Long Term Care Crisis Elders Trapped In The No Care Zone:

Caring for Our Elders Patricia Kolb, 2003-10-01 Almost forty percent of American adults age sixty five and over spend some time in a nursing home and residents in nursing homes will be increasingly diverse racially and ethnically because of changing demographics The decision to place a family member in a nursing home is often extremely difficult especially when the family belongs to a group with a strong tradition of filial responsibility Despite these realities little has been written about the stresses families of diverse cultural backgrounds experience in making this challenging decision This book describes the experiences of seventy five African American and Afro Caribbean white Jewish and Latina o residents and their relatives and friends who have been their caregivers Integrating original qualitative research with quantitative data and theoretical perspectives and findings from other studies Patricia Kolb not only presents new perspectives on how caregiving varies across racial and ethnic backgrounds but also dispels numerous stereotypes about nursing home placement among diverse groups

Social Policy and Aging Carroll L. Estes, 2001-03-30 This groundbreaking book provides a comprehensive treatment of the political economy of aging From the founder and key thinker in the field comes a work that aims to contribute to the understanding of old age and aging in the context of problems and issues of the larger social order in America Since Carroll Estes first writing on the political economy of aging in 1979 there has been growing recognition and incorporation of her critical perspective as one of the major paradigms in the field of aging The only comprehensive book length treatment of the subject Social Policy and Aging addresses the globalization of capital and developments in health care restructuring Combining social gerontological theory and major theoretical advances in work on the welfare state this text keeps readers abreast of the new development within the discipline Students and researchers alike will appreciate this critical perspective widely acknowledged as one of the major paradigms in the field of aging Ed Family and Aging Policy

Francis G. Caro, 2014-05-01 Learn how public policies can help families provide the care their elderly relatives need Family and Aging Policy examines how public initiatives to assist the elderly in the United States Canada Singapore Denmark and Sweden can impact families who provide them with long term care For the majority of older people the aging experience involves their families directly and indirectly affecting income security housing and health care This unique book addresses the aging issues that matter most to families struggling to deal with the demands of care giving and provides answers on how the public sector can help As the traditional nuclear family becomes a memory and the notion of extended family disappears the need for public interventions to help the elderly increases A significant number of people grow old without families they can depend on Others have families who want to help but lack the financial means or the housing needed to provide care Family and Aging Policy offers options on how families and formal services can share responsibilities including how families can juggle jobs and care giving the effects of the Family and Medical Leave Act consumer directed service options community based care programs accessory dwelling units and zoning ordinances and provisions for caregiver support in each of the 50 United States and the District of Columbia Family and Aging Policy examines extensive welfare programs in Sweden publicly funded home care programs in Denmark family oriented social policies in Singapore shared responsibilities of families and formal services in Canada the Administration on Aging's National Family Caregiver Support program in the United States California Caregiver Resource Centers and much more Family and Aging Policy is an invaluable tool for researchers and policy analysts working in family policy issues and as an essential supplemental text for course work in gerontology sociology family relations and social work Health Care Financing Review, 1994 Equity and Efficiency Policy in Community Care Bleddyn Davies, José Fernández, 2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2000 Equity and Efficiency Policy provides a completely new perspective on post reform community care analyzes its fairness effectiveness and efficiency in a new way and uses its powerful new techniques applied to a major national collection of evidence to suggest how to develop the Modernization Agenda It describes for the first time how differences in the levels of each of the main services alone and in combination affect a wide range of user and carer benefits uses this knowledge to analyze in a new way and make policy proposals about some of the pressing policy issues of the government's Modernization Agenda

Social Problems Norman Allan Dolch, Linda Bell Deutschmann, Helen K. Wise, 2007-01-01 Social Problems explores the consequences of symbolic interactionism in society a theory which contends that people attach meanings to symbols such as language or gestures and base their behaviors on their interpretations of these meanings Norman A Dolch Linda Deutschmann and Helen Powell compile a number of critical and innovative essays that explore different aspects of society including mental illness race relations terrorism and family life Caring and Competent Caregivers Robert Moroney, 1998 Chronic health conditions are the leading cause of illness disability and death in the United States today affecting nearly one hundred million citizens These conditions cost the economy more than 470 billion a year in direct medical costs and more than 230 billion in lost productivity While Americans pride themselves on living in a caring country society as a whole has not fully prepared for the many challenges presented by chronic illness This timely book illustrates the caregiving needs to be faced in the next century Written by individuals associated with the National Quality Caregiving Coalition NQCC of the Rosalynn Carter Institute Caring and Competent Caregivers is a foundation book for use by academicians conducting professional training programs diverse health care and social service providers on the front lines providing assistance to others and students entering the field Incorporating philosophy social science research and impressionistic evidence this book provides a basis for education and practice that is both inspirational and practical

Critical Gerontology Comes of Age Chris Wellin, 2018-05-01 Critical Gerontology Comes of Age reflects on how baby boomers caretakers and health professionals are perceiving and adapting to historical social political and cultural changes that call into question prior assumptions about aging and life progression Through an exploration of earlier and later life stages and the dynamic changes in intergenerational relations chapter authors reexamine the research methods and scope of critical gerontology a multidisciplinary field that speaks to the experiences of life in the 21st century Topics include Medicare privatization of home care incarceration outreach to LGBTQ elders migration and chronic illness Grounded in innovative research and case studies this volume reflects multiple perspectives and is accessible to lay readers advanced undergraduates and graduate students and professionals in many fields Young V. Old Susan Macmanus, 2018-02-12

Arguing that an inter generational war is brewing in the United States this book paints a picture of the ageing of America and what it means for politics and policy questions including social security health care crime jobs social welfare defence and foreign affairs Differences between older and younger citizens are examined in the light of voting and registration patterns ideological and party preferences and varieties of political activism Contemporary media and new technologies are highlighted as sources of disparities and bridges between the generations how they watch politics how they prefer to solve social problems and how inter generational understanding may be improved through communication and education

Health Policy Charlene Harrington, Carroll Estes, 2008 The Fifth Edition of this best selling health policy text is updated with a collection of new articles on various health policies Health Policy provides a basic overview of the health policy and political process as it relates to the health status of the US the organization and issues of the healthcare system and healthcare economics
