Clifford's traveling cultures central to analyses of contemporary global culture Engaging initially with Victor Segalen's early twentieth century reflection on travel and exoticism and Albert Kahn's Archives de la Plan te Forsdick goes on to examine a series of interrelated texts and phenomena early African travel narratives inter war ethnography post war accounts of Citro n 2CV journeys the travel stories of immigrant workers the work of Nicholas Bouvier and the Pour une litt rature voyageuse movement narratives of recent walking journeys and contemporary Polynesian literature In delineating a francophone space stretching far beyond metropolitan France itself the book contributes to new understandings of French and Francophone Studies and will also be of interest to those interested in issues of comparatism as well as colonial and postcolonial culture and identity

Michel Conan, Dumbarton Oaks, 2007 This book unites new information and surprising results from the last fifteen years of garden research at a remove from the clichés of Orientalism Garden archaeology reveals the economic importance of Judean gardens in Roman times and the visual complexity of gardens created and transformed in Moorish Spain More contemporary approaches unravel the cultural continuities variations and differences between gardens in the Middle East since Roman times and in the Islamic world

Pausanias : Travel and Memory in Roman Greece Pausanias, 2001-08-16 Pausanias the Greek historian and traveler lived and wrote around the second century AD during the period when Greece had fallen peacefully to the Roman Empire While fragments from this period abound Pausanias Periegesis description of Greece is the only fully preserved text of travel writing to have survived This collection uses Pausanias as a multifaceted lens yielding indispensable information about the cultural world of Roman Greece

Performance and Appropriation Michel Conan, 2007 Breaking with the idea that gardens are places of indulgence and escapism these studies of ritualized practices reveal that gardens in Europe Asia the United States and the Caribbean have in fact made significant contributions to cultural change This book demonstrates methods and the striking results of garden reception studies The first section explores how cultural changes occur and devotes chapters to public landscapes in the Netherlands seventeenth century Parisian gardens Freemason gardens in Tuscany nineteenth century Scottish kitchen gardens and the public parks of Edo and modern Tokyo The second part provides striking examples of construction of self in vernacular gardens in Guadeloupe and American Japanese style gardens in California Finally the third section analyzes struggles for political change in gardens of Yuan China and modern Britain

Journeys of Remembrance Kathryn N. Jones, 2007 The Second World War was a common experience of cultural and historical rupture for many European countries but studies of this period and its after images often remain locked in national frameworks Jones comparative study of national memory cultures argues for a more nuanced view of responses to shared issues of remembrance Focusing on the 1960s and 1970s two decades of great change and debate in French and German discourses of memory it investigates literary representations of the Second World War and in particular the Holocaust from France and both Germanies The study encompasses thirteen works representing a variety of genres and divergent perspectives and authors include Jorge Semprun Peter Weiss Georges Perec and Bernhard Vesper Addressing the underlying theme of travel as a means of exploring the past it contrasts the journeys made by deportees and post war visitors to the camps with the use of the literary device

Designing a Garden Michael Van Valkenburgh, 2019-10-15 The intimate Monk's Garden at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum in Boston embodies the design principles that inform the work of noted landscape architect Michael Van Valkenburgh In Designing a Garden Van Valkenburgh presents the design of the Monk's Garden at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum an intimate walled garden that Laurie Olin has described as a masterpiece and not a minor one The book documents the evolution of the garden's design which is based on the concept of meandering paths through a dreamlike woodland to create a contemplative space Sketches and models show how the idea was worked out and lush photographs reveal the completed garden through the seasons Van Valkenburgh's text explores the origins of his love of landscape and plants in his family farm in Upstate New York and how this has influenced his intuitions as a designer He shares the full background story of the Monk's Garden focusing on the experimental nature of design work as well as the challenges and satisfactions of the small scale and the historic and cultural context Designing a Garden provides a unique first person account of the design process from the most prominent landscape architects in the country
