Remembered Kibes:

Memory & Oblivion A.W. Reinink, Jeroen Stumpel, 2012-12-06 Memory is a subject that recently has attracted many scholars and readers not only in the general historical sciences but also in the special field of art history. However, in this book, in which more than 130 papers given at the XXIXth International Congress of the History of Art Amsterdam 1996 have been compiled, Memory is also juxtaposed to its counterpart Oblivion, thus generating extra excitement in the exchange of ideas. The papers are presented in eleven sections, each of which is devoted to a different aspect of memory and oblivion, ranging from purely material aspects of preservation to social phenomena with regard to art collecting, from the memory of the art historian to workshop practices, from art in antiquity to the newest media, from Buddhist iconography to the Berlin Wall. The book addresses readers in the field of history, history of art, and psychology. My Shakespeare Greg Doran, 2023-04-20 THE TIMES BEST BOOKS OF THE YEAR This book charts the personal and professional journey of Greg Doran, Artistic Director of the Royal Shakespeare Company from 2012 until 2022 and one of the great Shakespearians of his generation. Sunday Times During his illustrious career, Doran has directed or produced all of the plays within Shakespeare's First Folio, a milestone reached in the same year that the world celebrates the 400th anniversary of its original publication. Each chapter looks at a different play, considering the choices made and weaving in both autobiographical detail and background on the RSC, as well as giving insights into key collaborations, including those with actors such as Judi Dench, David Tennant, Harriet Walter, Patrick Stewart, Simon Russell Beale, Paterson Joseph, and Doran's husband, the late Antony Sher, as well as seminal practitioners such as Cicely Berry, John Barton, and Terry Hands. The book also includes 16 striking pages with stills from some of the RSC plays. Through Doran's account of this extraordinary journey, we see how Henry VIII, initially regarded as a poisoned chalice, became his lucky break; how the tragedy of 9/11 unfolded during a matinee of King John; and how the language of the play went some way in helping to articulate the unfathomable. How a RSC supporter bequeathed their skull to the company to be used as Yorick in Hamlet; how meeting Nelson Mandela inspired the production of Julius Caesar; how Falstaff was introduced to China for the very first time; and how arachnophobia informed the production of Macbeth. This book uniquely captures the excitement, energy, surprises, joys, and agonies of working on these greatest of plays, sheds new light on these plays through Doran's own research and discoveries made in the rehearsal room, and gives unprecedented access into the craft, life, and loves of this exceptional director. My Shakespeare is also available in audiobook format from audiobook retailers. No-thing is Left to Tell John L. Kundert-Gibbs, 1999 This study uses Zen Buddhism and Chaos theory as binocular lenses to examine the existential difficulties in Samuel Beckett's plays in terms that circumvent traditional Western schools of thought. The book first outlines the salient points of Zen Buddhism and Chaos theory, examining the interplay of ideas between the two disciplines. The balance of the book uses Zen and Chaos theory to reveal new patterns and layers of meaning or non-meaning in several of Beckett's most significant plays. Shakespeare's Sonnets James

Spencer Tracy James Curtis,2011-10-18 A rich vibrant portrait the most intimate and telling yet of this complex man considered by many to be the actor's actor Spencer Tracy's image on screen was that of a self-reliant man whose sense of rectitude toward others was matched by his sense of humor toward himself. Whether he was Father Flanagan of Boys Town, Clarence Darrow of Inherit the Wind, or the crippled war veteran in Bad Day at Black Rock, Tracy was forever seen as a pillar of strength. His full name was Spencer Bonaventure Tracy. He was called The Gray Fox by Frank Sinatra; other actors called him The Pope. The best goddamned actor I've ever seen, George M. Cohan. In his several comedy roles opposite Katharine Hepburn, Woman of the Year, and Adam's Rib, among them, or in Father of the Bride with Elizabeth Taylor, Tracy was the sort of regular American guy one could depend on. Now James Curtis, acclaimed biographer of Preston Sturges' Definitive Variety, James Whale, and W. C. Fields, by far the fullest, fairest, and most touching account we have yet had. Or are likely to have. Richard Schickel, The New York Times Book Review, cover review, gives us the life of one of the most revered screen actors of his generation. Curtis writes of Tracy's distinguished career, his deep Catholicism, his devoted relationship to his wife, his drinking that got him into so much trouble, and his twenty-six year long bond with his partner on screen and off, Katharine Hepburn. Drawing on Tracy's personal papers and writing with the full cooperation of Tracy's daughter, Curtis tells the rich story of the brilliant but haunted man at the heart of the legend. We see him from his boyhood in Milwaukee, given over to Dominican nuns. They drill that religion in you, his years struggling in regional shows, and stock. Tracy had a photographic memory and an instinct for inhabiting a character from within, acting opposite his future wife, Louise Treadwell, marrying and having two children, their son John, born deaf. We see Tracy's success on Broadway, his turning out mostly forgettable programmers with the Fox Film Corporation, and going to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and getting the kinds of roles that had eluded him in the past: a streetwise priest opposite Clark Gable in San Francisco, a screwball comedy, Labeled Lady, Kipling's classic of the sea, Captains Courageous. Three years after arriving at MGM, Tracy became America's top male star. We see how Tracy embarked on a series of affairs with his costars, making Northwest Passage and Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, which brought Ingrid Bergman into his life. By the time the unhappy shoot was over, Tracy, looking to do a comedy, made Woman of the Year. Its unlikely costar, Katharine Hepburn. We see Hepburn making Tracy her life's project, protecting and sustaining him in the difficult job of being a top-tier movie star. And we see Tracy's wife, Louise, devoting herself to studying how deaf children could be taught to communicate orally with the hearing and speaking world. Curtis writes that Tracy was ready to retire when producer-director Stanley Kramer recruited him for Inherit the Wind, a collaboration that led to Judgment at Nuremberg. It's a mad, mad, mad, mad world, and Tracy's final picture, Guess Who's Coming to Dinner, a rich, vibrant portrait, the most intimate and telling yet of this complex man considered by many to be the actor's actor.
