Nash,James Ost,2016-10-04 Our memories shape how we think about the past how we plan for the future and how we think about ourselves Yet our memories are also constantly being reinvented we often remember our experiences differently from how they truly happened and can even remember experiences that never happened at all False and Distorted Memories provides an overview of recent and ongoing developments in the science of false memory World leading researchers unpick questions about flawed recollections discussing issues as varied as the reliability of highly emotional memories why we sometimes begin to remember fictional experiences that we have deliberately fabricated and what happens when we stop believing our memories Each chapter demonstrates how memory science has furthered our understanding of these important questions by exploring theoretical ideas and psychological research methods that underpin their investigations Edited by Robert Nash and James Ost this volume offers an international and up to date perspective on false and distorted memories The volume also draws attention to the broad range of real life contexts in which such distortions might arise and their potential consequences False and Distorted Memories illustrates the ease with which memory can be contaminated and the power of the resulting memory errors providing an integral text for researchers and students interested in the psychology of memory Giving a voice to the Oppressed? Agnès Arp,Annette Leo,Franka Maubach,2019-12-16 Due to its internationality and interdisciplinarity the International Oral History Association IOHA which was founded in the late 1970 s is one of a kind in the academic landscape Driven by the desire to democratize historical scholarship its members wanted to give a voice to groups such as women workers migrants or victims of political dictatorships who had not been heard up to that point The contributions deal with the academic approaches and the political convictions of the previous generation Zainichi Cinema Oliver Dew,2016-11-04 This book examines how filmmakers curators and critics created a category of transnational Korean in Japan Zainichi Cinema focussing on the period from the 1960s onwards An enormously diverse swathe of films have been claimed for this cinema of the Korean diaspora ranging across major studio yakuza films and melodramas news reels created by ethnic associations first person video essays and unlikely hits that crossed over from the indie distribution circuit to have a wide impact across the media landscape Today Zainichi themed works have never had a higher profile with new works by Matsue Tetsuaki Sai Yoichi and Yang Yonghi frequently shown at international festivals Zainichi Cinema argues that central to this transnational cinema is the tension between films with an authorized claim to represent and ambiguous and borderline works that require an active spectator to claim them as images of the Korean diaspora Legacies of Silence Glenn Sujo, Imperial War Museum (Great Britain), 2001 Accompanying an exhibition at the Imperial War Museum London from 5 April to 27 August 2001 this volume examines the contribution of artist witnesses victims and survivors of the Holocaust to post war culture and the visual arts
