Receiving The Day Christian Practices For Opening The Gift Of Time:

Receiving the Day Dorothy C. Bass, 2002-02-28 In this spirituality of time Dorothy Bass invites readers into away of living in time that is alert to both contemporary pressures and rooted ancient wisdom The celebrated editor of Practicing Our Faith asks hard questions about how our injurious attitude toward time has distorted our relationships with our innermost selves with other people with the natural world and with God As an alternative to the rhetoric of management and mastery Receiving the Day offers a language of attention poetry and celebration Bass encourages us to reevaluate our understanding of the temporal and thereby to participate fully in the Christian practice of knowing time as God's gift Embraced in this way time need not be wrestled with each day Instead time becomes the habitation of blessing Receiving the Day Dorothy C. Bass, Lani Wright, Don C. Richter, 2001 Opening the Field of Practical Theology Kathleen A. Cahalan, Gordon S. Mikoski, 2014-04-10 Opening the Field of Practical Theology introduces students to practical theology through an examination of fifteen different approaches ranging from feminist to liberationist Roman Catholic to evangelical Asian American to Latino a After an introduction to the field of practical theology and its broad range of practice today the book features chapters written by leading experts in the discipline Each chapter has an identical structure to facilitate comparison covering historical context key features and figures norms and sources of authority theory practice contexts interdisciplinary considerations areas of current and future research and suggested readings Opening the Field of Practical Theology is an ideal introduction to the field highlighting the diverse ways practical theology is engaged today The Church and Work Joshua Sweeden, 2014-01-31 Work is one of the most dominant and unavoidable realities of life Though experiences of work vary tremendously many Christians share a common struggle of having to live in seemingly bifurcated spheres of work and faith Beginning with the conviction that Christian faith permeates all aspects of life Joshua Sweeden explores Christian understandings of good work in relationship to ethics community practice and ecclesial witness In The Church and Work Sweeden provides a substantial contribution to the theological conversation about work by proposing an ecclesiological grounding for good work He argues that many of the prominent theological proposals for good work are too abstract from context and demonstrates how the church can be understood as generative for both the theology and practice of good work This needed ecclesiological development takes seriously the role of context in the ongoing discernment of good work and specifically explores how ecclesial life and practice shape and inform good work Christian understandings of good work are inconceivable without the church Accordingly the church is not simply the recipient and a dispenser of a theology of work but the locus of its development Clinician's Guide to Self-Renewal Robert J. Wicks, Elizabeth A. Maynard, 2014-03-13 Providing clinicians with advice consistent with the current emphasis on working from strengths to promote renewal this guide presents a holistic approach to psychological wellness Time tested advice is featured from experts such as Craig Cashwell Jeffrey Barnett and Kenneth Pargament With strategies to renew the mind body spirit and community this book equips clinicians with guidance and inspiration for the renewal of body mind community and spirit in their clients and themselves

Tranquility David W. Henderson, 2015-09-01 There's never enough time So we try to cram as much as possible into what little time we have work friends play rest But what if How do I fit it all in isn't the right question Scripture has a lot to say about time Taking a cue from Ecclesiastes Better one handful with tranquility than two handfuls with toil and chasing after the wind and drawing on everything from Augustine's Confessions to conversations with air traffic controllers David W Henderson encourages us to move beyond merely trying to open up a bit of margin or to say no once in a while and to take a purposeful step back from our lives to examine those internal and external dynamics that propel us into busyness and hurry Sharing honest stories about his own struggles with busyness he helps readers explore the way the Scriptures frame our time understanding the times making the most of the time and trusting God with the rest For anyone who is tired of feeling the push and pull of our time bent culture this book will be a welcome invitation to rest and to live artful and faithful lives marked by peace and tranquility light yet profound read meant to be savored slowly Here we find Jesus s purest message We need to learn from the Master who is gentle and humble of heart This book is a new approach to facing the challenges of daily life Sabbath as Resilience Kenneth J. Barnes,C. Sara Lawrence Minard,2025-03-28 People everywhere are feeling the stress of modern life in ways not seen for generations Emerging from the fog of the first pandemic in one hundred years they face economic uncertainty political acrimony war and the threat of war environmental degradation and technological advances that amaze and frighten in equal measure Time and space condense as unrelenting connectedness blurs the lines between work and play fact and fiction need and desire The devices meant to improve lives dominate them in what theologian Walter Brueggemann calls the tyranny of now People are looking for accessible solutions to complex problems People need resilience but are ill equipped to find it In this book the Fellows of the Mockler Center at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary offer a solution not from the well trodden psychological disciplines or the lure of New Age mysticism but in a concept as old as the Scriptures themselves the divine gift of Sabbath The authors explore in detail Jesus words Sabbath was made for humanity not humanity for the Sabbath proposing five areas values time space people and faith where a more comprehensive understanding of Sabbath can build resilience by reshaping personal and professional identities in accord with God s will and purpose
