The Korean Diaspora in Post War Japan Myung Ja Kim, 2017-05-30 The indistinct status of the Zainichi has meant that since the late 1940s two ethnic Korean associations the Chongryun pro North and the Mindan pro South have been vying for political loyalty from the Zainichi with both groups initially opposing their assimilation in Japan Unlike the Korean diasporas living in Russia China or the US the Zainichi have become sharply divided along political lines as a result Myung Ja Kim examines Japan s changing national policies towards the Zainichi in order to understand why this group has not been fully integrated into Japan Through the prism of this ethnically Korean community
