Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience Richard Sharpley, 2021-11-17 Routledge Handbook of the Tourist Experience offers a comprehensive synthesis of contemporary research on the tourist experience It draws together multidisciplinary perspectives from leading tourism scholars to explore emergent tourist behaviours and motivations This handbook provides up to date critical discussions of established and emergent themes and issues related to the tourist experience from a primarily socio cultural perspective It opens with a detailed introduction which lays down the framework used to examine the dynamic parameters of the tourist experience Organised into five thematic sections chapters seek to build and enhance knowledge and understanding of the significance and meaning of diverse elements of the tourist experience Section 1 conceptualises and understands the tourist experience through an exploration of conventional themes such as tourism as authentic and spiritual experience as well as emerging themes such as tourism as an embodied experience Section 2 investigates the new developing tourist demands and motivations and a growing interest in the travel career Section 3 considers the significance motives practices and experiences of different types of tourists and their roles such as the tourist as photographer Section 4 discusses the relevance of place to the tourist experience by exploring the relationship between tourism and place The last section Section 5 scrutinises the role of the tourist in creating their experiences through themes such as transformations in the tourist role from passive receiver of experiences to co creator of experiences and external mediators in creating tourist experiences This handbook is the first to fill a notable gap in the tourism literature and collate within a single volume critical insights into the diverse elements of the tourist experience today It will be of key interest to academics and students across the fields of tourism hospitality management geography marketing and consumer behaviour     The Lord of the Rings Ernest Mathijs, 2006 Bringing together leading scholars in the fields of media and film studies to explore the various strategies and implications underlying the global presence of Lord of the Rings this book covers different national contexts and presents a lively and diverse combination of textual historical and empirical study

The Making of... Adaptation and the Cultural Imaginary Jan Cronin, 2019-11-25 This book explores Making of sites as a genre of cultural artefact Moving beyond making of documentaries the book analyses novels drama film museum exhibitions and popular studies that re present the making of culturally loaded film adaptations It argues that the Making of genre operates on an adaptive spectrum orienting towards and enacting the adaptation of films and their making The book examines the behaviours that characterise Making of sites across visual media it explores the cultural work done by these sites why recognition of Making of sites as adaptations matters and why our conception of adaptation matters Part one focuses on the adaptive domain presented by the Making of John Ford s The Quiet Man Part two attends to Making of Gone with the Wind sites and concludes with Making of The Lord of the Rings texts as the acme of the cultural risks and investments charted in earlier chapters

Locating Migrating Media Greg Elmer, Charles H. Davis, Janine Marchessault, John McCullough, 2012-07-10 Locating Migrating Media details the extent to which media productions both televisual and cinematic have sought out new and cheaper shot locations creative staff and financing around the world The book contributes to debates about media globalization focusing on the local impact of new sites of media production The book s chapters also question the role that film and television industries and local and regional governments play in broader economic develop and tax incentive schemes While metaphors of transportation mobility fluidity and change continue to serve as key concepts and frames for understanding contemporary media industries products and processes the essays in this book look to local spaces neighborhoods cultural workers and stories to ground the global that is to interrogate the effect of media globalization before during and after film and television shooting and onsite production By locating migrating media these chapters seek to determine the political economic and cultural conditions that produce contemporary forms of televisual and cinematic storytelling and how these processes affect the inhabitants the look and the very geopolitical future of local communities neighborhoods cities and regions The focus on relocated screen production highlights the act of film and television making both aesthetically and economically To locate migrating media is therefore to determine the political and cultural economies of globalized sets and stages be they in new studios or on city streets or perhaps most importantly in our imaginations

New Zealand Medievalism Anna Czarnowus, Janet M. Wilson, 2024-04-30 This volume maps the phenomenon of medievalism in Aotearoa initially as an import by the early white settler society and as a form of nation building that would reinforce Britishness and ancestral belonging This colonial narrative underpins the volume s focus on the imperial relationship in chapters on the academic study of the Middle Ages on medievalism in film and music in manuscript and book collections and colonial stained glass and architecture Through the alternative 21st century frameworks of a global

Middle Ages and Aotearoa's bicultural nationalism the volume also introduces Maori understandings of the ancestral past that parallel the European epoch and at the opposite end of the spectrum the phenomenon of global right wing medievalism as evidenced in the Alt right extremism underpinning the Christchurch mosque attack of 2019 The 11 chapters trace the transcultural moves and networks that comprise the shift from the 20th century study of the Middle Ages as an historical period to manifestations of medievalism as the reception and interpretation of the medieval past in postmedieval times Collectively these are viewed as indications of the changing public perception about the meaning and practice of the European heritage from the colonial to contemporary era The volume will appeal to educationists scholars and students interested in the academic history of the Middle Ages in New Zealand enthusiasts of film music and performance of the medieval members of the public interested in Aotearoa's history and popular culture and all who enjoy the colourful reinventions of medievalism

Film-Induced Tourism Sue Beeton, 2005-05-17 Film induced tourism has the potential to revitalise flagging regional rural communities and increase tourism to urban centres however it carries with it its own unique problems This publication explores such elements delving into the disciplines of sociology and psychology along with the fields of destination marketing community development and strategic planning
