Remembering Tomorrow:

The Collected Sermons of Fred B. Craddock Fred B. Craddock, 2011-04-04 This collection of more than fifty of Fred Craddock's sermons provides a glimpse of a master preacher at work. Amazingly only one of the sermons was preached from a manuscript written in advance as Craddock considered a sermon to be an event in the world of sound. As a result the selections here wonderfully reflect and preserve Craddock's voice and engage readers with all the immediacy of the spoken word.

Songs from a San Diego Morning C. A. Lindsay, 2009-11-20 In this volume C. A. Lindsay captures the spirit of San Diego County which includes a military community and broad geographic diversity. Her poetry touches the human soul in poems that were inspired by life including the grief she suffered in the loss of her husband and 16 year old daughter. Lindsay's poetry has gained recognition in both literary. Old Hickory Review, The Kit Cat Review, Mobius as well as commercial Leatherneck Magazine of the Marines, USA Today, The Poet's Pen publications. An award winning poet she had been selected as Poet of the Week for Poetry Express and The Poetry Super Highway. She won Editor's Choice Award and Poet of the Quarter from Dr. Charles Cravy, President of the Society of American Poets. Georgia Lindsay's poetry has also been included in month long juried art shows in San Diego County Performing Arts Centers.

Trickbox of Memory Felicitas Macgilchrist, Rosalie Metro, 2020 Reach into this trickbox of memory and rummage around you may find a tiny spaceship or perhaps a signpost, a parade, a raised fist, an entire museum. The essays in Trickbox of Memory Essays on Power and Disorderly Past draw on literary criticism, post qualitative inquiry, new materialism and political activism to dismember and reanimate the field of memory studies. In the trickbox concepts rub up against each other, pieces chip off, things leak, glitter gets everywhere. Things are damaged, their edges are ragged. Some show the potential for repair in the future. The chapters in this volume respond to the observation that in today's moment of political danger, expected pasts can easily be instrumentalized in the service of fascism. Trickbox of Memory interrupts the expected to throw history into disarray by focusing on the subtlety of how power relations are enacted and contested in reference to the past, assembling a transnational constellation of scholars and practitioners who offer new tricks for working critically with disorderly pasts.

Wolf, 2017-09-14 Over more than twenty years as a mediator Aaron T Wolf has learned that successful conflict resolution is shaped by complicated dynamics from how comfortable the meeting room is to the participants' deepest senses of self Bridging seemingly intractable issues means addressing multiple layers of needs Wolf's approach may be surprising to Westerners who are accustomed to separating rationality from spirituality and science from religion The Spirit of Dialogue draws lessons from a diversity of faith traditions to transform conflict from identifying the root cause of anger to aligning with an energy beyond oneself what Christians call grace to the true listening practiced by Buddhist monks Whether atheist or fundamentalist Muslim or Jewish Quaker or Hindu any reader involved in difficult dialogue will find concrete steps towards a meeting of souls

The Lost Promise Ellen Schrecker, 2021-12-17 The Lost Promise is a magisterial examination of the turmoil that rocked American universities in the 1960s with a unique focus on the complex roles played by professors as well as students The 1950s through the early 1970s are widely seen as American academia's golden age when universities well funded and viewed as essential for national security economic growth and social mobility embraced an egalitarian mission Swelling in size schools attracted new types of students and professors including radicals who challenged their institutions' calcified traditions But that halcyon moment soon came to a painful and confusing end with consequences that still afflict the halls of ivy In The Lost Promise Ellen Schrecker our foremost historian of both the McCarthy era and the modern American university delivers a far reaching examination of how and why it happened Schrecker illuminates how US universities' explosive growth intersected with the turmoil of the 1960s fomenting an unprecedented crisis where dissent over racial inequality and the Vietnam War erupted into direct action Torn by internal power struggles and demonized by conservative voices higher education never fully recovered resulting in decades of underfunding and today's woefully inequitable system As Schrecker's magisterial history makes blazingly clear the complex blend of troubles that disrupted the university in that pivotal period haunts the ivory tower to this day
