Remembering Babylon:

Remembering Babylon David Malouf, 1993 David Malouf's novel shortlisted for the 1993 Booker Prize is a masterpiece In the mid 1840s a thirteen year old boy is cast ashore in the far north of Australia and taken in by aborigines Sixteen years later when settlers reach the area he moves back into the world of Europeans men and women who are staking out their small patch of security in an alien half mythological land hopeful yet terrified of what it might do to them And the Birds Began to Sing, 2022-06-08 Taking as its starting point the ambiguous heritage left by the British Empire to its former colonies dominions and possessions And the Birds Began to Sing marks a new departure in the interdisciplinary study of religion and literature Gathered under the rubric Christianity and Colonialism essays on Brian Moore Timothy Findley Margaret Atwood and Marian Engel Thomas King Les A Murray David Malouf Mudrooroo and Philip McLaren R A K Mason Maurice Gee Keri Hulme Epeli Hau ofa J M Coetzee Christopher Okigbo Chinua Achebe Amos Tutuola and Ngugi wa Thiong'o explore literary portrayals of the effects of British Christianity upon settler and native cultures in Northern Ireland Canada Australia New Zealand and the South Pacific and the Africas These essays share a sense of the dominant presence of Christianity as an inherited system of religious thought and practice to be adapted to changing post colonial conditions or to be resisted as the lingering ideology of colonial times In the second section of the collection Empire and World Religions essays on Paule Marshall and George Lamming Jean Rhys Olive Senior and Caribbean poetry V S Naipaul Anita Desai Kamala Markandaya and Bharati Mukherjee interrogate literature exploring relations between the scions of British imperialism and religious traditions other than Christianity Expressly concerned with literary embodiments of belief systems in post colonial cultures particularly West African religions in the Caribbean and Hinduism on the Indian subcontinent these essays also share a sense of Christianity as the pervasive presence of an ideological rhetoric among the economic social and political dimensions of imperialism In a polemical Afterword the editor argues that modes of reading religion and literature in post colonial cultures are characterised by a theodical preoccupation with a praxis of equity On Post-Colonial Futures Bill Ashcroft, 2001-09-01 In this groundbreaking work Bill Ashcroft extends the arguments posed in The Empire Writes Back to investigate the transformative effects of postcolonial resistance and the continuing relevance of colonial struggle He demonstrates the remarkable capacity for change and adaptation emanating from postcolonial cultures both in everyday life and in the intellectual spheres of literature history and philosophy The transformations of postcolonial literary study have not been limited to a simple rewriting of the canon but have also affected the ways in which all literature can be read and have led to a more profound understanding of the network of cultural practices that influence creative writing Boundaries in David Malouf's "Remembering Babylon" Volker Hartmann, 2011-05-25 Essay from the year 2011 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 3.0 University of Stuttgart language English abstract The process of natural selection is very common to us today However in the time David Malouf's Remembering Babylon takes place Darwin

s Origin of Species is not very widespread yet and the naturalist movement in general is only at its beginning According to the theory of natural selection people have to adapt to their environments which of course sounds very reasonable If we look back at the 1840 s in Australia when Gemmy Fairley is cast ashore convicts and other people from Britain inhabited the new continent for a short period of time White settlers lived isolated in settlements and tried to make this tiny space they discovered on this gigantic island their home Most settlers did not want to have any contact to the indigenous people living there because they were either ignorant or afraid of them Their way of thinking was that they just needed to inhabit a piece of land long enough to call it their own Obviously this way of thinking lead to conflicts with the aboriginal people on one hand but also to conflicts with their environment on the other hand The conflicts with the environment existed because they did not accept the country as their new home country and paid very little attention to their surrounding Perhaps this syndrome is also caused by the fact that the settlers never had a real connection to the land while the indigenous people had a very deep bound to the earth they lived on The boundary fence boundaries of the mind and real as well as imagined cultural boundaries are reasons for the conflicts between aboriginal people and white settlers and the lacking connection to the land in Remembering Babylon Eventually it is a matter of closed or open mindedness that decides between war and peace or misfortune and fortune

After The Celebration Ken Gelder,Paul Salzman,2009-01-01 After the Celebration explores Australian fiction from 1989 to 2007 after Australia s bicentenary to the end of the Howard government In this literary history Ken Gelder and Paul Salzman combine close attention to Australian novels with a vivid depiction of their contexts cultural social political historical national and transnational From crime fiction to the postmodern colonial novel from Australian grunge to rural apocalypse fiction from the Asian diasporic novel to the action blockbuster Gelder and Salzman show how Australian novelists such as Frank Moorhouse Elizabeth Jolley Peter Carey Kim Scott Steven Carroll Kate Grenville Tim Winton Alexis Wright and many others have used their work to chart our position in the world The literary controversies over history identity feminism and gatekeeping are read against the politics of the day Provocative and compelling After the Celebration captures the key themes and issues in Australian fiction where we have been and what we have become

Transformation and growth of the McIvor family in David Malouf's "Remembering Babylon" Anja Schulte,2014-02-26 Seminar paper from the year 2012 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 1 7 Carl von Ossietzky University of Oldenburg course David Malouf s Remembering Babylon language English abstract David Malouf s Remembering Babylon takes place in the 19th century in the outback of Queensland Australia The main character Gemmy a dark and uncivilised creature appears out of nowhere one day and brings a lot of tension into the white settlers village He moves in with the Mc Ivor family whose daughter Janet and adopted nephew Lachlan were amongst those who found Gemmy Both children form a strong bond with Gemmy though in very different ways as does Mrs Ivor who accepts him with much love from day one Only Mr Ivor is sceptical at the beginning but also grows to like the new family member eventually

According to Doty and Risto 1996 p 102 the main subject Malouf portrays in this novel is what they call the characters struggling to achieve wholeness Furthermore Gemmy accordingly acts as a catalyst for the other characters growth and transformative experience This essay explores some of the main characters transformation throughout the novel as well as how their relationship to each other changes This transformation is found to take place partly through Gemmy coming into their lives as well as due to the originally Scottish family having immigrated to Australia Explorations in Australian Literature Jaydeep Sarangi,Binod Mishra,2006 A Sea for Encounters Stella Borg Barthet,2009 The present volume contains general essays on the relevance of Commonwealth literature the treatment of Dalits in literature and culture the teaching of African literature in the UK sharing places and Drum magazine in South Africa black British book covers as primers for cultural contact Christianity imperialism and conversion Orang Pendek and Papuans in colonial Indonesia Carnival and drama in the anglophone Caribbean issues of choice between the Maltese language and Its Others and patterns of interaction between married couples in Malta As well as these there are essays providing close readings of works by the following authors Chinua Achebe Andr Aciman Diran Adebayo Monica Ali Edward Atiyah Margaret Atwood Murray Bail Peter Carey Amit Chaudhuri Austin Clarke Sara Jeannette Duncan Amitav Ghosh Nadine Gordimer Antjie Krog Hanif Kureishi Naguib Mahfouz David Malouf V S Naipaul Michael Ondaatje Tayeb Salih Zadie Smith Ahdaf Soueif Yvonne Vera Contributors Jogamaya Bayer Katrin Berndt Sabrina Brancato Monica Bungaro Judith L tge Coulli Robert Cribb Natasha Distiller Evelyne Hanquart Turner Marie Herbillon Tuomas Huttunen Gen ichiro Itakura Jacqueline Jondot Karen King Aribisala Ursula Kluwick Dorothy Lane Ben Lebdai Lourdes L pez Roperio Amin Malak Daniel Massa Concepci n Mengibar Rico Susanne Reichl Brigitte Scheer Schaezler Lydia Sciriha Jamie S Scott Andrea Strolz Peter O Stummer Cynthia vanden Driesen Clare Thake Vassallo Beyond Postmodernism Klaus Stierstorfer,2003 After the veritable hype concerning postmodernism in the 1980s and early 1990s when questions about when it began what it means and which texts it comprises were apt to trigger heated discussions the excitement has notably cooled down at the turn of the century Voices are now beginning to be heard which seem to suggest a new episteme in the making which points beyond postmodernism while it remains at the same time very uncertain whether what appears as newness is not rather a return to traditional concepts theoretical premises and authorial practices Contributors to this volume propose to explore new openings and recent developments in anglophone literatures and cultural theories which engage with issues seen to be central in the construction of a postmodern paradigm but deal with them in ways that promise new openings or a new Zeitgeist

Cultural Studies 10.3 Lawrence Grossberg,2005-08-08 Cultural Studies is an international journal committed to exploring the relationships between cultural practices and everyday life economic relations the material world the State and historical forces and contexts Imagining Justice Julie McGonegal,2009-03-01 Drawing on critical and theoretical material by thinkers as diverse as Jacques Derrida Frantz Fanon Mahatma Ghandi and Julia Kristeva Julie McGonegal supplements indigenous models and approaches with those produced within Euro American discourse In the process she develops an understanding of forgiveness and reconciliation based on the interventive power of literature Through insightful readings of four novels McGonegal demonstrates the ways in which literature can create the conditions that make processes of postcolonial reconciliation possible

Literary Activists ,2009-09 Uniquely examining the link between Australian writers and social change this study investigates the motives behind literary figures who strive to become activists and social intellectuals Exploring this intimate connection this resource asks what such a bond reveals about Australian literature and the power of the written word With fresh insight this guide delves into the activism careers and writings of Judith Wright Patrick White Oodgeroo of the tribe of Noonuccal Les Murray Helen Garner David Malouf and Tim Winton

Missions of Interdependence ,2021-11-01 At the beginning of the twenty first century it is necessary to combine into a productive programme the striving for individual emancipation and the social practice of humanism in order to help the world survive both the ancient pitfalls of particularist terrorism and the levelling tendencies of cultural indifference engendered by the renewed imperialist arrogance of hegemonial global capital In this book thirty five scholars address and negotiate in a spirit of learning and understanding an exemplary variety of intercultural splits and fissures that have opened up in the English speaking world Their methodology can be seen to constitute a seminal field of intellectual signposts They point out ways and means of responsibly assessing colonial predicaments and postcolonial developments in six regions shaped in the past by the British Empire and still associated today through their allegiance to the idea of a Commonwealth of Nations They show how a new ethic of literary self assertion interpretative mediation and critical responsiveness can remove the deeply ingrained prejudices silences and taboos established by discrimination against race class and gender

Literature and Theology as a Grammar of Assent David Jasper,2017-05-15 Examining the roots of the relationship between literature and theology this book offers the first serious attempt to probe the deep theological purposes of the study of literature Through an exploration of themes of evil forgiveness sacrament and what it means to be human David Jasper draws from international research and discussions on literature and theology and employs an historical and profoundly personal journey through the later part of the last century up to the present time Combining fields such as bible and literature poetry and sacrament this book sheds new light on how Christian theology seeks to remain articulate in our global secular and multi faith culture

Representing Aboriginal Childhood Joanne Faulkner,2023-02-28 This book critically investigates the ways in which Aboriginal children and childhood figure in Australia s cultural life to mediate Australians ambivalence about the colonial origins of the nation as well as its possible post colonial futures Engaging with representations in literature film governmental discourse and news and infotainment media it shows how ways of representing Aboriginal children and childhood serve a national project of representing settler Australian values through the forgetting of colonial violence Analysing the ways in which certain negative aspects of Australian nationhood are concealed rendered invisible and repressed through practices of representing

Aboriginal children and childhood it challenges accepted shared understandings regarding Australian ness and settler colonial sovereignty Through an innovative interdisciplinary approach that engages critical theory post colonial theory literary studies history psychoanalysis and philosophy Representing Aboriginal Childhood responds to urgent questions that pivot on the role of the Indigenous child within settler nation state formations As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology and social geography collective memory politics and cultural studies

About That Life Matthew Cheney, 2023 Why write Why ask a reader to give their time and attention to your words How can writing be more than narcissism and self aggrandizement These questions were ones that the writer and naturalist Barry Lopez asked at the Bread Loaf Writers Conference in the summer of 2000 and they are questions at the heart of About That Life a meditation on matters of living making and seeking While Lopez is best known for such works of nonfiction as the National Book Award winning Arctic Dreams Matthew Cheney brings our attention to the many works of short fiction that Lopez published throughout his life demonstrating how they fit within Lopez s sense of ethical aesthetics That sense is then set alongside the work of San Francisco s New Narrative writers insights from David Hinton s translations of Tu Fu the story of community arising around a pottery kiln in western Oregon the beauties and contradictions of S etsu Yanagi s The Unknown Craftsman and the implications of the right wing mob attack on the U S Capitol an event that occurred on what would have been Barry Lopez s 76th birthday Through a collage of memoir history literary criticism philosophy aesthetic theory and creative writing exercises About That Life wonders how we might live and dream in a world that seems ever more cruel and destructive

The Pain of Unbelonging Sheila Collingwood-Whittick, 2007 Beyond the obvious and enduring socio economic ravages it unleashed on indigenous cultures white settler colonization in Australasia also inflicted profound damage on the collective psyche of both of the communities that inhabited the contested space of the colonial world The acute sense of alienation that colonization initially provoked in the colonized and colonizing populations of Australia and New Zealand has recent studies indicate developed into an endemic existential pathology Evidence of the psychological fallout from the trauma of geographical deracination cultural disorientation and ontological destabilization can be found not only in the state of anomie and self destructive patterns of behaviour that now characterize the lives of indigenous Australian and Maori peoples but also in the perpetually faltering identity discourse and cultural rootlessness of the present descendants of the countries Anglo Celtic settlers It is with the literary expression of this persistent condition of alienation that the essays gathered in the present volume are concerned Covering a heterogeneous selection of contemporary Australasian literature what these critical studies convincingly demonstrate is that more than two hundred years after the process of colonisation was set in motion the experience that Germaine Greer has dubbed the pain of unbelonging continues unabated constituting a dominant thematic concern in the writing produced today by Australian and New Zealand authors

Modernism, Postcolonialism, and Globalism Richard Begam, Michael Valdez Moses, 2018-11-12 As England withdrew from its empire after World War II

how did writers living outside the United Kingdom respond to the history of colonialism and the aesthetics of modernism within a global context In fourteen original essays edited by Richard Begam and Michael Valdez Moses a distinguished group of scholars considers these questions in relation to novelists playwrights and poets living in English speaking countries around the world Modernism Postcolonialism and Globalism not only examines how modernism and postcolonialism evolved over several generations but also situates the writers analyzed in terms of canonical realignments inspired by the New Modernist Studies and an array of emerging methodologies and approaches While this volume highlights social and political questions connected with the end of empire it also considers the aesthetics of postcolonialism detailing how writers drew upon responded to and sometimes reacted against the formal innovations of modernism Many of the essays consider the influence modernist artists and movements exercised on postcolonial writers from W B Yeats Joseph Conrad Franz Kafka Marcel Proust James Joyce T S Eliot and Virginia Woolf to Impressionism Expressionism Surrealism and Abstractionism Modernism Postcolonialism and Globalism is organized around six geographic locales and includes essays on Africa Chinua Achebe Ngugi wa Thiong o Nadine Gordimer J M Coetzee Asia Salman Rushdie Arundhati Roy the Caribbean Jean Rhys Derek Walcott V S Naipaul Ireland Samuel Beckett Seamus Heaney Australia New Zealand David Malouf Keri Hulme and Canada Michael Ondaatje Examining how Anglophone writers engaged with the literary intellectual and cultural heritage of modernism this volume offers a vital and distinctive intervention in ongoing discussions of modern and contemporary literature

The Politics of Identity in Australia Geoff Stokes, 1997-06-30 Issues of identity are central to many historical and current debates in Australia This superb collection of essays represents a significant rethinking of received ideas on identity and reveals how issues of identity lie at the heart of Australian political thought and form the foundation of Australian society and culture It provides a comprehensive introduction to the political discourse surrounding Australian identity through key themes including identity theory the manipulation of identity for political ends gender and sexuality immigration and national identity citizenship and Aboriginality and literature and film The book rejects many of the assumptions underlying contemporary political debates including the promulgation of a singular national identity in historical fact or as a political goal This is a thought provoking study of identity its links with nationalism and its potentially divisive effects

White Vanishing Elspeth Tilley, 2012-01-01 The story of the vulnerable white person vanishing without trace into the harsh Australian landscape is a potent and compelling element in multiple genres of mainstream Australian culture It has been sung in Little Boy Lost brought to life on the big screen in Picnic at Hanging Rock immortalized in Henry Lawson s poems of lost tramps and preserved in the history books tales of Leichhardt or Burke and Wills wandering in mad circles A world wide audience has also witnessed the many layered and oddly strident nature of Australian disappearance symbolism in media coverage of contemporary disappearances such as those of Azaria Chamberlain and Peter Falconio White Vanishing offers a revealing and challenging re examination of Australian disappearance mythology exposing the political utility at its core Drawing on wide ranging examples of the white vanishing myth the book provides evidence that disappearance mythology encapsulates some of the most dominant and durable categories at the heart of white Australian culture and that many of those ideas have their origin in colonial mechanisms of inequality and oppression White Vanishing deliberately and perhaps controversially reminds readers that while power is never absolute or irresistible some narrative threads carry a particularly authoritative inheritance of ideas and power relations through time
