a profound expression of humanitarian ideals Readers are invited to delve into this remarkable compendium to embrace the enduring power of Tolstoy's thought provoking narratives Whether exploring the moral complexities in War and Peace or reflecting on the intimate struggles in his short stories this collection is indispensable for those seeking to understand the intricate dynamics of human nature and the philosophical underpinnings of modern society Tolstoy Henri Troyat, 2001 A biography of nineteenth century Russian novelist Leo Tolstoy discussing his childhood and youth his stint in the military his discovery of Europe his relationships and his writing Reminiscences of Tolstoy Count Tolstoy, 2017-11-23 Reminiscences of Tolstoy by his Son Count Ilya Tolstoy Count Lev Nikolayevich Tolstoy 9 September 1828 20 November 1910 usually referred to in English as Leo Tolstoy was a Russian writer who is regarded as one of the greatest authors of all time Born to an aristocratic Russian family in 1828 he is best known for the novels War and Peace 1869 and Anna Karenina 1877 often cited as pinnacles of realist fiction He first achieved literary acclaim in his twenties with his semi autobiographical trilogy Childhood Boyhood and Youth 1852 1856 and Sevastopol Sketches 1855 based upon his experiences in the Crimean War Tolstoy's fiction includes dozens of short stories and several novellas such as The Death of Ivan Ilyich Family Happiness and Hadji Murad He also wrote plays and numerous philosophical essays IN one of his letters to his great aunt Alexandra Andreyevna Tolstoy my father gives the following description of his children The eldest Sergei is fair haired and good looking there is something weak and patient in his expression and very gentle His laugh is not infectious but when he cries I can hardly refrain from crying too Every one says he is like my eldest brother I am afraid to believe it It is too good to be true My brother's chief characteristic was neither egotism nor self renunciation but a strict mean between the two He never sacrificed himself for any one else but not only always avoided injuring others but also interfering with them He kept his happiness and his sufferings entirely to himself Reminiscences of Leo Nicolayevitch Tolstoi Maksim Gorky, James Zimmerhoff, 2017-08-16 I The thought which beyond others most often and conspicuously gnaws at him is the thought of God At moments it seems indeed not to be a thought but a violent resistance to something which he feels above him He speaks of it less than he would like but thinks of it always It can scarcely be said to be a sign of old age a presentiment of death no I think that it comes from his exquisite human pride and a bit from a sense of humiliation for being Leo Tolstoy it is humiliating to have to submit one's will to a streptococcus If he were a scientist he would certainly evolve the most ingenious hypotheses make great discoveries II H3e has wonderful hands not beautiful but knotted with swollen veins and yet full of a singular expressiveness and the power of creativeness Probably Leonardo da Vinci had hands like that With such hands one can do anything Sometimes when talking he will move his fingers gradually close them into a fist and then suddenly opening them utter a good full weight word He is like a god not a Sabaoth or Olympian but the kind of Russian god who sits on a maple throne under a golden lime tree not very majestic but perhaps more cunning than all the other gods III He treats Sulerzhizky with the tenderness of a woman For Tchekhov his love is paternal in this love is the feeling of the pride of a creator Suler

rouses in him just tenderness a perpetual interest and rapture which never seems to weary the sorcerer Perhaps there is something a little ridiculous in this feeling like the love of an old maid for a parrot a pug dog or a tom cat Suler is a fascinatingly wild bird from some strange unknown land A hundred men like him could change the face as well as the soul of a provincial town Its face they would smash and its soul they would fill with a passion for riotous brilliant headstrong wildness One loves Suler easily and gaily and when I see how carelessly women accept him they surprise and anger me Yet under this carelessness is hidden perhaps caution Suler is not reliable What will he do to morrow He may throw a bomb or he may join a troupe of public house minstrels He has energy enough for three life times and fire of life so much that he seems to sweat sparks like over heated iron

Gorky's Tolstoy & Other Reminiscences Maksim Gorky, 2008-01-01 Maxim Gorky 1868-1936 enjoyed worldwide fame of a kind unmatched by that of any other writer in the first half of the twentieth century. Prodigiously gifted and prolific, riddled with contradictions, praised increasingly for political rather than literary reasons, he left a vast body of writing that contains acknowledged masterpieces alongside many currently neglected works that still await impartial assessment. Taken together, the pieces in this book, many of them based on fuller texts than those of previously published translations, present a surprising and unfamiliar Gorky, a figure who once the clichés are stripped away from him becomes ever more fascinating and enigmatic as man, as writer, and as historical figure. Among the volume's selections are portraits of Gorky by four particularly astute observers: poet Vladislav Khodasevich, critics Boris Eikhenbaum and Georgy Adamovich, and novelist Evgeny Zamyatin. Fanger's generous annotations and brilliant introduction will make this book indispensable to every reader with an interest in Tolstoy, Gorky, modern Russian literature and politics, or the art of the memoir.

The Journal of Leo Tolstoy (First Volume—1895-1899) graf Leo Tolstoy, 2019-11-21 In The Journal of Leo Tolstoy: First Volume 1895-1899, readers are invited into the intimate thoughts of one of literature's most profound figures during a pivotal period of his life. This volume, written in Tolstoy's characteristic introspective style, blends deep philosophical musings with reflections on art, faith, and the human condition. Within its pages, Tolstoy grapples with the complexities of morality and his quest for authenticity, providing a vivid literary testament to his spiritual and personal evolution in the context of late 19th-century Russia, a time marked by rapid social change and philosophical inquiry. Leo Tolstoy, revered as both a novelist and moral philosopher, crafted this journal during a transformative phase after the enormous success of titles like War and Peace and Anna Karenina. His growing disillusionment with materialism and his exploration of spiritual and social issues drove him to document his inner turmoil and philosophical explorations. The journal thus serves as a chronicle of an artist's struggle to reconcile his literary legacy with his yearning for a more profound, fulfilling existence. For those interested in Tolstoy's philosophical inquiries or the intersection of literature and personal introspection, this journal is essential reading. It offers not only a glimpse into the mind of a literary giant but also serves as a guidepost for anyone navigating the complexities of life, morality, and creativity.
