

Journal of Italian Cinema & Media Studies (JICMS)

Volume 2 Number 1 2013

AIMS AND SCOPE

The Journal of Italian Cinema & Media Studies (JICMS) is a fully peer-reviewed English language journal which explores Italian cinema and media as sites of crossing, allowing critical discussion of the work of filmmakers/artists in the film industry and media professionals. The journal intends to foster a critical discussion on the subject, explore new directions and accepted cinema, and examine Italy as a geo-cultural focal for contemporary debate on translocal cinema.

CALL FOR PAPERS

JICMS invites submissions of scholarly articles relating to the artistic features, cultural themes, international influence and history of Italian film and media as art forms and industries. The journal welcomes contributions which explore the impact of globalization on the Italian film industry, the encounters between cinema and other art forms, the hybridisation of film and media aesthetics, the relationships of multimodal communication and inter-medial practices, and the development of innovative transmedia texts and cross-media narratives.

JICMS also invites submissions that examine experimental cinema, video art, short films, long short feature and documentary animation, original and adapted screenplays, film music (score and scores), issues of stardom and reception studies. The professional contributions of screenplay writers, art directors, cinematographers, film editors, costume designers and make-up artists are also potential subject areas for submissions.

The Journal of Italian Cinema & Media Studies is published three times a year by Intellect Ltd, the Manchester-based publisher of the journal. It is published online and in print. All the content is available online only, and HTML files (downloadable in print and online) are available on the journal's website at www.jicms.org and on the journal's website.
