Remembering Bradman:

Remembering Bradman Margaret Geddes, 2003 Despite all the words written about him Sir Donald Bradman has long been something of an enigma A prisoner of his own fame he valued his privacy more than anything else yet as a point of honour answered every letter he received Only after his death could his diverse friends and colleagues feel free to share their personal reminiscences of the world's greatest batsman In his life both within and beyond cricket Bradman's foibles and obsessive pursuit of perfection are revealed as well as his private moments seemingly at odds with his public persona

Don Bradman Brett Hutchins, 2002-09-23 This fascinating book takes a different look at Australia's all time sporting hero Sir Donald Bradman Bradman Revisited A. L. Shillinglaw, 2013-09-09 Published in 2003 Bradman Revisited sold out as the first analysis of his batting technique to be supported by science Further research has necessitated this update We conclude Bradman's boyhood game with golf ball and stump which evolved naturally into his Continuous Rotary Batting Process was the foundation to his success

Harold Larwood Duncan Hamilton, 2017-02-02 Winner of the William Hill Sports Book of the Year this is the first ever biography of Harold Larwood Larwood one of the most talented accurate and intimidating fast bowlers of all time is mainly remembered for his role in the infamous Bodyline series of 1932-3 which brought Anglo Australian diplomatic relations to the brink of collapse Larwood was made the scapegoat and despite the fact he was simply following his captain's instructions he never played cricket for England again Devastated by this betrayal he eventually emigrated to Australia where he was accepted by the country that had once despised him Acclaimed author Duncan Hamilton has gained unprecedented access to the late sportsman's family and archives to tell the story of a true working class hero and cricketing legend Playing on the Periphery Tara Brabazon, 2006-04-18 This is a very distinctive text that will stand out from the standard more staid works in sport studies This is a sophisticated text that will appeal to the maturing readership in the area looking for new perspectives on sport Tara Brabazon is very well known in Australia both in academia and as a journalist Other texts in this area are all edited collections

Art, Mind, and Narrative Julian Dodd, 2016 This volume presents new essays on art mind and narrative inspired by the work of the late Peter Goldie Topics covered include the role of narrative thinking in our lives the nature of our imaginative engagement with fiction the emotions and their role in motivating action and the nature of conceptual art The Visual in Sport Mike Huggins, Mike O'Mahony, 2013-10-18 This comprehensive novel and exciting interdisciplinary collection brings together leading international authorities from the history of sport social history art history film history design history cultural studies and related fields to explore the ways in which visual culture has shaped and continues to impact upon our understanding of sport as an integral element within popular culture Visual representations of sport have previously been little examined and under exploited by historians with little focused and rigorous scrutiny of these vital historical documents This study seeks to redress this balance by engaging with a wide variety of cultural products ranging from sports stadia and monuments in the public arena to paintings prints photographs posters stamps design artefacts films and political cartoons By examining the contexts of both the production and reception of this historical evidence and highlighting the multiple meanings and social significance of this body of work the collection provides original powerful and stimulating insights into the ways in which visual material assists our knowledge and understanding of sport This collection will facilitate researchers publishers and others with an interest in sport to move beyond traditional text based scholarship and appreciate the powerful imagery of sport in new ways This book was previously published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport

The Great Romantic Duncan Hamilton, 2019-07-25 Neville Cardus described how one majestic stroke maker made music and spread beauty with his bat Between two world wars he became the laureate of cricket by doing the same with words In The Great Romantic award winning author Duncan Hamilton demonstrates how Cardus changed sports journalism for ever While popularising cricket while appealing in Cardus words to people who didn't know a leg break from the pavilion cat at Lord's he became a star in his own right with exquisite phrase making disdain for statistics and a penchant for literary and musical allusions Among those who venerated Cardus were PG Wodehouse John Arlott Harold Pinter JB Priestley and Don Bradman However behind the rhapsody in blue skies green grass and colourful characters this richly evocative biography finds that Cardus' mother was a prostitute he never knew his father and he received negligible education Infatuations with younger women ran parallel to a decidedly unromantic marriage And astonishingly the supreme stylist's aversion to factual accuracy led to his reporting on matches he never attended Yet Cardus also belied his impoverished origins to prosper in a second class conscious profession becoming a music critic of international renown The Great Romantic uncovers the dark enigma within a golden age The Bulletin, 2006 The Promise of Endless Summer The Daily Telegraph, 2013-04-04

Whenever an august figure departs the world of cricket The Daily Telegraph records a decorous tribute There will certainly be an obituary in days of yore penned by the doyen of cricket writers E W Swanton in recent times unafraid to be a lot more whimsical waspish and even extremely funny There will often be an appreciation by one of the paper's stable of cricket correspondents such as Derek Pringle Michael Henderson or Scyld Berry most likely drawing on their memories of having played against the subject or watched his deeds And sometimes a hero's demise will prompt a heartfelt tribute from someone whose only qualification as an elegist is their own eloquence as John Major displays on Denis Compton and Michael Parkinson on Keith Miller And those cricket lives deemed worthy of memorialising need not be illustrious Test careers though all the great names from Bradman to Bedser Cowdrey to D Oliviera are here They can also be quixotic county mavericks like Bomber Wells self-effacing professionals like Tom Cartwright and Derek Shackleton or charismatic one-offs like Colin Milburn or the Nawab of Pataudi They may not even be cricketers but rather much loved commentators and broadcasters like Brian Johnston and Christopher Martin Jenkins players turned umpires like David Shepherd and Bill Alley or like the Bishop of Liverpool who previously opened for Sussex and England have made their name equally elsewhere Their achievements are often hymned by their peers Mark Nicholas on his Hampshire team mate Malcolm Marshall Tony Lewis on John Arlott Colin Croft on Alf Valentine and Simon Hughes on facing the fearsome Sylvester Clarke Here then are more than eighty greats of the game Australians and South Africans alongside Somerset yeomen and Yorkshire's finest For any cricket lover this little book is an endlessly browsable testament to the sheer richness and variety of the cricketing life
