

A night landscape of a beach with the Milky Way galaxy visible in the sky. The scene is dark, with the bright, hazy band of the Milky Way stretching across the upper half of the frame. Below the sky, a calm sea meets a sandy beach. On the left, a dark, rocky cliff face slopes down towards the water. In the foreground, several large, dark, weathered rocks are scattered on the sand. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Maybe one day we shall be glad to remember even these hardships.

Confessions Saint Augustine, 2003-05-29 Give me chastity and continence but not yet The son of a pagan father and a Christian mother Saint Augustine spent his early years torn between conflicting world views The Confessions written when he was in his forties recounts how slowly and painfully he came to turn away from his youthful ideas and licentious lifestyle to become one of Christianity's most influential thinkers A remarkably honest spiritual autobiography the Confessions also addresses fundamental issues of Christian doctrine and many of the prayers and meditations it includes are still an integral part of the practice of the faith today Translated with an Introduction by R S PINE COFFIN

The Complete Works of C. H. Spurgeon, Volume 42 Charles, Spurgeon H., Volume 42 Sermons 2446 2497 Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834 31 January 1892 is one of the church's most famous preachers and Christianity's foremost prolific writers Called the Prince of Preachers he was one of England's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people often up to ten times each week He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London for 38 years He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons commentaries an autobiography as well as books on prayer devotionals magazines poetry hymns and more Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London Volume 6 1878 quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon's meetings at Surrey Fancy a congregation consisting of 10 000 souls streaming into the hall mounting the galleries humming buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity More than a hundred years after his death Charles Spurgeon's legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world For this reason Delmarva Publications has chosen to publish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon     Jung and Levinas Frances Gray,2015-11-19 This book brings C G Jung into conversation with the French philosopher Emmanuel Levinas taking a radical view of post modernist theory which the author argues is relentlessly introverted Frances Gray presents completely new research which extends analytical psychology into the world of dispute resolution in mediation within a deeply philosophical framework Arguing that mediation is a therapeutics that entails a psycho social archaeology which in turn requires recognition of the foundational roles of sex gender time and narrative in inter subjective relationships this book develops Jung s approach to projection as an ethical process that assumes the presence of a sex gendered Other Chapters explore the possibility of a psycho social archaeology through development of the argument that a radical turn to the fundamentals of our own consciousnesses can open up a landscape on which we begin to fashion the moral courage necessary for the practice of alternative dispute resolution in mediation This book highlights Jung s contention that withdrawal of projection is a fundamentally moral endeavour and that although Levinas face of the Other can be seen as a way of acknowledging the Otherness of the Other there are limits to its application in Jungian thinking This book maintains that the face of the Other is critical to any moral encounter and above all brings us to the transformational possibilities of the process of dispute resolution in mediation Jung and Levinas will appeal to researchers students and practitioners of analytical psychology dispute resolution applied ethics conflict studies and transformation
