Marmor, 1983 This book stems from Marmor's conviction that political science can provide answers to questions regarding the role of government in medical care Primary Care and Home Care Scenarios 1990-2005 Steering Committee on Future Health Scenarios, 2012-12-06 CARE AT HOME HOME CARE Health care in the Netherlands looks to be a well structured system Supplementing the vital level of self care and informal care are four levels of professional care the public health service known in the Netherlands as basic health care is mainly concerned with preventive work aimed at the population at large individuals with problems can contact their general practitioner or other primary care provider who can depending on the problem refer them to specialists in the cure oriented and hospital centred secondary sector where necessary patients can then be referred on to the institutions of the tertiary sector with their role in mainly long term care On paper this pyramidal structure appears to work well in practice and in particular where complex forms of care are involved the boundaries become blurred Medical advances and social and economic developments may delay death to ever greater ages but disease is not defeated and since the risk of developing chronic conditions rises with age more and more people become incapacitated and those who do remain so for longer This leads to a growing demand for care and compels us to reconsider patterns of provision The need for such reconsideration is reinforced by users changing needs and aspirations as patients increasingly wish to be nursed and cared for in their own surroundings if at all possible Technological advances mean that wish can often be accommodated Health Care Financing Review, 1991 OECD Economic Surveys: Slovenia 2020 OECD, 2020-07-20 Slovenia acted swiftly to contain the COVID 19 outbreak Despite extensive fiscal measures the economic impact is severe with a recession in 2020 The economic recovery should pick up but a new outbreak could lead to higher long term unemployment and lower growth Journal of the Royal Society of Medicine Royal Society of Medicine (Great Britain), 1992 Includes selected papers from meetings of the Society and of its sections Medical Care Systems in Industrialised Countries United States.
