

"It's not as well known as it should be that artists Francis Bacon and Norman Rockwell had a gay love affair in the Chelsea Hotel and gave birth to the soul of Peter Crowther. His stories travel the blue highways of the heart into that America we all grew up loving but can no longer recognize. There's nostalgia and genuine affection in his tales of quiet and painful horror, told with the gleeful malice of a whisper couched in an electric chair. Very strong, human, often moving and frequently disturbing. He tells a wave of words a million years deep and that wave shows no sign of breaking... yet it runs!"
