Sydney & the Old Girl Eugene O'Hare, 2020-01-08 London is becoming an alien landscape to Sydney Stock a man who has lived for over fifty years cooped with his mother Nell in her grubby East End home Theirs is a relationship of mutually assured destruction where the ghosts of the past continue to stalk and accuse As the twisted game around family inheritance reaches breaking point Irish care worker Marion Fee finds herself an unwitting pawn being played from both sides At the centre of Eugene O Hare s second full length black comedy is a family s obsession with versions of the past and a paranoia about a future in a city which no longer feels like home This edition was published to coincide with the world premiere at Park Theatre London in November 2019

William the Conqueror David Bates, 2016-11-01 Fifteen years in the making a landmark reinterpretation of the life of a pivotal figure in British and European history In this magisterial addition to the Yale English Monarchs series David Bates combines biography and a multidisciplinary approach to examine the life of a major figure in British and European history Using a framework derived from studies of early medieval kingship he assesses each phase of William s life to establish why so many trusted William to invade England in 1066 and the consequences of this on the history of the so called Norman Conquest after the Battle of Hastings and for generations to come A leading historian of the period Bates is notable for having worked extensively in the archives of northern France and discovered many eleventh and twelfth century charters largely unnoticed by English language scholars Taking an innovative approach he argues for a move away from old perceptions and controversies associated with William s life and the Norman Conquest This deeply researched volume is the scholarly biography for our generation

The Human Right to Water: Justice . . . or Sham? Evelyne Fiechter-Widemann, 2017-05-05 Water is a matter of life and death Advanced technology and engineering enable humans to gain better access to it Nonetheless the conditions and effort required to reach this goal remain colossal in many countries Building a lasting infrastructure for adequate treatment before and after use is costly Therefore the author believes that a radical change of thinking among people around the world from the domestic to the large scale users becomes a priority Even if the United Nations entitles all people to justice for water more responsible and ethical use of it by all interested parties is more important than the spreading of promises which in practice may turn out to be a sham Only a better understanding that access to water rests on the efforts of everyone without exception will reduce overuse waste and pollution of the indispensable resource This volume while written from a theological philosophical and legal perspective focusing on John Calvin John Rawls and Paul Ricoeur demonstrates that water cannot be merely understood as a human right but also has to be dealt with from an economic point of view as well as under the authority of the Golden Rule The English Catalogue of Books [annual] Sampson Low,1927 Vols for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers The Pioneers of Massachusetts Charles Henry Pope,1900 A descriptive list drawn from records of the colonies towns and churches and other contemporaneous documents Youth Gangs, Racism, and Schooling Kevin D. Lam,2015-09-01 Winner of the American Educational Studies Association 2016 Critics Choice Book Award Youth Gangs Racism and Schooling examines the formation of Vietnamese American youth gangs in Southern California Lam addresses the particularities of racism violence and schooling in an era of anti youth legislation and frames gang members as post colonial subjects offering an alternative analysis toward humanization and decolonization The Publications of the Surrey Parish Register Society Surrey Parish Register Society,1908
