process This book is a collection of studies dealing with the different issues related to the liberalization of external relations in economies moving from a socialist to a market based system The focus is on external sector developments and the topics deal with balance of payments conditions exchange rate policies and regimes international competitiveness international capital flows trade and other matters related to the integration of transition economies into the world economy An understanding of the principles involved and of the experiences of both transition and advanced economies during this process is crucial to ensure its ultimate success Written by internationally recognized scholars the chapters cover these issues in a systematic manner The first section treats current account developments capital flows and exchange rate policies in transition countries the second section deals with specific issues related to international trade and the final section consists of six specific country experiences In this final section a chapter dealing with the Russian Federation discusses the collapse of the ruble in August 1998

The Economics of Bank Bankruptcy Law Matej Marinč, Razvan Vlahu, 2011-09-18 This book shows that a special bank bankruptcy regime is desirable for the efficient restructuring and or liquidation of distressed banks It explores in detail both the principal features of corporate bankruptcy law and the specific characteristics of banks including the importance of public confidence negative externalities of bank failures fragmented regulatory framework bank opaqueness and the related asset substitution problem and liquidity provision These features distinguish banks from other corporations and are largely neglected in corporate bankruptcy law The authors an assistant professor for money and finance and a research economist at the Dutch Central Bank propose changes in both prudential regulation and reorganization policies that should allow regulators and banking authorities to better mitigate disruptions in the financial system and minimize the social costs of bank failures Their recommendations are complemented by a discussion of bank failures from the 2007 2009 financial crisis Transitional Economies Y. Kalyuzhnova, M. Taylor, 2001-07-19 The integration of the countries of Central and Eastern Europe and the Commonwealth of Independent States international financial system was arguably one of the most profound changes experienced by the world economy in the 1990s This book examines these countries in reforming their financial systems in the first decade of transition Through case studies as well as more thematic approaches contributors deal with crucial elements of building a market based financial system the transformation of the banking sector and non bank reform and regulation of financial markets They emphasise the importance of institution building to the process of financial sector transformation and highlight the lessons to be learned from transitional financial experiences When is Transition Over? Annette N. Brown, 1999 Contains six lectures which discuss criteria for determining the end of the transition process These include changes in the characteristics of the economic system outcomes of the transition process and institutional reforms

Debt as a Control Device in Transitional Economies Herbert L. Baer, Cheryl Williamson Gray, 1995 Systemic Bank Restructuring and Macroeconomic Policy Mr. William E. Alexander, Mr. Jeffrey M. Davis, Mr. Liam P. Ebrill, Mr. Carl-Johan Lindgren, 1997-08-21 Edited by William Alexander Jeffrey M Davis Liam P Ebrill and Carl Johan Lindgren this volume discusses cross country restructuring experiences building on the foundation laid by its predecessor Band Soundness and Macroeconomic Policy It discusses broad principles and actions to guide policy makers in restructuring their banking systems State-owned Banks in the Transition Khaled Sherif, Michael S. Borish, Alexandra Gross, 2003 State Owned Banks in the Transition Origins Evolution and Policy Responses reviews the experience with state banking over the last decade in the transition economies of Europe and Central Asia State ownership of banking systems has undermined economic reform efforts and has distorted emerging markets This study compares various approaches to reform and calls attention to the significant costs associated with continued state ownership It concludes with lessons from experience and recommendations for policymakers on approaches to reducing state ownership of banks in the region The findings indicate that restructuring of state banks has proven time consuming and costly and governments are better off moving swiftly to privatize or liquidate their remaining state banks rather than attempting to rehabilitate them This report includes seven case studies of individual state banks that have been reformed or privatized over the past decade The case studies highlight the challenges of implementing various reform measures and illustrate how such challenges have been addressed in difficult economic and political contexts Between State and Market Ira W. Lieberman, Stilpon Nestor, Raj M. Desai, 1997-01-01 IFC Discussion Paper No 32 Over the years demand for education at all levels in Kenya has greatly outpaced supply a gap that has been reduced by private schools catering to the needs of a wide range of socioeconomic groups This gap will widen further unless the private sectors role is expanded but private educational institutions face a number of serious constraints primarily stemming from lack of adequate finance and in many cases limited management skills This paper reviews the market and its constraints and focuses on conditions under which private financial institutions and the International Finance Corporation might play a useful role in the sector Annexes include 1996 operating costs of Kenya s academic technical and vocational schools

Privatization and Restructuring in Central and Eastern Europe Gerhard Pohl, 1997-01-01 Why do women in most developing countries lag behind men in literacy Why do women get less schooling than men This anthology examines the educational decisions that deprive women of an equal education It assembles the most up to date data organized by region Each paper links the data with other measures of economic and social development This approach helps explain the effects different levels of education have on womens fertility mortality rates life expectancy and income Also described are the effects of women s education on family welfare The authors look at family size and women s labor status and earnings They examine child and maternal health as well as investments in children s education Their investigation demonstrates that women with a better education enjoy greater economic growth and provide a more nurturing family life It suggests that when a country denies women an equal education the nation s welfare suffers Current strategies used to improve schooling for girls and women are examined in detail The authors suggest an ambitious agenda for educating women It seeks to close the gender gap by the next century Published for The World Bank by The Johns Hopkins University Press

Transition and Economics Gérard Roland, 2000 The transition from socialism to capitalism in former socialist economies has transformed the economic structure This book provides an overview of research on the issues raised by the shift from collective to private ownership

Restructuring Banks and Enterprises Michael S. Borish, Millard Long, Michel Noël, 1995

Corporate Governance by Banks in Transition Economies , 2013-07-02 This empirical study looks in detail at the Polish Enterprise and Bank Restructuring Program The Polish experience shows the necessity of completely overhauling the bankruptcy laws and institutions at the outset of any restructuring program

International Economic Policy Review, Volume 1 Mr. Paul R Masson, Mr. Timothy D. Lane, Ms. Padma Gotur, 1999-09-28 This series aims to make available to the general public and to economic policy practitioners a selection of policy papers prepared by the staff of the International Monetary Fund Papers in the International Economic Policy Review will offer specific policy relevant analysis but at a relatively non technical level These papers are intended to provide analytical background for IMF supported programs and more generally to shed light on a range of policy choices facing ministries and central banks
