A detailed illustration of the prophet Jonah. He is depicted from the chest up, wearing a white head covering and a brown robe. His right arm is raised high, with his hand clenched in a fist, as if he is shouting or preaching with great passion. His facial expression is one of intense emotion, with his eyes closed and his mouth open. The background is a solid, vibrant blue.

Men in the Bible John F. O'Grady, 2005 MEN IN THE BIBLE explores the lives of twelve men whose lives figure prominently in Scripture six each from the Old and New Testaments Throughout the text John O'Grady is careful to keep these stories in perspective and focuses on the historical and archaeological evidence surrounding them The profiles presented here represent the entire span of biblical history from Adam and Abraham to Jesus and his followers Among them are such familiar figures as Moses David Jeremiah Jesus John the Baptist Peter and Judas Apart from Jesus all the subjects in this book have flaws some of them quite serious Often their noble qualities are obscured by such negative traits as pettiness meanness jealousy anger and pride These bad and ugly aspects make the rough edges more than evident Yet these same individuals are bound together by a common faith in God Even Judas must have had considerable talents and generosity to be included among the twelve disciples As in biblical times people today also represent a spectrum of traits some good some bad and some downright ugly But the author demonstrates that because of the goodness of God the bad and the ugly never eradicate the presence of goodness He explains how such stories from the past can serve as examples for people today By fully understanding the character of each of the men covered in this work we can overcome the dark side of our natures and learn to become stronger and better people
