This non-fiction book takes the reader into the hopes, hardships, and tragedies of four generations of ambitious individuals connected by lineage and marriage. They emigrated to America from Norway, England, and the Isle of Man, seeking freedom and free lands offered by the federal Homestead Act. Settling in Wisconsin, Iowa, North Dakota, and Nebraska, they were challenged by economic humiliations, locust plagues, blizzards, prairie fires, accidents, and illness. There were good times too, like picnics, family bonding, and baseball. A source of hope for family members in difficult times was their belief in Seventh-day Adventism, a rapidly growing Christian denomination. They were sustained by their belief in an imminent Second Coming of Christ to earth, during which they would be taken to a safe and everlasting heaven. Author T. Joe Willey based his stories on research from old newspapers, letters, and other publications of the time, using historical methodology, not as a religious apologetic. The Long Way Around Rachel Norby, 2016-08-01. Just when things seem to be going well for Gina and for Brett, both of their worlds come crashing down around them. Gina loses her husband Andy to the monster called cancer. Brett loses his wife Kara unexpectedly to an unknown heart condition during a tumor removal surgery. Both are left with baby boys to care for and their faith to which they cling desperately. Luckily, the story doesn't end there. Gina's mother encourages her to contact Brett, figuring the two can help each other through their similar tragedies. When Gina decides to heed her mother's advice by sending a letter to Brett, little does she know that her letter of encouragement would begin a friendship and later spark a relationship rooted in faith, understanding, and hope. As Gina and Brett continue their correspondence, the reader watches a touching love story unfold where God brings beauty out of the ashes. The long way to immortality, walking with beauty Karen Lee, 2019-07-11. My family is very poor. In order to supplement the family income, I sell fruits downstairs of the school.

dormitory after school every day Many girls are my regular customers I usually start selling at six o'clock and close the stall to go home at eight o'clock This period is also the peak time for girls to buy fruits On Wednesday I don't know if it was because the shop was open late or what but there were not many people around and there was no business after 7:30 I was sitting at the stall feeling bored when my phone suddenly rang

It's a long way to happy...A Memoir Samantha-Jane Eddison, 2014-09-05 The story of the survival of a little girl who was born to an indifferent narcissistic mother and a violent alcoholic father a child that wasn't wanted by her mother neither before nor after she was born It was a miracle that she made it into the world Then the story of the family history that paves the way to the body of the book accounts of the family in the depression during the early 30s and the account of the tragedies they suffered From abandonment at a young age straight into the wrong relationship and onto extremely abusive marriage which led to disastrous consequences On to dealing with her husband's family who were steeped in historical abuse and equally as abusive to her The challenges she faced with her children with the high court trials and having to fight the government for her children she fought for justice and just fought to survive both physically and emotionally and then commence damage control On and into the arms of a dangerous cult and the final realisation that this was not where she wanted to be The story is filled with anecdotes of humor scattered through its pages to bring the reader back from the depth of despair and smiling if for only a moment until the story continues Would this lost little girl ever find happiness or the love that she so desperately craved This is a story of survival a story of triumph over adversity and a struggle against all odds Authors website <http://www.itsalongwaytohappy.com> Authors Facebook page <https://www.facebook.com/Its.a.long.way.to.happy> A Memoir by Samantha Jane Eddison 1607430172817386 ref bookmarks qsefr 1
