Looking Into The Abyss:

The Bridge at the Edge of the World James Gustave Speth, 2008-01-01 Presents an analysis of modern capitalism and its impact on the global environmental crises and discusses how the transformation of current economic and political systems can lead to environmental sustainability

Types of Interpretation in the Aesthetic Disciplines Staffan Carlshamre, Anders Pettersson, 2003 Types of Interpretation in the Aesthetic Disciplines begins from the observation that interpretation even the special kind represented by interpretation of the arts is not a homogeneous activity The many different types of such interpretation vary with respect to objectives and criteria of adequacy and attempts to explain art interpretation in terms of a single unified logic are therefore bound to fail Five Swedish scholars and theorists from different disciplines literary studies philosophy and art history discuss the multiplicity of principles of interpretation and provide a descriptive analysis of the concept of interpretation itself that clarifies the main features of the rationale underlying the interpretation of literature and the arts Their discussion provides a much needed bridge between analytical aesthetics and theoretical discussion within the individual aesthetic disciplines The introduction and concluding remarks by the editors provide both a frame for discussion of the issues and a historical perspective on the debates about interpretation

Sex In The Head Linda R. Williams, 2016-07-01 In Sex in the Head Linda Ruth Williams uses psychoanalysis and recent feminist film theory to analyze a network of ideas which link looking with sexuality and difference in the work of a writer who disavowed yet covertly enjoyed the pleasures and power of vision The book is a departure from the long history of feminist readings of Lawrence in that it discusses his engagement with theories of the gaze and its cultural forms cinema photography painting and the visual dynamics and metaphors of literary texts as a way of thinking through gender It shows him arguing on the one hand against the evils of cinema and visual sex while relishing through the eyes of women the moving spectacle of those male bodies which populate the pages of his books It also questions what it is about the work of such an adamant cinephobe which has made it so thoroughly adaptable for film and television

Looking In the Distance Richard Holloway, 2009-08-06 Spirituality like morality has historically been tied to religion and yet it is possible for one to exist without the other In this meditative and highly personal account Richard Holloway considers the nature of the spiritual and what it means to live with the inevitability of death Both celebration of the possibilities that life affords and an examination of how doubts and fears too often paralyse especially as we age Looking in the Distance is an inspiration told with the compassion and good humour characteristic of its author

The Wolf in the Parlor Jon Franklin, 2009-09-01 A man and puppy exhumed from a 12 000 year old grave sends a two time Pulitzer Prize winning science writer on a journey to the dogs Of all the things hidden in plain sight dogs are one of the most enigmatic They are everywhere but how much do we really know about where they came from and what the implications are of their place in our world Jon Franklin set out to find out and ended up spending a decade studying the origins and significance of the dog and its peculiar attachment to humans As the intellectual pursuit of his subject began to take over Franklin's life he married a dog lover and was quickly introduced to the ancient and powerful law of nature to wit Love me love my dog Soon Franklin was sharing hearth and home with a soulful and clever poodle named Charlie And so began one man's journey to the dogs an odyssey that would take him from a 12 000 year old grave to a conclusion so remarkable as to change our perception of ourselves Building on evolutionary science archaeology behavioral science and the firsthand experience of watching his own dog evolve from puppy to family member Franklin posits that man and dog are more than just inseparable they are part and parcel of the same creature Along the way The Wolf in the Parlor imparts a substantial yet painless education on subjects as far ranging as psychological evolution and neurochemistry In this groundbreaking book master storyteller Franklin shatters the lens through which we see the world and shows us an unexpected enthralling picture of the human canine relationship I Lost My Love in Baghdad Michael
