Living, Loving and Loss Brad DeFord, Richard Gilbert, 2016-12-05 One of the unspoken aspects of mourning concerns the ways that loss affects our intimate relationships and our sexual expressiveness This text opens these subjects for conversation with the aim of promoting the trust care and respect that enable us to be vulnerable It purposefully covers a range of topics including 1 the meaning of intimacy and the significance of sexuality providing a basis for the use of these terms throughout the book 2 death grief and differences in sexual orientation including death and intimacy in the lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT community and the losses endured by young people due to gender issues 3 loss of relationship and restoration of intimacy in families including pharmacological effects on the grief processes of widowers grieving a not so loved parent the layered losses of infertility and intimacy and the tolls of war intimacy and sexuality challenges for soldiers and their families 4 adjusting to life's losses associated with aging or illness or infirmity including Alzheimer's and dementia related illnesses physical health losses after 50 and intimacy sex and hospice self determination and dignity at the end of life and 5 religious bases that have shaped our perspectives for understanding intimacy sexuality and healing after loss and which give us hope including the spiritual reflections of a rabbi and a Christian voice in defining what is right Set in a framework that is both psychological and spiritual the well researched contributions are intended to acknowledge these experiences both professionally and personally The book concludes with an extensive bibliography valuable for research and reference This book will be of value in undergraduate and graduate courses on thanatology as well as for anyone interested in knowing more about grief both those currently bereaved and those who wish to support others in mourning The contributors appreciate both the importance of our capacities for intimacy and sexuality and our inhibitions and hesitations in giving voice to our needs and concerns perhaps especially when we are

grieving The information and compassionate understanding they provide encourage us to bridge the gap between the secret and the private and to share what is close to our hearts Love and Loss - Volume Two Betty Hibod, 2024-11-26 Many books have been written as histories recounting events that shaped the life of a group society nation or civilization or as biographies recounting events and achievements relating to one person's life and work Many books have been written putting forth ideas philosophies and words of wisdom to live by Some of these we call holy books or scripture Fewer books have been written like this one which go behind the scenes of history lay bare the feelings behind the philosophies and document the painful and joyful inner path along which historical events and philosophical ideas emerge This book is intensely even shockingly personal not clinical or abstract or detached It is an intimate detailed sensual and sometimes disturbing account of a life lived on the cusp that bridges time and eternity Its focus is narrow it does not reveal much at all about anyone's visible public life or accomplishments but it explores in great depth the invisible contents of minds hearts and souls The scriptures and scriptural commentaries of most religions describe a path to salvation or bliss and provide instructions or guideposts for moving along the path but they are still only theoretical hypothetical mythical or metaphorical accounts This book seeks to show how the theories and hypotheses play out pragmatically in real time and space how the myths come alive in flesh and spirit how the metaphors become the very things they symbolize How does daily life look from inside someone in the throes of awakening How does she know who or what she is How is her destiny revealed How do seemingly ordinary mundane events become miracles This book begins to answer those questions
