Remarks and Inventions Rodney Needham,1974 Review of Remarks and Inventions Lee Sackett,1976

Remarks and Inventions Rodney Needham,2013-11-05 This volume scrutinizes the questions of conceptualization method and history in the fields of kinship social anthropology and structuralism It puts forward a radical revision of the conventional approaches and criteria Exploring analysis and method in the disparity between relative age and kinship categories as means of social classification the book makes theoretical readjustments largely inspired by the precepts of Wittgenstein Originally published in 1971 The Ethics of Kinship James Faubion,2001-12-13 What need is there for kinship What good is it anyway The questions are as old as anthropology itself but few answers have been enduringly persuasive Kinship systems can contribute to our enslavement but more often they permit channel and facilitate our relations with others and our further fashioning of ourselves as kin but also as subjects of other kinds When they do they are among the matrices of our lives as ethical beings Each contributor to this innovative book treats his or her own alterity as the touchstone of the exploration of an ethnographically and historically specific ethics of kinship Together the chapters reveal the irreducible complexity of the entanglement of the subject of kinship with the subject of nation class ethnicity gender desire The chapters speak eloquently to the sometimes liberating stories that we cannot help but keep telling about our kin and ourselves Anthropological Perspectives On Kinship Ladislav Holy,1996-10-20 This authoritative introductory text takes into account the changes in the conceptualisation of kinship brought about by new reproductive technologies and the growing interest in culturally specific notions of personhood and gender Holy considers the extent to which Western assumptions have guided anthropological study of kinship in the past In the process he reveals a growing sensitivity on the part of anthropologists to individual ideas of personhood and gender and encourages further critical reflection on cultural bias in approaches to the subject Kinship Ideology and Practice in Latin America Raymond Thomas Smith,1984 In this volume an international group of anthropologists and historians examines the complex relationships between family life culture and economic change in Latin America and the Caribbean Dissatisfied with interpretations based on European experience Words and Processes in Mambila Kinship David Zeitlyn,2005-01-01 Words and Processes in Mambila Kinship presents a set of studies of the way that Mambila speakers in Cameroon talk about themselves and their kin Author David Zeitlyn employs conversational analytic methods to further the study of kinship terminologies This book takes an important step toward a new synthesis between the practice of ethnography and the study of language while presenting African natural language data still rare in mainstream linguistics in an accessible format Evolution 2.0 Martin Brinkworth,Friedel Weinert,2011-10-07 These essays by leading philosophers and scientists focus on recent ideas at the forefront of modern Darwinism showcasing and exploring the challenges they raise as well as open problems This interdisciplinary volume is unique in that it addresses the key notions of evolutionary theory in approaches to the mind in the philosophy of biology in the social sciences and humanities furthermore it considers recent challenges to and extensions of Neo Darwinism The essays demonstrate that Darwinism is an evolving paradigm with a sphere of influence far greater than even Darwin is likely to have imagined when he published On the Origin of Species in 1859 Other Tribes, Other Scribes James A. Boon,1982 In this book James A Boon investigates the history dialectics and practice of the symbolic analysis of cultural diversity His aim is to formulate a general comparative approach to the study of symbolic processes integrating the major different theories about symbolic forms that have been developed by other writers Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology R. Jon McGee,Richard L. Warms,2013-08-28 Social and cultural anthropology and archaeology are rich subjects with deep connections in the social and physical sciences Over the past 150 years the subject matter and different theoretical perspectives have expanded so greatly that no single individual can command all of it Consequently both advanced students and professionals may be confronted with theoretical positions and names of theorists with whom they are only partially familiar if they have heard of them at all Students in particular are likely to turn to the web to find quick background information on theorists and theories However most web based information is inaccurate and or lacks depth Students and professionals need a source to provide a quick overview of a particular theory and theorist with just the basics the who what where how and why In response SAGE Reference is publishing the two volume Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology An Encyclopedia Features Benefits Two volumes containing approximately 335 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and thorough reference resource available on anthropology theory both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage To ease navigation between and among related entries a Reader s Guide groups entries thematically and each entry is followed by Cross References In the electronic version the Reader s Guide combines with the Cross References and a detailed Index to provide robust search and browse capabilities An appendix with a Chronology of Anthropology Theory allows students to easily chart directions and trends in thought and theory from early times to the present Suggestions for Further Reading at the end of each entry and a Master Bibliography at the end guide readers to sources for more detailed research and discussion De Kebar 1855-1980 J. Kissing Cousins Frances Bartkowski, 2008-09-18 Since DNA has replaced blood as the medium through which we establish kinship how do we determine with whom we are kin Who counts among those we care for The distinction between these categories is constantly in flux How do we come to decide those we may kiss and those we may kill Focusing on narratives of kinship as they are defined in contemporary film literature and news media Frances Bartkowski discusses the impact of stories of origin on our regard for nonhuman species She locates the role of totems and taboos in forming and re forming kinship categories groupings that enable us to tie the personal to the social and explores the bestiary among the oldest of literary forms The bestiary is the realm in which we allegorize the place of humans and other species a menagerie encompassing animals we know as well as human animal chimeras and other beings that challenge the natural order of the world Yet advances in reproductive technologies the mapping of genomes and the study of primates continually destabilize these categories and recast the dynamic between the natural and the cultural Bartkowski highlights the arbitrariness of traditional kinship arrangements and asks us to rethink our notions of empathy and ethics She shows how current dialogues concerning ethics and desire determine contemporary attitudes toward issues of care and suggests a new framework for negotiating connection and conflict
